COMMUNITY OF SCHOLARS TO FEATURE IU DISTINGUISHED PROFESSOR. Dr. Harold G. Shane, who holds a distinguished professorship at Indiana University with the title of University Professor of Education, will be featured in a USI Community of Scholars program on Thursday, November 20, sponsored by the Division of Education. He will deliver a public lecture at 7:30 p.m. on "Some Social and Educational Consequences of the Microelectronic Age."

Dr. Shane did his undergraduate work at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and earned both his master's and Ph.D. degrees from Ohio State University, where he was a faculty member (1942-46). His professional experience has included work in nursery school, in grades three and four, and at the junior-senior high school level. Dr. Shane was a curriculum supervisor in the Ohio State Department of Education and served as superintendent of the Winnetka (Illinois) Public Schools. At the university level, he was dean of the IU School of Education (1959-65) and also has been on the faculty at Northwestern University (1949-59). Dr. Shane has lectured on five continents and has worked with many national educational and governmental organizations. He was author or co-author of more than 525 publications with a combined circulation of more than 140 million. Among the 131 books for which he was author or senior author are The Educational Significance of the Future (1973), Curriculum Change Toward the 21st Century (1977), Educating for a New Millennium (1981), and Teaching and Learning in a Microelectronic Age (1986).

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Larry Arp, associate professor of business, has been appointed to the Indiana Advisory Council for Business Education by the state school superintendent, Mr. H. Dean Evans. The 25-member council is designed to improve communication between the Indiana Department of Education and business educators.

Mr. Paul Bennett, associate professor of electrical engineering technology, is the co-author with Mr. Thad Kulik, a professor at the University of Nebraska, of an article, "The Study of Engineering Technology in West Germany," which appeared in the Journal of Tau Alpha Pi, the national honor society of engineering technology.

Mr. Matthew Graham, assistant professor of English, gave a reading of his poetry on Tuesday, October 21, for the Academy of American Poets at the Donnell Library in New York City.

Dr. Carl C. Lyles, a USI lecturer in education, will be the main speaker for an ethnic session of the annual Indiana Historical Conference, to be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, November 1, at the Indianapolis airport Holiday Inn. Dr. Lyles has been asked to tell the story of his native community, Lyles Station, Indiana.

Ms. Marilyn Walters, director of placement, was elected secretary of the Midwest Cooperative Education Association at the 1986 fall conference in Indianapolis, an event for which she served as conference chairperson. MCEA is a 500-member organization of co-op employers and university coordinators, drawn from an eight-state region.

USI UNITED WAY AT 71 PERCENT OF GOAL. The USI United Way drive has reached 71 percent of its $7,500 goal, with more than $5,300 pledged during the first week of the drive on campus. Ms. Debbie Warren, an engineering drafter and campus campaign chairman, said, "The first week's figures indicate a tremendous opportunity for us to exceed our 1986-87 United Way goal. This figure is even more exciting when you realize that one third of these pledges are 'fair share' commitments."

All employees who have not turned in pledge cards are reminded that the USI campaign ends Friday, October 31. Division coordinators are urged to have their solicitation kits ready for pickup on Monday, November 3. A USI United Way Recognition Party is planned for 3:30 to 5 p.m. on Thursday, November 6, in UC 308 to thank both the USI campaign committee and 'fair share' donors. The two special 'fair share' drawings will take place at that time.

USI FACULTY EXHIBITION TO OPEN AT NEW HARMONY. A variety of work will be on display, including a lot of new work, in an exhibition by USI art faculty members which will open Sunday, November 2, at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art. It will be the first time the USI artists have presented their work as a group. Included will be Mr. Michael Aakhus, Mr. Lennie Dowhie, Mr. William Leth, Mr. John McNaughton, Ms. Carolyn Roth, and Ms. Katie Waters. There will be a reception for the artists from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday. The exhibition will continue through November 27.

USI THEATRE TO PRESENT "GOODBYE PEOPLE." The USI Theatre group will present Herb Gardner's off-beat comedy about love and dying, "The Goodbye People," on Thursday through Saturday, November 13-15 and 20-22, at the USI Theatre at Igleheart and Barker avenues. Curtain time will be 8 p.m. Tickets will be $4 for general admission, and $3 for USI students, faculty, and staff and senior citizens; a group rate of $2.50 per person for parties of 10 or more also will be available.

CHRISTMAS MADRIGAL FEASTES START EARLY. The USI Mid-America Singers will present the annual Christmas Madrigal Feaste early this year, because they have been invited to sing at the distinguished Indiana Society of Chicago dinner in December at which USI will be honored. The Feastes will be presented at 7:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, November 28-29, and at 2 and 7 p.m. on Sunday, November 30, in the University Center Dining Room. The tickets will be $15 per person; a special price of $10 will be available for children under the age of 18 for the Sunday matinee only. In addition, the opportunity to become a "Patron of the Feaste" is being offered again this year; a patron's gift of $75 or more will provide two tickets for one performance, plus the option to purchase four additional reserved seats at a special price of $12. Patrons will be recognized in the Feaste program. Interested persons may contact the Division of Humanities, extension 1734.

COMMUNAL STUDIES CONFERENCE HAS RECORD ATTENDANCE. The USI Center for Communal Studies celebrated its 10th anniversary by co-sponsoring its largest conference to date at the Shaker Village at Canterbury, New Hampshire. The October 9-11 meeting attracted more than 200 people from 22 states, England, and Israel, representing 20 historic and six current communal groups. Eldresses Bertha Lindsay and Gertrude Soule, two of eight living Shaker sisters, greeted the conferees, who included a delegation of 40 from the Amana Colonies in Iowa. USI participants included Dr. Charles F. Petranek, professor of sociology, who moderated a session on "Individuals and Families in Community;" Mr. James A. Sanders, director of Historic New Harmony, Inc., who presented a slide-lecture on "Current Restoration and Developments at Harmonist and Owenite New Harmony, Indiana;" and Dr. Donald E. Pitzer, professor of history and director of the USI Center for Communal Studies, who directed the Canterbury Conference and moderated the session on "Owenite Music and Utopia Models." Next year's conference will be held October 15-18 at the Swedish Colony at Bishop Hill, Illinois.

SPENCER FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM. The National Academy of Education will award up to 25 Spencer fellowships for 1987-88. Persons in education, the humanities, and the social and behavioral sciences may apply; the proposal must describe research in which relevance to education is apparent. Applications must be postmarked by January 1, 1987. Forms are available from Ms. Gail Keeley, National Academy of Education, Harvard Graduate School of Education, 108 Longfellow Hall, Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138, or call (617) 495-9701.

FINANCIAL AID/COUNSELING BOARD TO MEET. The board of directors of Student Aid and Counseling Service, Inc., will hold a noon luncheon and business meeting on Monday, November 3, in UC 309. The not-for-profit corporation administers numerous scholarships for philanthropic organizations in southwestern Indiana, in addition to providing its own funds for scholarships. Mr. Robert Harper, USI director of counseling, is a board member of the organization.

FINANCIAL AID WORKSHOP PLANNED. The Indiana Student Financial Aid Association will present the High School Counselors Financial Aid Workshop on Friday, November 7, in UC 350-352. The annual event attracts some 45 participants from regional high schools and colleges. Mr. R. Paul Steward of Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology and Mr. James Patton, USI director of Financial Aid, will be co-presenters.

GHOSTS AND GOBLINS TO VISIT FRIDAY. Youngsters from the Children's Center will be masking for Halloween and making their annual rounds of USI offices on Friday, October 31. For those interested in being visited by the wee ghosts and goblins, the 2 and 3 year olds will come to the Administration Building and the Physical Plant, while the 4 and 5 year olds will visit the Physical Activities Center, the Library, and the University Center.

SECRETARIES HALLOWEEN PARTY THURSDAY. The USI Secretaries and Associates Club will hold its Halloween party from 11:45 to 1:15 p.m. Thursday, November 30, in UC 350-351. Costumes are optional, but members are encouraged to dress for the occasion. There will be games and activities, with the hostesses — Ms. Barbara Brothers, services coordinator, and Ms. Ruth Cutteridge, Counseling Center secretary -- providing dessert after lunch (bring your own or go through the cafeteria line). Members whose dues have not been paid will be assessed a $1 admission fee.

CHILDREN'S CENTER ISSUES SNOW-DAY POLICY. Due to the large enrollment at the Children's Center this fall, center administrators have adopted a school vacation and snow-day policy. School children age 8 and younger who have a brother or sister attending the Children's Center on a regular basis may attend the center on snow days and school vacations.

LIBRARY SERVICES SAYS "THANK YOU." Library Services wishes to thank all University divisions for their help and cooperation in creating the displays of "Student Achievements" that were exhibited in the Library during Open House. Because of the success of these displays, we would hope that each division will continue to advise us of student work that could be displayed throughout the academic year, as well as during Open House.

MATH, WRITING AID FINAL. The tentative schedules for the Math Clinic and Writing Workshop, which were published in University Notes on October 1, now have been established as final schedules. Although the persons in charge may vary from the October 1 schedule, the hours of operation will remain the same.

LIBRARY EXTENDS HOURS. Weekend hours will be extended on a trial basis at the USI Library, beginning Saturday, October 25. An evaluation will continue through the spring semester. Please announce these hours to your classes:

Saturday -- The Library will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Sunday -- The Library will be open from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m.

BLUE CROSS/BLUE SHIELD VIDEO TAPE. A video tape explaining the Cost Guard Program is available in the Personnel Office. Anyone interested in viewing the tape can contact Personnel and make arrangements to borrow it on a short-term basis.

SECRETARIES HAVE APPLE BUTTER AVAILABLE. The USI Secretaries and Associates Club had a very successful Apple Butter Stir during Open House Sunday. The supply was increased this year because the apple butter sold out during Open House in 1985, and pint jars of apple butter still are available, either from Mrs. Jackie Pender at the switchboard or Ms. Ruth Cutteridge in the Counseling Office.

FORTUNE HOTELS DISCOUNT PROGRAM. USI employees and their families are eligible for a 10 percent discount on hotel reservations through the Fortune Hotels Employee Discount Program. There are three hotels available in St. Petersburg Beach on Florida's West Coast. Brochures and discount cards are available in the Personnel Office, FWA 29.

FACULTY/STAFF CHRISTIAN DISCUSSION GROUP. Ms. Christine Hoehn, USI associate campus minister, will lead the Faculty/Staff Christian Discussion Group in considering the next two chapters -- "Religion" and "The National Society" -- of Habits of the Heart, Mr. Robert Bellah's recent study of individualism and commitment in American life. All USI faculty and staff members are invited to attend the sessions at 12 noon Mondays; this week's meeting will be held in the UC Dining Room.

WRITERS SEMINAR. Mr. Stephen Oliker, associate creative director at Keller-Crescent, will be the featured guest Monday, November 3, for "The Writer at Work" seminar in the English 491 class taught by Dr. Walter Everett, associate professor of English. The public is invited to sit in on the discussion sections of the class, which meets at 6 p.m. in FWA 58.

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES. "The Exterminating Angel" (1962, 91 minutes, French with English subtitles) Director: Luis Bunuel; cast: Silvia Pinal, Jacqueline Andere, Jose Baviera. In this strange and fascinating film about the decadence of the ruling class, guests at a dinner party find that they are unable to leave. The film will be shown at 2 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, November 4, in Forum I; it is free and open to the public.

PLACEMENT INTERVIEWING. The following organizations will have representatives on campus during the next week for employment interviews: Dial Corporation, Thursday, October 30; University of Toledo Law School, Friday (until noon), October 31; Boy Scouts of America and George Koch & Sons, Tuesday, November 4; Radio Shack, Wednesday, November 5.

SPORTS THIS WEEK. The USI Men's Basketball Team will kick off the 1986-87 season with two intra-squad games. The first will be at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, November 4, at Mater Dei High School. The second is tentatively scheduled for either Friday or Saturday, November 14 or 15, at Castle High School near Newburgh; the date depends on whether the Castle Knights continue into post-season football competition. The Eagles will open competition on Sunday, November 16, with a 7:30 p.m. exhibition game with Marathon Oil. There is no reserved seating for this game.

Cross Country -- USI in GLVC competition, Saturday, November 1, Highland Heights, Kentucky.

Soccer -- St. Joseph's College at USI, 3 p.m. Friday, October 31; the GLVC Tournament has been delayed until next weekend, Saturday-Sunday, November 8-9.

Volleyball -- USI at Bellarmine, 6 p.m. Thursday, October 30; Northern Kentucky at USI, Saturday, November 1; USI at UE, 7 p.m. Tuesday, November 4.
