Knox County student gains post

Knox county native Denise Wilson, a junior elementary education major at the University of Southern Indiana, has been named vice president of the Indiana State Education Association. Wilson is a graduate of South Knox High School in Vincennes.

ISEA is an extension of the Indiana State Teachers Association (ISTA) with representatives from Indiana public and private colleges and universities. It promotes education issues while keeping Hoosier college students current on issues and trends in the teaching profession.

Wilson is the daughter of Ronald and Mary Wilson, R. 1 Box 42, Decker, Indiana.
