

USI Theatre Closes the Season with “The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee”

3/24/2016 | Angela Torres

University of Southern Indiana Theatre will close its 2015-2016 season with the musical The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee with music and lyrics by William Finn, book by Rachel Sheinkin and conception by Rebecca Feldman. The production runs April 14-17 in the USI Performance Center located in University Center East.

Directed by Eric Altheide, an eclectic group of six mid-pubescent vie for the spelling championship of a lifetime. While candidly disclosing hilarious and touching stories from their home life, the tweens spell their way through a series of (potentially made-up) words hoping to never hear the soul-crushing, pout-inducing, life un-affirming "ding" of the bell that signals a spelling mistake. Six spellers enter, one speller leaves!

Altheide will be joined by a design team including USI faculty member Paul Weimer as scenic designer; USI staff member Kevin Gray as sound designer; and USI students Rachel Thomas as lighting designer, AJ Jones as costume designer and Alex York as production stage manager. Spelling Bee's production also includes community members Patrick Ritsch as music director and Ashley Frary Lutz as choreographer.

The cast of Spelling Bee includes USI students Alec Willis, Emily March, Craig Belwood, Nick Smith, Briana Weaver, Maggie Browne, Ashleigh Dulik, Austin Tenbarge and Enjoli Drake.

Tickets are $10 for USI students, $12 for USI employees, $13 for non-USI students and seniors (60+), and $15 for adults. Shows start at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday and 2 p.m. for the Sunday matinee.
