

BLITHE SPIRIT AT NEW HARMONY

The New Harmony Theatre's second Season '91 production, Mr. Noel Coward's Blithe Spirit, continues through July 27 at Murphy Auditorium. Curtain time is 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and 2 p.m. Sundays. Other summer productions will be Tennessee Williams' Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, August 2-24, and Eleemosynary by Lee Blessing, October 4-26. For tickets or information, call the box office, 812/682-3115.

YOUNG ABE LINCOLN

The outdoor musical drama Young Abe Lincoln is being presented at 8 p.m. daily, except Mondays, through August 25 in Lincoln State Park Amphitheatre. This summer's production celebrates the 175th anniversary of the Lincoln family's arrival in Indiana and the 75th anniversary of the Indiana State Parks System and the National Park Service. Call 812/464-0029 or 937-4493 for information or tickets.

MIDSUMMER STROLL

Historic New Harmony's fifth annual Midsummer Night's Stroll will take place Wednesday and Thursday, July 17-18. Three historic sites -- the Harmonist Lenz House, the Fauntleroy House, and the Poet's House -- will be visited. There will be entertainment and refreshments reflecting the history of each site. The strolls will begin at 7 p.m. each evening at The Athenaeum; the cost is $5 for adults, $4 for senior citizens (60-plus), and $3 for students (age 7-17). Reservations are limited; call 464-9595 or 682-4488 for reservations or information.

SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM RECEIVES ACCREDITATION

Mr. David C. Cousert, chair of the Social Work Departments, reports USI's social work program has received a four-year accreditation from the Council on Social Work Education.

The accreditation, approved at the council's early June meeting, was the culmination of several years' work at USI and three site visits by council representatives. It makes USI students eligible for licensing/certification in 49 states as professional social workers.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Emmett D. Edwards, associate dean of the School of Business and director of USI's Small Business Institute, was the subject of a recent editorial in Management Accounting. The editorial cited Dr. Edwards' research findings among Evansville small businesses as an authoritative linkage between high failure rates for businesses with fewer than 20 employees and accounting and finance functional skill weaknesses. National policy implications in Dr. Edwards' research findings were recognized earlier by the Small Business Administration with an Economic Research Fellowship in the Office of Advocacy, Washington, D.C.

Dr. Sandra M. Singer, professor of psychology and director of Graduate Studies, presented a session on "Abnormal Fingerprint Patterns Associated with Autism" at the Autism Society of America conference held July 10-13 in Indianapolis. Some 1,400 people from the U.S., Europe, and Australia attended the conference.

MR. MAGIC. Entertain your children with the magical comedy of Mr. Magic, also known as Mr. Tom Gaston, instructor in magic at Purdue University, who will perform at 11 a.m. Saturday, July 20, at the Workingmen's Institute Library in New Harmony. Admission is free.

YOUNG ABE LINCOLN READERS. Cast members from Young Abe Lincoln promote the production by presenting readings about the nation's 16th President. They will present "Young Abe Lincoln - the Greatest Reader of Them All" at 1:30 p.m. Friday, July 19, in Forum II. This will be part of the closing program for the week-long Fine Arts Camp, sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education and attended by more than 50 youngsters in kindergarten through eighth grades. The Young Abe Lincoln program also is open to the University community.

'HAM IT UP' OPENINGS. Openings still are available in a Super Summer for Children ham radio class being offered July 29-August 2 at USI for children entering fifth through eighth grades. The class will communicate with other stations in the U.S. and abroad. The children will build their own radio receivers and learn some basic electronics. Listening skills will be emphasized. Call the USI Office of Continuing Education for information or to register.

WSWI RADIO THEATRE. Dr. Gordon E. Kelley, associate dean of Health Professions, continues to host rebroadcasts of his collection of old radio programs at 10 a.m. Saturdays on WSWI. July 20 programs will include: Duffy's Tavern; Columbia Workshop, "A Letter From Home;" The Shadow, "Death Rides a Broomstick;" True Detective Mysteries, "Rattlesnakes and the Barefoot Bride." Dr. Kelley is available to talk with listeners or take requests; call 464-1836. Don't forget the rest of the Saturday line-up: Broadway Bandwagon at 9 a.m. and Big Band Review from 12 noon to 3 p.m.

TIPS from the Human Resources Department

MAKE EXTRA EFFORT TO BE ON TIME

Time is our most precious asset because there's absolutely no way we can replace it. If we lose our money, we can earn more. If the house burns down, it will be rebuilt. If the car is stolen or wrecked, it is replaced or repaired.

But each of us is allotted exactly 1,440 minutes to spend each day of our lives. Never one minute more nor one minute less. If we lose or waste a single minute, we can never get that minute back.

How we spend our own time is up to us. We have the right to squander it if that's what we want to do. But we have no right whatsoever to waste other people's precious time.

For instance, we may think it's not very important if we come to work 10 or 15 minutes late. But our tardiness probably also delays our fellow workers at their jobs. Maybe they need us to locate urgent papers in their files. Maybe a student or prospective student has driven a long way or called long distance for information but only you know where this file has been placed. Maybe a computer run must be held up until we arrive. Surely our lateness leaves a vital gap in production.

Minutes add up to hours and by delaying other people, our showing up 10 or 15 minutes late may actually waste several hours in the University's operation...hours that can never be recovered.

Who bears the cost of this wasted time? The University bears it directly but we must share the loss indirectly, because the increased cost of doing business makes all our jobs less secure and leaves less money for pay raises and promotions. If it is passed on to the students through increased tuition fees, it makes the University more vulnerable to competition.

The biggest losers are those of us who show up late. If we do so habitually, people may decide they simply cannot depend on us. That may keep us from higher pay or a better position.

So let's be fair to fellow workers, the University, and -- most important of all -- ourselves. Let's never waste our own time or anyone else's by coming to work late.
