GERMAN CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION PLANNED. The ISUE German faculty will hold a Sankt Nikolaus Fest Monday, December 3, to honor the children's holiday and this area's strong German heritage. The event, slated for 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the University Conference Center, is expected to become an annual holiday gathering.

The evening's program will include decorating the tree, a short slide presentation on German Christmas customs, the singing of traditional German carols by the audience, the arrival of Sankt Nikolaus and refreshments. Admission is almost free -- each family is asked to bring a plate of cookies and one tree decoration. The family will hang its decoration on the tree and sign the "Ornament Book." In future years, the tree will "grow" with additions by new visitors.

Parents who would like smaller children (1st grade and down) to receive a gift of sweets from Sankt Nikolaus in true German tradition may call Drs. Donald or Susan Wolfe at 428-0637 (evenings or weekends) or extension 1738 (workdays). The parents should provide the child's name, one especially helpful thing the child did during the year and one area which could use a small improvement. Sankt Nikolaus will read these personal items aloud from his "golden book" of children to fulfill the tradition that, with his bag of goodies and an occasional admonishment, is a vivid reminder of the joy and spirit of Christmas.

ISUE THEATRE'S ONE-ACTS START THIS WEEKEND. "Original Sins," a series of one-act plays, will be presented at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, November 30-December 1 and December 7-8, at the ISUE Theatre, Igleheart and Barker avenues. The presentations will feature "It's Up To You," by Chris Stafford, and "Outskirts," "The Critics" and "Tomorrow People," all by Jeff Risher. Both are ISUE Theatre veterans. Alpha Psi Omega, national theatre honorary, is sponsoring the one-hour program.

MADRIGAL TICKETS STILL AVAILABLE. The Mid-America Singers Madrigal Dinners are sold out for performances on Friday and Saturday night, December 7 and 8, but tickets still are available for performances on Wednesday and Thursday, December 5-6, and for the Sunday matinee, December 9. The dinners start at 7:30 each evening and 1 p.m. on Sunday. Tickets are $13.50 per person. Interested persons may contact Roberta Schweizer at extension 1735 to make reservations.

CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING. In order to comply with the Office of Security's instructions, do not use electric lights on any Christmas tree within the University buildings. All live trees must be secured in a tree stand with adequate water.

CURRICULAR COMMITTEE ACTION. The Curricular Committee has given second reading approval to the following new courses:

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Charles T. Barber, professor of political science, participated November 15-17 in the annual meeting of the International Studies Association/Midwest, at the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana. He presented a paper entitled "Non-alignment or Confrontation in the Middle East: An Examination of Tendencies."

ISUE senior Moulton Cato has written an article entitled "Leaving Home? Quitting School? Think About It!" for The Real World section of the November issue of Career World.

Engineering technology student Keith Benedict will be among 14 regional winners competing in December in the Old Guard awards division at the winter annual meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers in New Orleans.

ALTERNATIVES FOR THE ELDERLY TO BE DISCUSSED. A discussion on nursing homes and other alternatives for the elderly will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, November 29, in Library Room 100. The program is sponsored by VOICES, and is open to the public. The skit, "What Shall We Do About Aunt Sarah?" will be featured, with a question-answer session to follow.

NEW FACES. The newest employee at ISUE is Donald L. Landers, who has accepted the position as shipping and receiving clerk at the University Bookstore. He is a 1964 graduate of North High School and recently retired from the U.S. Marine Corps with the rank of master sergeant. He has traveled to Japan and Hawaii, and likes baseball and running. He and his wife, Paula, and their four children live at 7900 Old State Road.

SUPPORT KAPPA DELTA PI SCHOLARSHIP GREETING CARD. You can exchange holiday greetings with your ISUE friends and colleagues by making a contribution to the Kappa Delta Pi scholarship fund. A beautiful greeting card with the names of all who contribute will be sent to University faculty and staff. Because all materials for the project have been donated, every dollar received will be placed directly in the KDP scholarship fund. Last year, the gifts of ISUE family members made possible a $400 scholarship for an ISUE student. Contributions will be accepted in the Division of Education until November 30.

CONGRATULATIONS -- to Sharon Flesher, administrative secretary in the office of the Vice-President for Academic Affairs, and her husband, Robert, on the birth of their daughter, Holly, on November 26. Holly weighed 7 pounds and 2 ounces and arrived at 5:52 p.m.

ADVENT PROGRAM PLANNED. The IXOUS Group will meet at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, December 5, with the program to feature a discussion of Advent. Call Campus Ministry, extension 1810, for details. Meal reservations required.

"THE NAKED APE" CONTINUES. Dr. Robert Gehring, associate professor of psychology, will be the leader at Monday's Faculty-Staff Christian Discussion Group meeting at noon in UC 308. He will continue the "Naked Ape" series started last week.

NUCLEAR DISCUSSION TODAY. Dr. Gavin Whitsett will be the featured speaker at 11 a.m. Wednesday, November 28, for a nuclear war discussion sponsored by the Student Government Association. The group will meet in UC 350.

FICTION FEATURED AT HUMANITIES FORUM. Thomas Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, will speak on "The State of Contemporary Fiction" at 10 a.m. Monday, December 3, in UC 353. This will be the final Forum program prior to the holidays.

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES. "The Gospel According to St. Matthew," Pier Paolo Pasolini, director; nonprofessional cast. Unorthodox interpretation of the Gospel in which Christ is portrayed as an activist full of violent contradictions. The film was made in Italian, but this print is in English. (1964; 136 minutes)

GRADUATE SCHOOL DISCUSSIONS SLATED. Representatives of the Indiana State University Graduate School will be on the University campus December 6 to discuss the school with any interested persons. They will be in the University Center from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Appointments are not necessary.

MASH UNITS NEARLY READY. One-bedroom apartments will be completed in December in Mid-America Student Housing and be made available to ISUE faculty and staff. Persons interested in the apartments for the second semester should call the MASH rental office. Units for another 100 students also will be completed in December.

BLUE CROSS/BLUE SHIELD REPORT. Please note that all 1983 medical and dental charges must be filed with Blue Cross/Blue Shield before December 31, 1984. To ensure adequate time for submitting the charges, all completed claim forms and receipts must be submitted to the Personnel Office before December 12, 1984. Claims for 1983 submitted after December 31, 1984, will not be considered by Blue Cross/Blue Shield. For additional information, contact Darlene Fisher at extension 1790.

CREDIT UNION HIGHLIGHTS. Effective October, 1984, the maximum signature loan is $2500. Anyone having an open-end loan with a limit above $2500 will not be able to add on until their balance is below $2500.
