Mid-America Singers Madrigal Feastes — New music, new cast members featured in 26th annual event

The Mid-America Singers will present their 26th annual Madrigal Feastes, a beautiful evening of fine food and lavish song set in Medieval England and featuring several new and beautiful pieces of music and cast members.

The feastes will start at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Friday, Saturday, November 30 and December 1 and 2, and 6 p.m. Sunday, December 3, in the University Center Dining Room (Saturday night already is sold out). Tickets are $21 for general admission, $16 for children/students/USI students/senior citizens (60-plus), or $19.50 per person in groups of 20 or more. Call extension 1735 for reservations or information.

Mr. Daniel R. Craig, USI assistant professor of music who directs the Singers and their annual holiday celebration, said the new music will include "Welcome Sweet Pleasure" by Thomas Weelkes; "Flow Not So Fast, Ye Fountains" by John Dowland; "My Bonnie Lass She Smelleth" by P.D.Q. Bach (a parody on an old English Madrigal by Thomas Morley entitled "My Bonnie Lass She Smileth").

Also, "Pastime with Good Company" by King Henry VIII; "Cantate Domino" by Giuseppe Pitoni; "The Gift" by Bob Chilcott, a member of the King Singers; "O Magnum Mysterium" by Thomas Luis De Victoria; and "Salvation Is Created" by P. Tschesnokoff.

"Zdrowas Krolewno Wyborna (Hail Supreme Mother)" and "Modlitwa O Pokoj (Prayer for Peace)" will be among three selections the Singers will feature from their trip to Poland earlier this year. They also will present several traditional pieces like "Boar's Head Carol," "The Flaming Pudding Carol," and "The Twelve Days of Christmas."

Three new jesters — Mr. Adam Wilson (Head Jester), Ms. Lisa Fikes (Silent Jester), and Ms. Chanda Davis (Little Jester) — will spread their cheer and antics across the dining room, while Mr. Jeremy Brack has taken on the role of the Lord Chamberlain. Mr. Michael Galvin and Ms. Varbi Huck Galvin, USI education graduates, return to their roles as the Lord and

USI Theatre to celebrate holiday season with A Christmas Carol

Treat yourself and your family and friends to a holiday classic when USI Theatre presents Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol. The production will be staged on a varying schedule from November 30 through December 17 at the theatre, 3001 Igleheart Avenue.

Mr. Edward Journey, an Alabaman who came to southern Indiana for Lincoln Amphitheatre productions of Young Abe Lincoln and Big River, will be guest director for the Dickens classic.

Mr. Mark Atchison of Evansville community theater will head the cast as Ebenezer Scrooge. The ghosts who visit him one Christmas Eve will be played by Ms. Jacquelyn Moore (Christmas Past), USI theater senior; Mr. Greg Appel (Christmas Present), USI theater junior; and Mr. Danny Givens (Christmas Yet To Come), USI theater sophomore. Mr. Patrick Litteken will portray Tiny Tim and Mr. Timothy Paul Taylor, USI theater senior, will be Bob Cratchit.

Other cast members include: Mr. Tony DeVries, Ms. Amanda Feagley, Mr. Matthew Herrmann, Ms. Abby Hobbs, Mr. Rick Hobbs, Dr. Douglas Hubbell, Mr. John Jensen, Mr. Andrew Kemp, Ms. Allison Larty, Ms. Jayme Lively, Ms. Jolie McCraw, Ms. Melissa Panzarello, Mr. Charles Schefer, Ms. Lori Van Scyoc, Mr. Curt Stewart, Ms. Tara Taylor, and Ms. Krista Youngblood.

Names in the news:

Dr. Hilary A. Braysmith, assistant professor of art history, gave a paper entitled "Why, not Who, are the Great Artists of History" at the Art Education Association of Indiana annual conference October 26 in Indianapolis.

Drs. Scott Gordon and Deke Gundersen, assistant professors of biology, recently presented papers at the 111th Annual Meeting of the Indiana Academy of Sciences (IAS) in Indianapolis. Dr. Gundersen presented a paper on "Subacute Toxicity of the Water-Soluble Fraction of Kuwaiti Crude Oil and Partially Combusted Crude Oil on Menidia beryllina." Dr. Gordon presented a paper entitled "Intercontinental Variation Within Three Species of Marasmius (Agaricales, Basidiomycotina, Fungi)." Dr. Gordon was elected to serve as vice chair of the IAS Botany Section for 1996-97 and assume duties as chair for 1997-98.

Mr. Matthew R. Graham, associate professor of English, will have two new poems published in the December/January issue of the Cincinnati Review.

Mrs. Nancy M. Myers, mathematics specialist in Academic Skills, presented a table display on "Math Anxiety" at the November 2 Math Fair at Harrison High School, sponsored by the Southwest Indiana Council of Teachers of Mathematics. Table presentations covered a range of grade levels (K through college). Ms. GeorgeAnn Griffin and Mr. Donald E. Purcell, instructors in mathematics, also presented.

Dr. Joseph J. Palladino, professor of psychology, and Dr. Bill Hill of Kennesaw State College presented a symposium, "The ABCs of grading: Pedagogical, ethical, and legal issues" at the meeting of the American Psychological Association in New York City. The symposium was selected as a highlighted session by the Division on Teaching.

Dr. Palladino, Dr. Hill, and Dr. John Norcross of the University of Scranton collaborated on an article that appeared in the American Psychological Society Observer. They reviewed their research on extra credit opportunities that revealed, among other findings, an absence of educational value associated with a number of extra credit opportunities actually used by college/university faculty members.

PAC hours

The Physical Activities Center will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesday, November 22, but the pool and weight room will be closed. The building will close for the Thanksgiving holiday, Thursday-Sunday, November 23-26.

The University community extends its sympathy to Mr. Timothy A. Hicklin, custodial worker, in the death November 11 of his stepfather, Mr. William C. Condor, 71, of Evansville. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association.

The University community extends its sympathy to Ms. L. Chancellor Dugan, women's basketball coach, in the death November 4 of her sister, Mrs. Nancy Poore, 38, of Louisville.

Thank you ...

Mrs. Corinne, Mr. David, and Dr. Melissa Vandever wish to thank the entire University community for their many expressions of sympathy after the death of their beloved husband, father, and father-in-law. The support and concern were heartwarming and most appreciated.

faculty assistance in dealing with an ongoing problem. Please do not move audio/visual equipment from one room to another. If there is a problem with a piece of equipment, contact Media Services, extension 1888, or send a student to our office, FA184, and we will take care of the situation as soon as possible. "Borrowing" equipment from another classroom only creates more problems. Media Services thanks you for your immediate attention to the problem.
