USI alumni chapter formed in Indianapolis area

For immediate release
February 15, 1995

Kevin Hammett, a 1990 graduate of the University of Southern Indiana and a senior accountant with Bank One Financial Services in Indianapolis, has been elected president of the new Greater Indianapolis USI Alumni Chapter. More than 350 USI graduates live in the Indianapolis area.

Serving with Hammett are Michelle Rooze-Campbell '90, vice president; Michelle Clark Hammett '90, secretary; and Steve Jamell '89, treasurer.

The group's next meeting will be a between-games chili supper on Saturday, March 4, when the USI Eagles play the University of Indianapolis Greyhounds in Nicoson Hall on the Indianapolis campus. The women's teams play at 5:30 p.m., the men's teams at 7:30.

The grads will gather from 6 to 7:30 p.m. in the nearby gymnastics area; tickets are $4 for the chili supper, $5 for the games. Reservations may be made with Todd and Sherri Flick, 881-5693, or the Hammetts, 546-7517.
