LINDA SIMMONS as assistant professor of social work. She earned her A.B. degree at Indiana University and an M.S.W. at Indiana University-Purdue University-Indianapolis. Ms. Simmons has worked as a family therapist and a psychiatric social worker in Evansville.

SANDRA SINGER as an assistant professor of psychology. She earned her B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Colorado where she worked as a research associate before joining the ISUE faculty.

ISUE EMPLOYEES INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN PHILHARMONIC CHORUS. Singing faculty and staff are invited to participate in the Evansville Philharmonic Chorus which will be rehearsing on the campus this season in room A28. The first rehearsal will be held on Tuesday evening, September 2, at 7:30 p.m. and will meet each following Tuesday.

The chorus is scheduled to perform with the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra on three occasions this season. The group will also perform on its own. Will Kesling, director of the Mid-America Singers, is also the Philharmonic Chorus music director. The audition may be waived by calling Mr. Kesling at 1736 before September 2.

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP FUND DRIVE IS ON. DAVID DEERING, bookstore manager, and the ISUE Bookstore have undertaken a project for the Alumni Association to raise funds for student scholarships.

Faculty and staff are asked to donate books to the Alumni Association, which will then sell them to the Bookstore. These funds will be used for student scholarships. Anyone interested in donating books can deliver them to the Office of Alumni Affairs in the University Center or can contact that office to have the books picked up.

Students can also donate books for this project. For further information, contact RALPH KENT, director of Alumni Affairs, at 1865.

ISUE CHEERLEADERS RETURN FROM CAMP WITH HONORS. The ISUE cheerleaders recently returned from the National Cheerleaders Association camp at the University of Tennessee - Knoxville. This is the first year the entire squad has attended the camp.

The squad brought back two red ribbons (excellent ratings), two blue ribbons (superior ratings), and a spirit stick. While more than 150 squads participated in the camp, only 20 squads were given spirit sticks. KEVIN MATTINGLY of Evansville, the Eagle mascot, also received a red ribbon.

RUTH WALLER and BECKY COLE are the sponsors of the cheerleaders. The cheerleaders from Evansville are STEVE BERNARD, RON BONGER, JEFF BUCKMAN, LORI CARROLL, CHRISTIE FOLZ, ROBIN GOEN, CHERRI HELFRICH, KEN KRAPP, STACEY LETT, JANE SEIBERT, and ALAN WOODRUFF. Cheerleader MARK HOLDER is from Boonville.

FOLK MUSICIANS AT AUDUBON STATE PARK. Folk musicians Dick and Anne Albin will bring the songs and instruments of the mountains to the flatlands of Audubon State Park Wednesday, August 27.

The Albins use the banjo, autoharp, dulcimer, and guitar to play the music of Kentucky's mountains, much of which comes from old English ballads brought to this country by the early settlers and handed down from generation to generation.

As a prelude to the concert, the Albins will entertain in the campground at 3:00 p.m. showing how to build and play dulcimers and telling a little of the instrument's history. That presentation and the 7:00 p.m. concert in the museum garden are free. Spectators should bring lawn chairs or blankets to sit on.
