ALUMNI TELEFUND STARTS FEBRUARY 12

USI Day for the Alumni Association's 17th annual Telefund will be Sunday, February 18! On that day, from 1 to 5 p.m., USI faculty and staff -- especially USI graduates who now are USI employees -- will be calling alumni to ask for their financial commitment in support of the USI Alumni Association.

If you can't volunteer on February 18, perhaps one of the other Telefund dates will fit your schedule: 5-9 p.m. on February 12, 13, 15, 19, 20, 21, 22, or from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday, February 17. Faculty and staff are asked to make a commitment to work one four-hour session.

This year's Telefund again will be held in the broadcast studios of WNIN-Channel 9 in the historic Carpenter House, 405 Carpenter Street, in downtown Evansville. "We love our volunteers, so we're planning some fun, food, and door prizes," said Mrs. Nancy L. Johnson, Alumni Affairs director. Call Mrs. Johnson or Ms. Tracy Slaton, senior secretary, to sign up -- extension 1924.

HONORS SYMPOSIUM. USI's sixth annual Honors Symposium will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, February 17, in the University Center. This year's faculty participants include Dr. Karin V. Chess, associate professor of mathematics; Dr. Munir Quddus, assistant professor of economics; Dr. Jane A. Davis-Brezette, chair of the Physical Education Department; Dr. Walter K. Everett, chair of the English Department; Dr. Penny K. Nuwer, assistant professor of psychology; and Dr. Susan Smith Wolfe, assistant professor of German. Dr. Joseph J. Palladino, chair of the Psychology Department, again will serve as master of ceremonies. The committee coordinating the program includes Dr. Charles T. Barber, chair of the Philosophy and Political Science Department; Dr. Sherry B. Darrell, associate professor of English; Dr. John H. Gottcent, coordinator of the General Education Program; Dr. Marie G. Hankins, chair of the Physical Sciences Department; Dr. Douglas K. Hubbell, assistant professor of communications; Dr. Palladino; Dr. Quddus; Ms. Kathryn M. Waters, chair of the Art Department; and Dr. Wolfe.

The committee appreciates the faculty's student nominations early this year. From the nominees, the following have accepted the invitation to attend the symposium: Mr. Derek Besing, Mr. Michael Betz, Ms. Jo Ellen Bush, Mr. Douglas Chapman, Ms. Julie Culiver, Mr. Steve Dalp, Ms. Margie Drennen, Ms. Marilyn Ellis, Ms. Thalita Floyd, Ms. Tina Grubb, Ms. Dina Happe, Ms. Irma Hopkins, Mr. Thad Immel, Ms. Becky Jenkins, Ms. Brenda Kramer, Mr. William Kunkler, Ms. Marcy R. OPEN HOUSE AT GATEWAY CENTER

They're new. They want to say "thanks" to the people who have been involved all along. They want people to see the facilities and meet the students and instructors. They are past some of the rough spots that come with being new and finally are ready to "show off."

That's why there will be an open house from 3 to 5 p.m. Wednesday, February 21, at Gateway Center, 625 Bellemeade Avenue (St. John Catholic School). Students, directors, and community supporters will be there to greet you. Help welcome them to the USI family.

community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success.

GOLDEN KEY RECEPTION. The fourth annual Reception of New Members of Golden Key National Honor Society will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, February 18, in the UC Dining Room. Ms. Carolyn Georgette, who has accepted an invitation to become an honorary member of Golden Key, will be the keynote speaker. Mrs. Georgette is manager of residence services in Evansville for Indiana Bell Telephone Company and was the recipient of an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at USI's 1989 Commencement. Golden Key was founded in 1977 to recognize and encourage scholastic achievement and excellence among upper-division students in all fields of study. Membership is by invitation and is offered to full- or part-time students who are ranked by grade point average in the upper 15 percent of the junior or senior class. Dr. Daniel C. Scavone, professor of history, is faculty advisor.

SUPPORT THE LIBERAL ARTS AWARD. Gifts or pledges of $5 or $10 are being solicited from the faculty and part-time faculty by the Development Office to restore the faculty's prestigious Liberal Arts Award to a $1,000 monetary award in time for the 1990 Honors Day program. Contributions, made payable to the USI Foundation, are tax-deductible and also qualify for the Indiana tax credit. Weekly lists of donors, compiled each Friday afternoon, will continue to be listed until the fund drive deadline on February 20.

Seven faculty members -- Dr. Larry W. Arp, director of Athletics; Dr. James H. Bandoli, assistant professor of biology; Dr. Melvin W. Denner, professor of biology; Dr. Howard E. Dunn, professor of chemistry; Mr. Larry D. Goss, professor of engineering technology; Dr. David W. Kinsey, associate professor of mathematics; and Mrs. Marjorie O. Labhart, instructor in mathematics -- had responded by Monday, February 5, to the appeal letter.

APPOINTMENTS. Dr. Glenn A. Pitman, dean of the School of Business, has announced that Dr. Daniel E. Wade, associate professor of business, has accepted the responsibility of chairing the Accounting and Business Law Department, and Dr. Kwangok Kim, associate professor of business, will serve as director of Resource Management. Both had been acting in these capacities for the past year.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. The New York Times Book Review section carried a review January 28 of The Voyage of Mael Duin's Curragh, written by Ms. Patti L. Aakhus, special part-time lecturer in communications. The reviewer, Ms. Katharine Weber, called it "a scholarly yet exciting and vivid rendition of the voyage of Mael Duin, one that has never before been accessible to those without fluent Old Irish. It rings true, and that's what becomes a legend most."

Mr. Matthew R. Graham, assistant professor of English/creative writing, has had his second book of poetry, 1946, accepted for publication by the Galileo Press of Baltimore, Maryland. Mr. Graham will give a reading of his new work on February 14 at the Nicholas Roerich Museum in New York City.

Dr. Norman R. King, visiting associate professor of geology and geography, spoke on "Earthquakes: Why, Where, and When?" at the January 31 meeting of Downtown Evansville Civitan Club.

Dr. Munir Quddus, and Dr. Timothy J. Schibik, assistant professors of economics, have been awarded a $9,500 grant from the University President David L. Rice will be the speaker at two February events -- the Harmoniefest pitch-in dinner at 6 p.m. Thursday, February 15, for members of the Historic New Harmony Society and Harmonie Associates, and at the Tri-State Council for Science and Engineering banquet at 6 p.m. Tuesday, February 20, in the Executive Inn. The banquet will be the local observance of National Engineering Week (February 18-24). Dr. Rice's topic will be "Educational Change." Tickets for the banquet are $17 per person and may be obtained by contacting Mr. Subhash P. Desai, assistant professor of electrical engineering technology, extension 1883.

Dr. Marwan A. Wafa, assistant professor of business, was co-author of a paper, "An Empirical Investigation of Generic Strategies in International Markets: Kuwait," which was published in December in the International Journal of Management (Vol. 6, No. 4). The other co-authors are Drs. Ronald Green and Mahmoud Yasin of Tennessee State University. Dr. Wafa also was speaker February 1 at the Downtown Evansville Kiwanis meeting, discussing the Palestinian/Israeli problem in the Middle East and the significant role the American government could play in the peace process.

Mrs. Gina R. Walker, Special Collections/University Archives Library assistant, has been awarded the designation of Certified Archivist from the Academy of Certified Archivists in affiliation with the Society of American Archivists.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. Daniel M. Hoehn, security officer, and Mrs. Cynthia Moore Hoehn, who is on maternity leave as a Physical Plant custodial worker, on the birth January 4 of a son, Samuel Joseph. He also is the grandson of Mrs. Ginny M. Hall, senior secretary in Graduate Studies.

THANK YOU from Mrs. Lee Rayburn, senior secretary in Medical Education who was honored with a retirement reception last Friday. "I want to thank everyone who came to my retirement reception and for all the good wishes, cards, and gifts," she said. "I appreciate your thoughtfulness very much."

NEWMAN LECTURE. The second annual John Henry Newman Lecture will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, February 22, in Forum I, featuring Dr. Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza, who taught for 15 years at Notre Dame University until joining the faculty of Harvard Divinity School in 1988 as Krister Stendahl professor of divinity. More details later.

ISLAM/CHRISTIAN DISCUSSION. The Evansville Islamic Mosque is sponsoring an Islam-Christian discussion at 6 p.m. Friday, February 9, in room 100 of the Health and Science Building at the University of Evansville. The Rev. Tony Kissel, USI director of Campus Ministry, and Dr. Jamal Badawi, a Canadian professor of economics and author of various books on comparative religion, will discuss their perspectives in "Concepts of God and Beliefs in Islam and Christianity." The public is invited.

USI/APPLE BULLETIN BOARD GOES ONLINE. A collaborative project of the Extended University Program, Apple Computer, Inc., and area educators now is under way. The USI/Apple Bulletin Board is a computer-based bulletin board which can be accessed via a personal computer and modem. Project director is Dr. Charles L. Price, associate professor of science education, with the assistance of students enrolled in EDUC 469/569 - Special Topics in Computer Education.

The board initially will be used by students and teachers in five middle schools to discuss novels. Future plans include the development of subject area sections in mathematics, science, and social science. In addition, an "Ask the Experts" section is planned in which students can submit questions for responses from USI faculty. University faculty are encouraged to use the board for electronic mail and to contribute to topics of interest. To learn about access to the board or to volunteer as an expert, contact Dr. Price at extension 1939.

ROTARY SCHOLARSHIP. March 3 is the deadline to submit applications for the 1991-92 Rotary Foundation Scholarships, designed to further international understanding and friendly relations among people of different countries. Five types of scholarships will be awarded: 1) graduate; 2) undergraduate; 3) vocational; 4) teacher of the handicapped; and 5) journalism. These will allow students to complete a year of study or training in another country, where Rotary International clubs are located. Recipients are expected to be ambassadors of good will during their stay and to share their experiences when they return home. Application must be made through the Evansville Rotary Club. USI applicants may contact Dr. Mehmet C. Kocakulah, associate professor of accounting, (extension 1730 or office at OC3018) for information or application forms.

LEADERSHIP EVANSVILLE. Faculty and staff who wish to apply for the 1990-91 class of Leadership Evansville should request applications from the University Relations Office. There is one scholarship available, and the recipient will be chosen by the Administrative Council from those submitting completed applications to the University Relations Office. Release time for participation must be approved by the appropriate vice president before consideration will be given for the scholarship.

RESEARCH PROPOSAL REMINDER. The USI Foundation is making $10,000 available for the 1989-90 academic year for Faculty Research and Creative Work Awards. Proposals to initiate new research or creative work, continue work in progress, or complete a project are eligible for funding. Guidelines on proposal outlines are available in the office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Proposals are due March 19, the Monday after Spring Break.

FULBRIGHT/ROMANIA PROGRAM. Recent events in Romania have created expanded opportunities for the 1990-91 Fulbright Scholar Program. The Council for International Exchange of Scholars is accepting applications in any field for research, with awards possible in fields other than the traditional lecturing in American Literature and Teaching English as a Foreign Language. Interested persons should apply as soon as possible to: Muriel Joffe, Council for International Exchange of Scholars, 3400 International Drive, N.W.,

Suite M-500, Washington, D. C. 20008-3097, telephone 202/686-6249. For information on 1991-92 Fulbright awards, call your USI contact, Dr. Peggy Harrel, coordinator of Grants and Sponsored Research, 428-7590.

COPY CENTER HOURS. New hours are being announced for the Copy Center, with the spring semester to be a trial period, according to Mrs. Stephanie Fuelling, director of Printing Services. The hours are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Friday. During lunch, there is access to the walk-up copier; frequently an operator also is available to assist with special copying problems.

BOOK SALE. Sigma Tau Delta English Honor Society is holding a book sale in the Administration Building corridor through today (Wednesday). Anyone wishing to donate books should contact the School of Liberal Arts office.

TELEPHONES STILL AVAILABLE. The Purchasing Department still has 40 standard desk telephone sets for sale at $10 each, plus one wall set at $10. Also available are two desk sets with no cords from the set to the wall jack, $5 each. This is the final notice; all sets unsold or not picked up from Purchasing by Friday, February 16, will be sent to the Auction Mart.

VALENTINE INVITATION. The Servicemaster Food Management staff is offering a Valentine's Day special to faculty, staff, and students. The Dining Room menu will feature a grilled sirloin steak, baked potato, broccoli Normandie, dinner roll, tossed salad, Valentine treat, and beverage for $4.95.

SPRING FILM SERIES: Unfaithfully Yours, 1948; director: Preston Sturges; cast: Rex Harrison. One of the last of the great witty comedies of the '40s by Sturges, this original tells the story of an orchestra leader who suspects his wife of infidelity and, during his concert, plans the appropriate revenge for each type of music. The film will be shown at 2 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, February 13, in Forum I; it is free and open to the public.

INTRAMURALS. Wednesday, February 28, is the entry deadline for Intramural and Recreational Sports men's and women's euchre. For information, contact Mrs. Ruth Waller, USI Intramural and Recreational Sports director, PAC303, extension 1942.

SPORTS THIS WEEK. Tickets for the Kentucky Wesleyan game at Owensboro now are available in the Athletics Office, PAC 300. They are $4 each and must be picked up by February 15. Contact Mrs. Rita J. Murphy, senior secretary, for details, extension 1836.
