FALL PRODUCTION

The Evansville Campus will present the play, "Lion In Winter" on November 4, 5, and 6 at the ISUE Playhouse, Iglehart and Barker Streets. The play is under the direction of Clayton Crenshaw. Students in the cast are Jerry Brown, King Henry; Emma Brown, Alais; Andy Lindauer, Richard; Bill Nation, Geoffrey; James Peterson, John; Paul Groeninger, Philip; and Pam Sandusky, Eleanor.

Rehearsal for the production began last week. Mr. Crenshaw is now seeking help with costumes. Anyone interested in helping with costumes should contact Mrs. Renz, Ext. 233, in the Computer Center.

GUEST SPEAKER

Sigma Epsilon Chi, the science club on campus, is presenting Dr. Paul Middaugh, Associate Professor of Chemistry at Kansas on October 8, 1971, at 2:00 p.m. in Rm. 254. Students, staff, and faculty are welcome.

TV PROGRAMS NEEDED

Local television time is available to ISUE faculty and students through the Communications Arts Club. The programs can concern any items of interest to the public. Programs will begin this month and continue throughout the year. Interested persons should contact Brad Awe, Ext. 303.

ISUE AT FALL FESTIVAL

The Evansville Campus is sponsoring a booth and float at the West Side Nut Club Fall Festival this week. If you are at the festival, stop by the ISUE booth, in front of the Moutoux Warehouse on Franklin Street. Also make plans to see the ISUE float, sponsored by the Communication Arts Club, which will be in the main parade on Saturday, October 9, beginning at 2:00 p.m. The Mid-America Singers are performing at the festival on Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. All the festivities take place on Franklin Street through October 9.

CIVILISATION RETURNS

Xerox is sponsoring the return of the 13-part series of Civilisation to television, the series that took 1,600 years to produce. Sir Kenneth Clark takes you on his personally guided tour of the ideas and events which have molded our Western Culture.

Civilisation, winner of the highly acclaimed Peabody and Saturday Review awards for television excellence, will return to television on Sunday, October 3, on the Public Broadcasting Service. Mr. Donovan, program director at WNIN in Evansville said the local channel would not be carrying the series. He suggested tuning to WKMA-Channel 35 in Madisonville, Kentucky.

The monthly television program Chart Room Briefings, with Professor Lawrence Kreider of the Indiana University Graduate School of Business, will be shown at ISUE on October 19, from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. and continue for ten weeks.

The show, which is starting its third year, but will be shown for the first time in Evansville, includes discussion of current economic trends with chartroom briefings and is shown throughout the state via the television hook-up, IHETS, at the state universities and their regional campuses. The Evansville Campus will provide talkback capabilities.

The men of Alpha Kappa Psi, the national business fraternity on campus, are sponsoring Professor Kreider on the Evansville Campus, and they are inviting local area businessmen to join them in an early coffee hour at ISUE and listen to Professor Kreider. Faculty and staff of ISUE are also invited.

The presentation will include eleven programs with the first scheduled on Tuesday, October 19 at 8:00 a.m. in Rm. 126. A complete schedule will be available in the next issue of University Notes.

POM-POM GIRL TRYOUTS (PLEASE ANNOUNCE TO YOUR CLASSES)

Tryouts for all girls interested in being ISUE Pom-Pom Girls and helping spark enthusiasm at ISUE home basketball games will be held at 3:00 p.m. on October 14 in Rm. 126.

A workshop for the girls will be held on October 13 at 1:00 and 3:00 p.m. in Rm. 126. All interested girls should come to the workshop.

Plans now are to increase the group to 12 dancers.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN PLAN OCTOBER MEETING ON CAMPUS

The October meeting of University Women will be held on October 13, 1971, at 7:30 p.m. in Rm. 28. Students in the Communication Arts Club will present a program which concentrates on various communication interest areas. Nira Pullin is Chairman of the October meeting.

COUNSELOR'S NIGHT HELD LAST NIGHT

Surrounding area high school counselors and principals visited the campus last night during Counselor's Night, sponsored by the Admissions Office. The counselors were given a tour of the library facilities. Academic programs and ISUE student activities were discussed, and the counselors were brought up-to-date on the ISUE progress story.
