

USI ANNOUNCES
STAFF APPOINTMENTS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
SEPTEMBER 6, 1990

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

Administrative appointments have been made at the University of Southern Indiana, including Dawn Connell, Admissions counselor; Elizabeth Wetzel Currier, coordinator for Corporate Giving in the Development Office; Julie Floyd, University Division advisor and English instructor; Christine Lowery, coordinator of Student Development Programs in Student Life; Nicholas No, programmer/analyst, Computer Center; and Corinne Vandever, Learning Center specialist.

Connell received a B.A. in history from Indiana University, where she was a peer advisor. She has held positions as managerial assistant with GTE and in customer relations with American General.

A graduate of Indiana University, Currier previously was public relations manager for WFYI-TV and FM90, public television and radio in Indianapolis.

Floyd received a B.S. from Indiana State University and M.A. from the University of Evansville. She has been an associate professor of English and chair of the Liberal Arts Department at Lockyear College, Evansville.

Lowery received a B.A. and M.S. from Western Illinois University, where she has been a graduate assistant in the University Advising Center.

No is a graduate of the University of Evansville and has been a programmer with Mayflower in Indianapolis.

Vandever has a B.S. degree from Kent State and a M.S. from the University of Evansville, and has been a part-time faculty member at USI and volunteer literacy tutor at the Literacy Center at Ivy Tech.

- 30 -