FLEET-FEET COMPETE IN NIGHT FLIGHT. The Marathon-ISUE Night Flight one-mile and four-mile runs were held on campus July 14 beginning at 8:15 p.m. Several faculty members and students competed in the race, in which there were over 200 participants. Cross country runner Tom Rehl was first in the men's open mile with a time of 4:17. Charles Price, associate professor of science education, placed seventh in the men's one-mile race. ISUE staff who ran in the four-mile race were David Kinsey, professor of mathematics, and Mary Lue Russler, administrative assistant in the Development Office. Robert Reid, vice president for academic affairs, ran in the one-mile race.

PARKING DECALS ON SALE. Parking decals may now be purchased at the Cashier's Window. The price this year for one or two decals is $10. Have your license number and make/model number when purchasing your decal(s).

SYMPATHY. The University community extends sympathy to Dr. Melvin Denner, chairman of the Division of Science and Math, whose father passed away Tuesday.
