EVANSVILLE PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA PRESENTATION - "WAR REQUIEM"

More than 200 musicians and vocalists will take part in the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra's massive presentation of Benjamin Britten's "War Requiem" 8:00 p.m. Saturday, March 23 at Vanderburgh Auditorium, with Minas Christian conducting.

In addition to the 80 Philharmonic musicians, the Evansville Choral Society made up of some 80 voices and a children's chorus made up of approximately 70 members will also take part.

Composer Britten, a confirmed pacifist and conscientious objector, combines the traditional Latin texts from the Mass for the Dead with the poetry of Wilfred Owen, World War I soldier killed in action.

Ticket information for the "Requiem" is available at the Philharmonic Office, 14-1/2 S.E. Second Street.

ISUE SECRETARIES

BOSSES BEWARE! The topic for the March meeting of the Secretaries of ISUE is Business Law and Dr. Barbara Marting, Professor of Business, will be the guest speaker. "Legal Implications Concerning the Status of Women" is the title of her speech. The meeting will be held in the Rare Books Room on March 21 from 12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m. This month's hostesses, Elizabeth Buck, Joanie Jost, and Rose Zigenfus, have asked that each person bring a salad. If there are any questions, call ext. 308.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

KENNETH SETTLE, Chairman, Business Division and Professor of Business, will be speaking to the Y's Men's Club at the YMCA on March 25. His topic is "Youth: Agony and Ecstasy."

DALE SHOOK, Instructor in Business, was guest speaker for the American Association of Women Accountants on March 18 at the Jackson House. The topic of his talk was "Middle East Oil in the Mix of Private Profits and National Security."

FOREIGN STUDENT INTERVIEWS

Co T. Vu and Diep T. Vu, ISUE students from Saigon, Vietnam, are brother and sister. Co, a senior majoring in Management, transferred to ISUE last summer from Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, Illinois. Preferring a smaller school atmosphere, he likes ISUE and is especially pleased with Evansville, feeling it is a friendly town with less prejudice than he has encountered elsewhere. After graduation, Co plans to go on into graduate studies and then hopes to return to Vietnam. He has no definite plans for a career at this time, but intends to help his country in any way he can.

Co's sister, Diep, came to ISUE in January as a freshman. She, too, likes Evansville but being new to the United States, still has much trouble understanding many of us. We speak too fast. Diep hopes to obtain a bachelor's degree in Finance so she can return to Vietnam and help in their father's woolen clothing factory. Diep frankly admits to being a little homesick for the rest of their family. Although her boyfriend from home is also a student in the United States, Tennessee is several hours away.

When asked how he compares the American girls to the Vietnamese girls, Co smiled and said that the American girls seem to be much louder, more direct and open than the quiet and very reserved Vietnamese girls. However, he quickly went on to add that if he ever decided to marry an American girl, he would prefer her being open and direct because that's the way she is and was brought up. But-- if he marries a Vietnamese girl, then he would prefer her, because of her upbringing, to be the way she is. Co would make a very good diplomat!

FIVE-YEAR EMPLOYEES TO BE HONORED

Three of the very few present University employees who began ISUE employment in the original structure will be honored tonight for completing five years of service.

They are Mrs. Kathryn Beatty, Mrs. Brenda Mayes, and Miss Dorothy Robinson. They will be guests of honor at a 7:30 p.m. dinner at Bockelman's Restaurant where they'll receive traditional five-year awards -- framed certificates of appreciation and silver pins.

President David Rice will introduce the trio and the awards will be presented by the M.C., Kathy Will, Assistant to the President.

Only four other members of the present clerical/support staff also worked in the former Centennial School, first home of ISUE. They are Mrs. Emma Harris, Mrs. Leona Moore, Mrs. Wanda Kirchoff and Mrs. Mary Lue Russler.

Mrs. Beatty began her ISUE service on August 21, 1968. She started in the Bookstore, one small room in the basement of the old school building. Mrs. Beatty, who continues as a Bookstore staffer, was an Evansville-Vanderburgh Public Library switchboard operator previously.

Mrs. Mayes was 17, freshly graduated from Bosse High School when she joined the ISUE staff on July 1, 1968, for her first job as Dr. Donald Bennett's secretary. Mrs. Mayes now is secretary to the Purchasing Agent.

Miss Robinson, an Owensville High School graduate, became a teacher's aide and secretary there before accepting the secretarial post July 1, 1968, in the Business Division, headed then by Dr. Jack Engelke. Miss Robinson continues as secretary in that division.
