

ISUE UNIVERSITY NOTES

March 22, 1971

Notes for faculty and staff will be distributed on Monday of each week, if news items are available. Please give notices which should appear in a particular issue of UNIVERSITY NOTES to Mrs. Barton prior to 4:00 P. M. on Friday.

1. Policy on Sales and Solicitations by Students

Mr. Lawson reports that it has come to his attention that individual students have been attempting to sell newspapers on the Campus during the past few days without permission.

As a matter of information, the policy of ISUE is that sales and solicitations may be made only by an officially recognized Campus organization and only if they are for the general benefit of the University and/or the community. Permission must be granted by the Dean of Students.

2. Dr. Marting Honored

Dr. Barbara J. Marting was honored for her several publications in national business periodicals at an Authors' Luncheon in Indianapolis on April 17, during the annual meeting of the Indiana Business Education Association.

3. A.A.U.P. Dinner Program

The A.A.U.P. chapters of the University of Evansville and I.S.U.E. are planning to have a combined dinner program on March 26, at 7:00 p. m. at Mac's Barbecue, 1415 Maryland, Evansville.

This should be a wonderful occasion to meet new and old friends and to open new lines of communication and fellowship between our two faculties. The name of the speaker has to be announced yet, but we should go ahead and start making reservations. If you are planning to attend, please call Dick Mussard, ext. 244, or Eliseo DaRosa, ext 221, at your earliest convenience.

The whole cost of the dinner will be $3.25 for chicken, and $3.50 for ribs. This includes dessert, and coffee or tea.

4. Lincoln Day Dinner

Mr. Sidney Kramer, Vanderburgh County Republican Chairman, distributed 14 tickets to Dean Rice's desk to the Lincoln Day Dinner on Thursday, March 23, 1971. Congressman Jack F. Kemp of New York, an outstanding athlete, is to be speaker.

You are invited to purchase one of the guest tickets ($10) for your personal attendance and/or to sponsor a Young Republican student who would be unable to attend for financial reasons. The tickets are available from Kathy Will or Nira Pullin in the Dean's office.

5. Doctoral Robes for Sale

Sister Victoria Pohl, room 64, estension 292, has five (5) Doctoral Robes for sale. These academic robes are in the following lengths: one 49"; two 53"; and two 56". If interested or needing a robe for the graduation ceremonies please contact Sister Victoria Pohl.

6. Binoculars and Portable Tape Recorder Needed

Students in Psychology 468 are in need of binoculars and tape records to be used on their field trips to the zoo. Anyone having these to lend for the Spring and Summer Sessions please contact Dr. Donaldson, extension 217.

7. Campus Centers and Student Union Buildings Tour

Five ISUE students and Mr. Robert Lawson, Dean of Students, recently toured several campuses in the state. They took an in-depth look at Campus Centers and Student Union Buildings. The objective of the tour was to have students identify the good and bad features of present union facilities, and then to express their views and offer recommendations as ISUE engages in preliminary planning for a University Center.

8. ISUE Film Showing

The film to be shown Tuesday, March 23, in Room 126 at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 P. M. will be "King and Country." Joseph Losey movie with Dick Bogarde, Tom Courtenay, who plays a soldier on trial for deserting his post under fire.
