For Immediate Release

Glen E. Baumgart, a representative from the University of Southern Indiana (USI) Admissions Office, will be on the Madisonville Community College campus from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Monday, January 29 to answer questions from graduating seniors about four-year degree programs. He will provide information about USI, college costs, housing on campus, and academic areas of interest. He will be in the Student Center.

USI sponsors spring Southern Hospitality Days to allow interested students to visit campus. Baumgart will have full details about those visitation dates planned for Monday, February 19; Saturday, March 16; and Saturday, April 20.

The University of Southern Indiana is located in Evansville, Indiana. Associate, baccalaureate, and master's degree programs are offered through the School of Business, School of Education and Human Services, School of Liberal Arts, School of Nursing and Health Professions, and School of Science and Engineering Technology. Enrollment is 7,666 with 1,400 students living on campus. Dr. H. Ray Hoops is the president of USI.

Auditions for The NEW Harmony Theatre's 1996 season will be held by appointment only on Friday, February 2, in Evansville, and Saturday, February 3, in Louisville. Anyone interested in auditioning should send a resume, photograph, and self-addressed stamped envelope to: The New Harmony Theatre, 8600 University Boulevard, Evansville, IN 47712-3596; please list the city preferred for an audition.

January 12 is the deadline for receipt of applications. An applicant will be notified by mail of audition date, time, location, travel directions, and any special instructions on what to prepare. Resumes and photos will not be returned.

The NEW Harmony Theatre's 1996 season includes A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum, June 14 - June 30; Scotland Road, July 12 - July 28; The Mystery Of Irma Vep, August 2 - August 24; and A Moon For The Misbegotten, August 30 - September 14. All productions will be rehearsed between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. Tuesdays through Sundays. Performances will be Thursdays through Sundays at Murphy Auditorium in New Harmony, Indiana.

The NEW Harmony Theatre employs both union and non-union performers. An Equity actor is employed under an SPT contract; a non-union actor is employed under a letter of agreement contract. Salaries are competitive; out-of-town performers receive housing accommodations as part of their remuneration.

Jay Raphael of New York City is the guest artistic director for the 1996 season. He plans to direct three of the plays. Steven Andersen of Columbus, Ohio is the guest musical director for A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum. For further information, call 812/465-1668.
