Openings still are available in a University of Southern Indiana Course, "Developing Effective Leadership and Motivational Skills," being offered in cooperation with Southern Hills Counseling Center at Jasper.

The one-day class will meet at 9 a.m. Wednesday, May 24, at the center. Larry Bohleber, manager of Business Development Programs at USI, will be the instructor. Participants will assess their own leadership style, flexibility, and effectiveness, and learn to adapt to a range of styles for use in different situations.

The $85 registration fee ($75 each when two or more register together) includes lunch and materials. For information or to register, call 800-444-1965 and ask for the USI Office of Continuing Education.
