

USI FALL TRAVEL/STUDY TRIP
A RETURN TO CHICAGO
FOR GAUGUIN, TOMLIN

For Immediate Release
September 21, 1988

Two very different examples of artistic expression -- "The Art of Paul Gauguin" at the Art Institute and Lily Tomlin in her one-woman show "The Search for Intelligent Life in the Universe" -- are offered in a fall travel/study trip to Chicago, sponsored by the Continuing Education Department of the University of Southern Indiana.

The group will leave USI at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, October 21, and will see Ms. Tomlin Friday evening and the Gauguin exhibition Saturday morning. Transportation will be available for trips to various museums on Sunday, prior to the 2 p.m. return to Evansville. Dr. James R. Blevins, dean of the School of Liberal Arts, will accompany the group as expert commentator.

The $215 registration fee covers transportation, box lunch on Friday, two nights at the Chicago Hilton (double occupancy; add $78 for single occupancy), and theatre and exhibition tickets. Those who saw Ms. Tomlin on USI's August trip and want only to see the Gauguin exhibition can deduct $35 from the fee. Call (812) 464-1863 for information or to register.
