

USI SCHEDULE

ADDITIONS - WEEK OF FEBRUARY 3

Tuesday, February 5

ACS SPEAKER: Dr. Roger S. Porter of the University of Massachusetts will be the first speaker in a seminar series sponsored by the Indiana/Kentucky Border Section, American Chemical Society. The group will meet at 6:30 p.m. in UC350. Dr. Kevin W. McLaughlin, USI associate professor of chemistry and ACS chapter chair-elect who arranged the seminars, said the program is open to the public and is highly technical in nature. Dr. Porter's topic will be "Liquid Crystalline Polymers."

For information, contact Dr. Kevin W. McLaughlin, associate professor of chemistry, 812/464-1923 or 1701.)

Wednesday, February 6

Black History Month: Dr. Reginald Wilson, senior scholar at the American Council on Education in Washington, D. C., will be the luncheon speaker at 12 noon in UC350, in a program opening the Black History Month observance at USI. His topic will be "Attracting and Retaining Minority Students." He also will speak at 3 p.m. in OC2017 on the topic, "Access and Achievement in America." Dr. Wilson's visit is sponsored by the USI Mentoring Committee and the USI Foundation. Lunch will be $5, with reservations to be made with Annie Krug, Special Events coordinator, 812/465-1654.

(For information, contact Royce A. Sutton, observance coordinator, 812/465-1606, or Kandace Hinton, Gateway director, 424-2926.)

Thursday-Friday, February 7-8

Visiting Artist: The USI Art Department and New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art will sponsor a Visiting Artist program featuring Katharine Carter, a New York City painter. She will discuss "Highlights of the New York Art Season" at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at The Atheneum in New Harmony and give students and area artists professional tips for approaching New York galleries at 2 p.m. Friday in Forum II at USI.

(For information, contact Kathryn Waters, chair of the Art Department, 812/464-1933.)

USI HOMECOMING

USI's 1991 Homecoming will be Saturday, February 9, when the USI Eagles will play Ashland -- the women at 1 p.m., the men at 3:30 p.m. The USI Homecoming King and Queen will be crowned at halftime of the men's game.

The student Activities Programming Board special events for Mardi Gras Homecoming Week include the opening ceremony, 10 a.m. Monday, and the appearance of Brady Street, a comedy-improv team, at 12 noon Monday, February 4, in the Eagle's Nest; comedian Pauly Shore at 9 p.m. Tuesday, February 5, in the Physical Activities Center; and the Homecoming Dance at 10 p.m. Friday, February 8, in the UC Dining Room, featuring Exotic Birds, a Cleveland, Ohio-based three-piece band which has pushed techno-pop music to new directions since 1983.

The USI Alumni Association will sponsor a reception in PAC200 following the games, featuring music by Doc Stocker's Dixieland Muskrats.

(For information on student programs, contact Christine P. Lowery, coordinator of Student Development Programs, 812/464-1862; for alumni information, contact Nancy L. Johnson, 812/464-1924.)

(more)

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Organization
8600 University Boulevard · Evansville, Indiana 47712

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 10

Sunday, February 10

College Goal Sunday: A workshop will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. at Newsome Community Center and Ivy Tech-Southwest, sponsored by the State Student Assistance Commission of Indiana, Lilly Endowment, and the Indiana State Financial Aid Association. Trained counselors will help families complete financial aid forms needed for college assistance.

(For information, contact James A. Patton, USI Student Financial Assistance director and coordinator of USI participation, 812/464-1767.)

Tuesday, February 12

Spring Film Series: Citizen Kane (1941) Director: Orson Welles; cast: Orson Welles, Joseph Cotton, Everett Sloane, Agnes Moorehead. This cinematic masterpiece, considered by many to be the best American film of all time, is a modern moviemaking landmark because of technical virtuosity. The tragic story of Charles Foster Kane, giant in the publishing world, is told with dynamic editing, imaginative camera angles, and superb acting.

(The movies are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, assistant dean of the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1747 or 1735.)

Tuesday, February 12

Art Exhibit: The Black Student Union and the Activities Programming Board will sponsor an African-American Art Exhibit from 5 to 8 p.m. in UC350-351 as part of the Black History Month observance. It will feature local and national artists.

(For information, contact Royce A. Sutton, observance coordinator, 812/465-1606, or Kandace Hinton, Gateway director, 424-2926.)

Thursday, February 14

Roundtable Discussion: The second of four Roundtable Discussions during the USI Black History Month observance will be held at 12 noon in UC353. The topic will be "The State of Black Health Care." The discussion is open to anyone interested, either to join in or to observe.

(For information, contact Royce A. Sutton, observance coordinator, 812/465-1606, or Kandace Hinton, Gateway director, 424-2926.)

Thursday, February 14

R&B and Jazz: The USI student Activities Programming Board will sponsor a concert at 9 p.m. in Forum I, featuring the Chicago Blues, an R&B and gospel group, and the jazz duo, Katherine Davis and Sydney James Wingfield. The public is invited.

(For information, contact Christine Lowery, coordinator of Student Development Programs, 812/464-1862.)

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

USI SCHEDULE

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 17

Sunday, February 17

Financial Aid Workshop: The USI Financial Assistance Office will hold a workshop at 2 p.m. in Forum I to help Tri-State high school students and their parents complete financial aid forms needed for college assistance.

(For information, contact James A. Patton, USI Student Financial Assistance director, 812/464-1767.)

night, when Glory and Mo Better Blues will be shown. The movies begin at 7 p.m. in Forum 1.

(For Black History Month information, contact Royce A. Sutton, observance coordinator, 812/465-1606, or Kandace Hinton, Gateway director, 424-2926.)

Tuesday, February 19

Spring Film Series: No film.

Tuesday, February 19

Black History Month: Students from USI and the University of Evansville will meet in a "Black History Quiz Bowl" at 7:30 p.m. in Forum III as part of USI's Black History Month observance.

Saturday, February 23

Super Saturday for Kids: "Junior Sherlocks: The Mystery's Afoot" will be the theme of USI's spring Super Saturday for Kids program, starting at 9 a.m. in Forum III. Youngsters can become detectives for the day with activities that include using and breaking codes, fingerprinting, and a "consultation" with a real detective.

(For information, contact the Office of Continuing Education, 812/464-1863.)

Thursday, February 21

Black History Month: The third of four Roundtable Discussions during the USI Black History Month observance will be held at 12 noon in UC351. The topic will be "The Black Woman of the '90s." The discussion is open to anyone interested, either to join in or to observe.

Friday, February 22

Black History Month: The observance includes feature movie

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Organization

8600 University Boulevard • Evansville, Indiana 47712

USI SCHEDULE

ADD - WEEK OF FEBRUARY 17

Wednesday, February 20

Community Debate: Leadership Evansville is sponsoring the fourth annual Community Debate series, with the next two programs to be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, February 20 and 27, in the UC Dining Room. "Conquering Racism" will be the topic of the February 20 session. Marilyn S. Schmidt, director of USI Career Services and Placement, will be the moderator. Panelists will be Ira Neal of the Evansville-Vanderburgh School Corporation; Royce A. Sutton, USI University Division minority advisor; Delores Price, president of PRIDE and principal at Glenwood School; and the Rev. Joe Fraccaro of Bethel United Church of Christ. The programs will be taped by WEVV-Channel 44 for later use. The public is invited to attend and encouraged to participate in the debate.

(For information - including February 27 topic and participants - contact Leadership Evansville, 812/425-3828.)

Thursday-Friday, February 21-22

Child-Abuse Workshop: The Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, in conjunction with the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, will present the first of three spring workshops for police officers, prosecutors, and social workers who work with child-abuse cases in 22 southern Indiana counties. The workshop will be held at the Holiday Inn, Evansville, co-sponsored by USI and the Child Advocacy Center, Inc., and is funded in part by a grant obtained from the W. R. Kellogg Foundation by Melissa Vandever, USI assistant professor of nursing and director of the Kellogg Foundation Community Project Grant.

Robert H. Farley, deputy U.S. marshal assigned to the Federal Child Exploitation Strike Force, will conduct the workshop. It will address recognition of child neglect and physical abuse, providing participants with techniques to identify and investigate cases of soft tissue injury, including burns, welts, bruises, and lacerations, as well as fractures and visceral trauma. Farley has had more than 14 years of experience with the Cook County (Chicago) Sheriff's Department, investigating crimes against children.

(For information, contact Melissa Vandever, 812/428-7256.)

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 24

Tuesday, February 26

Spring Film Series: The Day the Earth Stood Still (1951) Director: Robert Wise; cast: Michael Rennie, Patricia Neal. One of the rare 1950s sci-fi films that has withstood the test of time, this film combines all the '50s fears to bring home a timely message to no less than Washington, D.C.

(The movies are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, assistant dean of the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1747 or 1735.)

Tuesday, February 26

USI Theatre: The USI Theatre production of Jean Anouilh's Antigone will be presented at 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, February 26-March 2, and 2 p.m. Sunday, March 3, at the USI Theatre, 3001 Igleheart Avenue. Steven Williford, director of theatre, is directing the production. David Angle and Darla Burlash, USI Theatre veterans, have the lead roles of Creon and Antigone in the all-student cast. Tickets are $5 for general admission, $3 for students, with special rates for groups of 12 or

(more)

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

more. Call 812/464-1734 for tickets.

(For information, contact Steven Williford, theatre director, 812/465-1609 or 464-1734.)

Thursday, February 28

Black History Month: The last of four Roundtable Discussions during the USI Black History Month observance will be held at 12 noon in UC351. The topic will be "Economic Empowerment in the Black Community." The discussion is open to anyone interested, either to join in or to observe.

Thursday, February 28

Black History Month: The final program in the University observance will be Gospel Music Night, to begin at 7 p.m. in Forum I.

(For Black History Month information, contact Royce A. Sutton, observance coordinator, 812/465-1606, or Kandace Hinton, Gateway director, 424-2926.)

FRIDAY, MARCH 1

USI Board of Trustees: The USI Board of Trustees will meet in the University Conference Center.

(For information, contact Sherrienne Standley, vice president for University Relations, 812/464-1755.)

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

USI SCHEDULE

ADD - WEEK OF FEBRUARY 24

Wednesday, February 27

Community Debate: Leadership Evansville is sponsoring the fourth annual Community Debate series, with the program at 7 p.m. Wednesday, February 27, in the UC Dining Room to cover the topic, "Environmental Regulations vs Small Business Development." Dr. Frank L. Stanonis, dean of the School of Science and Engineering Technology, will be the moderator. Panelists will be Frank Beach, environmental engineer with John Brown Engineering & Construction, Mt. Vernon and Newburgh; G. Michael Schopmeyer, Evansville environmental attorney; Dan Todd, air quality supervisor, Big Rivers Electric, Henderson; and Steve Worthington, vice president and senior loan officer, Citizens National Bank, Evansville. The program will be taped by WEVV-Channel 44 for later use. The public is invited to attend and encouraged to participate in the debate.

(For information, contact Leadership Evansville, 812/425-3828.)

Saturday-Sunday, March 2-3

Auditions for Season '91 productions at New Harmony Theatre and for the Young Abe Lincoln outdoor musical drama at Lincoln City will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. March 2 at USI Theatre, 3001 Igleheart Avenue. Young Abe auditions also are slated at 1 p.m. March 3 at the amphitheatre in Lincoln City. These are open auditions; individuals are asked to prepare a one-minute monologue; Young Abe applicants also may be asked to sing at least 16 bars of a prepared song.

(For information, contact Steven Williford, New Harmony Theatre, 812/465-1609, or W. L. "Rusty" Mundell, Young Abe, 465-1714, or 464-1734.)

WEEK OF MARCH 3

Monday-Friday, March 4-8

SGA Drug Awareness Week: The Student Government Association will sponsor a campus-wide Drug Awareness Week. Activities will include Centers Day on March 4, when information on drug awareness will be made available in the Eagle's Nest. March 5 will be Red Ribbon Day and a Drug Awareness Week dance will be held at 9 p.m. in the University Conference Center.

(For information, contact Student Life, 812/464-1862.)

Tuesday, March 5

Spring Film Series: Murder, My Sweet (1945) Director: Edward Dmytryk; cast: Dick Powell, Claire Trevor. Based on the novel, Farewell, My Lovely by Raymond Chandler, this film is a classic example of film noir, with double-crossers and double-crossing double-crossers, some of whom have settled on detective Philip Marlowe.

(The movies are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, assistant dean of the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1747 or 1735.)

Thursday, March 7

APB Soap Speaker: The student Activities Programming Board's Arts and Lectures Committee will sponsor the appearance of Linda Hirsch, a television soap opera expert. She will speak at 9 p.m. in the UC Dining Room.

(For information, contact Student Life, 812/464-1862.)