Ribbon cutting and opening reception for ASIA IN US - 2 p.m. - 4 p.m., UC Carter Hall. ASIA IN US is an Indiana Humanities Council (IHC) statewide program, with support from Lilly Endowment, that highlights the ties between Indiana and Asia. This is a multifaceted program offering exhibitions, film series, readings, discussion groups, and entertainment integrated with public programs and projects. The centerpiece is an interactive traveling exhibit that explores cross-cultural transplants among Asia, Indiana, and the US. The exhibit includes three computers available to access a simulated website of IHC's home page. The goals of the program are to increase Hoosier awareness and understanding of our human ties to the rest of the world, specifically Asia; build local knowledge about and responsiveness to global perspectives in commerce, governance, culture, and education; and incorporate local community interests into the project as it travels throughout Indiana. The exhibit will be at USI, September 20 - October 19; at Eastland Mall, October 21 - November 13; The Pagoda, November 16 - December 14; and at Evansville Regional Airport, December 16 - January 10. For more information, call Mary Jane Schenk, program assistant coordinator, at 464-1756.
