Candidates for judge will answer questions at USI forum April 18

A public forum to introduce the Vanderburgh County Superior Court Juvenile and Probate Court judge candidates will be held at 7 p.m. in Carter Hall, on Tuesday, April 18, University Center at University of Southern Indiana.

The four candidates are Elaine Brown, Alan Hamilton, Jill Marcrum, and Brent Niemeier, all local attorneys. The public election will be held this fall.

Cole Banks, organizer of the event and lecturer in political science, said, "This is a good opportunity for young people to prepare questions for the candidates and participate in a public forum." USI students in Banks' "Courts, Law, and Justice" class will serve as moderators.

The candidates will be questioned by Paul McAuliff, editor of The Evansville Courier and Press; Roberta Heimann, reporter for The Evansville Courier and Press; Randy Wheeler, news director at WIKY-FM Radio, and the Reverend Adrian Brooks, pastor at Memorial Baptist Church.

Following questions by the panelists, the candidates will answer questions from the floor.
