Rotary seeking participants in 4-week tour of Japan

For immediate release
May 23, 1997

Rotary District 6580 is searching for four men and women who are interested in visiting and studying for four weeks in Yokohama and Kawasaki, Japan. The Group Study Exchange members and two alternates will be chosen by interviews conducted Sunday, June 8, in Bloomington.

Applicants must be at least 25 years old and active in a business or profession. They need not be able to speak Japanese. Language and customs training will be provided by Rotary International.

Rotary will provide air fair and living expenses for the trip. The only cost to the participants will be personal expenses and gifts. Interested persons should call Carlos Aballi, study exchange committee chair, 812/462-4372.
