JOHN HOLLINDEN BENEFIT NIGHT. Wayne Boultinghouse, director of Development, has announced a "John Hollinden Benefit Night" will be sponsored by Noble Roman's Restaurant located at West Pennsylvania and Red Bank Road on Wednesday, January 27.

The event is scheduled from 4:00 - 10:00 p.m. with special menu prices and selections available for groups of four to six. No other retail sales will be available at the Noble Roman's westside location during the event. According to Thomas M. Raeber, the local Noble Roman's franchisee, 100% of the proceeds from the special evening will go to the John Hollinden Benefit Fund. Raeber stressed that the "Benefit Night" will be held only at the Noble Roman's westside location, 4807 West Pennsylvania Avenue.

For additional information, call Wayne Boultinghouse at extension 1918.

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP FUND DRIVE IS ON. David Deering, Bookstore manager, and the ISUE Bookstore have undertaken a project for the Alumni Association to raise funds for student scholarships.

Faculty and staff are asked to donate books to the Alumni Association, which will then sell them to the Bookstore. These funds will be used for student scholarships. Anyone interested in donating books can deliver them to the Office of Alumni Affairs in the University Center or can contact that office to have the books picked up.

Students may also donate books for this project. For additional information, contact Ralph Kent, director of Alumni Affairs, at extension 1865.

REMINDER TO FACULTY AND STAFF: The University Meetings are scheduled for Monday, January 4, in A34. The meeting will begin at 8:30 a.m.

A MESSAGE FROM THE WILLIAM SANDS FAMILY: We thank you for the recent gift from the faculty and administration toward the Bill Sands Special Communications Fund. We also express our gratitude to those who have been able to make individual gifts to his fund through the Foundation. Since this will be an on-going scholarship fund, any donations which individuals can make will continue to help students for many years to come.

CONGRATULATIONS! Congratulations to Michael and Debbie Mason on the birth of their son, Matthew Michael, on December 19. Matthew weighed in at eight pounds, 13 ounces.
