April 15, 1992

Fresh from performing at the fifth annual Collegiate Showcase Invitational in Chicago, the University of Southern Indiana's Mid-America Singers and Band will present "Show '92" as their spring concert. The program will be at 7 p.m. Saturday, April 25, in Forum I.

The 19 singers -- with the ladies decked out in new red taffeta dresses -- will present a program of contemporary, country, patriotic, jazz, and Broadway music. They will be accompanied on piano, bass, drums, synthesizer, and guitar as the group showcases new sound and synthesizer equipment.

The Singers were one of eight choirs chosen to perform in the Chicago festival, which was sponsored by Keynote Arts Association. The group also performed recently in New Harmony for an awards meeting for Personal Finance employees in Indiana, Illinois, and Kentucky; did two shows for junior and senior high students at Forest Park High School in Ferdinand, Indiana; and will present a 12 noon concert on Friday, April 24, for Indiana and Kentucky high school students competing in the Foreign Language Academic Bowl at USI.

Tickets for "Show '92" are $4 and may be obtained by calling Daniel Craig, director, 812/464-1736, or at the door the night of the performance.
