

INDIANA STATE University
Notes
EVANSCVILLE CAMPUS

VOL. VI No. 11
January 19, 1972

STUDENT COURSE EVALUATION FORMS

Recently, Brad Awe reported that he was designing a new format for administering course evaluations. Several faculty members have indicated an interest in this new IBM-card format which will be ready for use during the Spring semester. If anyone else is still interested in reviewing this procedure, please contact Brad before February 15. Anyone who desires to participate in this evaluation procedure should write a memo to this effect and send it to Brad Awe, Room 178.

"BARBER OF SEVILLE" AT VANDERBURGH AUDITORIUM

Rossini's THE BARBER OF SEVILLE will be performed by the I.U. Opera Theatre at the Vanderburgh Auditorium on February 5 and 6 sponsored by the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra.

A block of tickets for each performance is being held for ISUE faculty and staff. The tickets are $4.00, $3.00, $2.50, and $1.50, and may be reserved through Mrs. Mary Patterson in the Personnel Office. If you prefer the Sunday afternoon performance, tell Mrs. Patterson and she will arrange for your tickets to be mailed to you.

NEW HARMONY MUSIC SERIES

Beginning with a performance of the I.U. Varsity Singers on February 12, five musical programs will be presented in Thrall Opera House in New Harmony:

February 12 - Varsity Singers - 20 voices
February 19 - Javier Calderon, classical guitarist from Bolivia
March 11 - Jacques Israelievitch, French violin virtuoso and Gail Bass, harpist from Chicago
March 25 - I.U. Brass Quintet
April 8 - Jan Redick and William Oberholtzer, Principals in several I.U. Operas

Proceeds will be for the benefit of the Opera House's projector and piano fund. The music series is sponsored by the I.U. Alumni Association and the Natural Areas and Historical Trust of New Harmony with a grant from the State Arts Commission.

Order tickets from Jack Davis, Harmonie Haus Store, New Harmony. Patron tickets for the 5 concerts are $12.00 and student tickets are $6.00. The Opera House seats only 250, so order tickets early.

AFTER THE GAME PARTY, JANUARY 20, 1972

The University Women are sponsoring a party after the ISUE basketball game on January 20, 1972, in the North Park Apartments Party House. If you have not been called and are planning to come to the party, please call 867-3756 so the committee can plan for enough food.

THANK YOU

"I would like to thank my friends at ISUE for their concern and expressions of sympathy following the death of my Mother."

Lillian Giello

FIRST CAPPING CEREMONY SET FOR JANUARY 30, 1972

Dr. Maynard K. Hine, Chancellor of Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis, will be the guest speaker at the first capping ceremony for the dental hygiene students at Indiana State University, Evansville. The ceremony will be held on January 30 at the Evansville Campus. Twelve students will be capped.

Dr. Hine, former dean of the Indiana University School of Dentistry, has served as the IU-PUI chancellor for the past three years.

Dr. Hine was the editor of the Journal of Periodontology from 1950 through 1970, and has co-authored five books, Periodontia; Preventive Dentistry; Symposium on Preventive Dentistry; Textbook of Oral Pathology; and Review of Dentistry.

At the present Dr. Hine is a member of the Advisory Committee on Dental Health of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, and active on various committees of the Federation Dentaire Internationale.

Students to be capped during the ceremony are Becky Allison, R.R.#13, Harmony Way; Rebecca Brown, 8113 Middle Mt. Vernon Road; Deborah Lynn Carl, 2738 Austin Avenue; Susan J. Cosgrove, 2430 N. Governor; Bonnie Annette Damm, 909 York Road; Marcy Erline Egli, 6415 Plainview; Alice J. Hief, 1405 Park Street, Jasper, Indiana; Sandra Lee McBride, 500 Hanover Road; Cheryl Sue Miller, Fordice Road, Lebanon, Indiana; Eleanor Brown Rausch, 606 Evergreen Road; Lynne Ann Sloan, 1475 Steward Road, Lima, Ohio; Elaine Knapp Stevens, 218 East Broadway, Princeton, Indiana.

The students will be capped by Mrs. Suzanne Boundy, Director of Dental Hygiene, Indiana University.

The dental hygiene program is offered at the Evansville Campus through the Indiana University School of Dentistry. Dr. Gordon Kelley on the Evansville Campus is director of the Allied Health Programs which include dental hygiene, dental assisting, and respiratory therapy at the present time. The dental hygiene program is under the supervision of Mrs. Florence McCloskey.

DRAMATICS HONORARY FORMED AT ISUE

The Phi Omicron Chapter of the National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega, is being organized at the Evansville Campus of Indiana State University. Alpha Psi Omega is an honor society for those doing high standard of work in dramatics. It also provides a wider fellowship among college drama departments for those interested in college theater.

Membership in Alpha Psi Omega requires that a student excel in some area of dramatics, be it as an actor, business manager, stage manager, or student director.

January 19, 1972

Charter members named to the Phi Omicron Chapter at ISUE are Robert Barnett, a junior art major; William Nation, senior English major; James Petersen, junior communications major; George Routt, freshman communications major; Gene Knight, freshman communications major; Debbie Perkins, sophomore English major; and Michael Clark, junior communications major.

MOVING FINGER

The Moving Finger, a student publication of art work, photography, short stories and poetry, is on sale for 50¢ in the bookstore and the blue carpet area. It is published each semester by the Humanities Division.

REGISTRATION

Students who plan to attend the second semester at ISUE will register February 1-4.

February 1-2, Tuesday-Wednesday.....	Registration for Pre-advised students with no change in their schedule.
February 3, Thursday.....	Registration for Pre-advised students with changes in their schedule.
February 4, Friday.....	Advisement and Registration for all Non-Pre-advised students.
February 7, Monday.....	Classes begin at 8:00 a.m.

A student must pay his fees at the time that he registers. There is no delayed payment. Advisors are asked to please make students aware of this.

PANEL DISCUSSION TO BE VIEWED ON WEHT

The panel discussion "Is Busing The Answer to School Integration In Evansville," which was held on the ISUE Campus on January 13, 1972, sponsored by the Business and Professional Speech Class and the Communication Arts Club, can be viewed on Tuesday, February 1, 1972, at 9:30 p.m. on WEHT, Channel 25. Tim Spencer, news director for Channel 25, has edited the discussion and will present the highlights on Vista '72.

BOY SCOUTS TO HOLD MEETING AT ISUE

The Buffalo Trace Council Boy Scouts will hold their 40th Annual Scouters' Recognition Dinner at ISUE in the Forum on Saturday, January 29, 1972, from 2:00 till 9:00 p.m.

WAIVER OF FEES FOR STAFF

The Indiana State University Board of Trustees, at their meeting held on September 20, 1968, authorized the waiver of contingent and student service fees for faculty members enrolling in classes at Indiana State University. The policy applies to all full-time faculty, including one-year appointees; the original authorization which permitted a faculty member to enroll in not more than six semester hours per academic year was amended on May 15, 1971, to permit a faculty member, under certain conditions, to enroll with fee waiver in not more than six hours per calendar year.

January 19, 1972

On December 18, 1971, the Indiana State University Board of Trustees, pursuant to the recommendation of President Rankin, revised the policy to include waiver of contingent and student service fees (does not include building facility fee) for all University full-time staff subject to the restrictions set forth in the University Handbook. The waiver of fee provision is not retroactive and will be effective with the beginning of the Second Semester, 1972. (For further information and fee waiver forms, contact Mr. Elmer Sander in Financial Aids Office.) This policy does not apply to non-credit or extended services classes.

TENURE APPOINTMENTS

Tenure appointments for twelve faculty members at ISUE have been approved by the Board of Trustees of Indiana State University. Those approved are: Ted DeVries, Associate Professor in Education; Lomberto Diaz, Associate Professor in Spanish; Michael Pasko, Associate Professor in English; Gerald Altstadt, Assistant Professor in Physical Education; Charles Bertram, Assistant Professor in Mathematics; Seymour Brodsky, Assistant Professor in Communications; John Ferrell, Assistant Professor in Business; Ramona Hinton, Assistant Professor in Art; Helen Sands, Assistant Professor in Speech; Robert Small, Assistant Professor in Education and Educational Psychology; John Deem, Instructor in Business; and Charles Lonnberg, Librarian.