ISUE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SELECTS OFFICERS. The executive council of ISUE's Alumni Association recently elected officers for the 1982-1983 year. The officers are Dave Bunner, president; Allen Mounts, vice president, Carol Rowden, secretary; and David Gray, treasurer.

Attorney David Bunner is a 1972 graduate who majored in political science and practices law with Bunner, John, Heathcotte, and Hamilton. David and his wife, Lana, also a 1972 ISUE graduate, reside in Evansville.

Allen Mounts has served on the executive council in years past. The 1974 business management graduate is the director of personnel at Keller-Crescent. He and his wife, Brenda, have two children.

A 1980 graduate, Carol Rowden, is currently employed by Ben Snyder's as an assistant manager. She majored in communications.

Treasurer David Gray practices law with Bowers, Harrison, Kent, and Miller. He graduated in 1974 and is living in Evansville with his wife, Kathy, and their two children.

ATTENTION ALL FACULTY AND STAFF: Parking decals for 1982-1983 are now on sale at the cashier's window for $5.00.

GRANT AWARDED TO NATIONAL HISTORIC COMMUNAL SOCIETIES ASSOCIATION. A $20,867 grant was recently awarded to the National Historic Communal Societies by the National Endowment for the Humanities. Dr. Don Pitzer, professor of history, is the executive director of the communal societies association. According to Dr. Pitzer, the grant

GRANT (continued). will be used to study music of 18th and 19th century American communal societies. The ninth annual meeting of the National Historic Communal Societies Association will be held in South Union, Kentucky.
