nights and weekends.

Appreciation is extended for the full cooperation of faculty, staff and students during this recent crisis, which enabled the campus to continue to operate with a minimum of interruption.

REDUCED RATES ON NONCREDIT CLASSES. The following courses in the Spring noncredit series are open to ISUE faculty, staff and students for one-half the regular registration fee. The courses are: Beginning and Continuing Yoga, Home Landscaping, Understanding the Metric System, Don't Count Me Out English, Beginning Drawing, Personal Law, and Gymnastics for Women. Those wishing to register may register anytime during the week preceding the start of the course.

For additional information, contact the Office of Continuing Education, extension 1863.

APPOINTMENT. ANN PADBERG, a native of St. Louis, Missouri, has been appointed Director of Development at ISUE. Her appointment was approved by the ISU Board of Trustees at an April 7 meeting in Terre Haute.

Miss Padberg comes to ISUE from the Villa Duchesne/Oak Hill School in St. Louis. At Villa/Oak Hill, an independent secondary school, Miss Padberg was Director of Development and Public Relations. In this capacity, she worked closely with the members of the Development Committee of the Board of Trustees and was responsible for the school's annual fund drive. She also handled public information for the school and was editor of the school's alumni publication.

Previously Miss Padberg worked in the publishing field where she gained experience in writing, design and production. She was with Allyn and Bacon, Inc. of Boston, Massachusetts and with Boston Research Company. In both posts, she was an editor and engaged in research. She also was an editor and production specialist with Cemrel, Inc., a national educational laboratory in St. Louis. Miss Padberg has teaching experience at both the secondary and elementary levels from schools in Ft. Madison, Iowa and St. Louis, Missouri.

Miss Padberg holds the B.A. degree from Notre Dame College in St. Louis and has taken additional study at St. Louis University and the University of Missouri at St. Louis.

SIGECO LIFTS ENERGY RESTRICTIONS. Southern Indiana Gas and Electric Company has announced the lifting of restrictions in the use of electric power. ISUE will continue to use prudent judgement to conserve energy and dollars; however, certain restrictions are being eliminated and/or eased. These include increasing parking and walkway lighting, resumption of intramurals and recreation activities, resuming the normal food service operation, reopening the Library on Saturdays, and reopening the Recreation Room on 1978 ALL SPORTS BANQUET. The All-Sports Banquet will be held April 26 at 6:30 p.m. in the UC Dining Room to honor the 1977-78 men's and women's athletic teams.

Tickets for the dinner are $5.00 per person. Reservations may be made by calling RITA BETZ, extension 1846. The public is invited to attend.

CREDIT UNION HIGHLIGHTS. A statement of the financial growth of the ISU Federal Credit Union was reported at the 18th annual meeting held January 25, 1978. Assets were reported to be $5,438,816.51, a growth of $1,140,877.57 in one year. Membership now totals 3,124. Dividends paid during 1977 at 6.25 APR compounded quarterly amounted to $277,957.33.

The present annual dividend rate of 6.50% compounded quarterly is effective on dividends paid on March 31, 1978. This is an increase of .25%. The Credit Union also offers:

- free life insurance matching your share dollars up to $2,000 per account
- dividends are paid on deposits made by the 10th of the month
- all accounts are federally guaranteed up to $40,000

If you have questions about participation in the Credit Union, call extension 1770 or come to the Personnel Office on Tuesdays or Thursdays.

"INTERPERSONAL COMMUNICATION: THE SEARCH FOR REALISTIC INTIMACY". ISUE will have a one-night workshop "Interpersonal Communication: The Search for Realistic Intimacy" Tuesday, April 18 at 6:30 p.m. in L105.

The session will explore the concepts and techniques that facilitate positive male-female communication. Participants will examine an overview of communications, the levels of communications, and the conditions and needs that contribute to effective interpersonal relationships.

Workshop leaders will be DR. HELEN SANDS, Associate Professor of Communications, who will discuss "Levels of Communications" and the conditions for trust and respect; BRAD AWE, Instructor in Communications, who will present an "Overview of Communications and Communication Skills" and REVEREND BERNARD LUTZ, Director of Campus Ministry, who will discuss "The Ethical Dimensions of Regular Communication Skills." SISTER SHELIA GRIFFIN, Campus Ministry Counselor, will introduce the speakers and moderate the discussion. Following the hour input by the speakers, exercise models will be used to allow participants to react to the sessions.

Co-sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education and Campus Ministry, reservations can be made by calling extension 1863. The registration fee is $3.00 per person. The public is invited to attend.

ATTENTION ALL EMPLOYEES: If after figuring your 1977 taxes you find you need to make an adjustment on your Federal or State income tax withholding allowances, forms are available in the Personnel Office, Room 101A in the Administration Building. For the changes to be reflected on the May 1 check, employees on the monthly payroll must complete these forms no later than April 15.

EXTENDED HOURS FOR THE LEARNING RESOURCES CENTER. Starting Saturday, April 15, the LRC will be open from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. Saturdays and from 1:00-5:00 p.m. Sundays.

AUDITIONS FOR MID-AMERICA SINGERS. The Mid-America Singers, one of the most popular entertainment groups in the tri-state area, is conducting auditions for 1978-79 Wednesday, May 10. Auditions for singers and instrumentalists will be held from 7:00-10:00 p.m. in the Administration Building, Room 28.

Directed by DR. JON CARLSON, Director of Music, the group is currently touring in Florida and will be featured in performances at Disney World and Sea World. The Mid-America Singers have also performed in New Harmony, Huntingburg, and Vevay, Indiana. An additional honor was awarded the singing group when their portrayal of an Elizabethan Christmas Dinner was televised on the national Public Broadcasting System this past December.

Scholarships ranging from $300 to $500 a year are available to students participating in Mid-America Singers. Auditionees should prepare one musical number reflecting musicianship and showmanship. Auditionees should bring their own accompanist or request an accompanist through the Division of Humanities.

Appointments for auditions can be made by calling the Division of Humanities, extension 1735.

STUDENT ART EXHIBITION. The 1978 Student Art Exhibition will be open to the public weekdays April 17-26 from 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. and on Sundays from 11:00 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. An opening reception will be held Sunday, April 16 from 1:00-4:00 p.m. with awards and a reception held at 2:00 p.m. in the UC Bridge.

For further information, contact the Division of Humanities, extension 1734.

ADDITIONAL CONFERENCE ROOM. Library Services Conference Room L-209 is now available for scheduling by small groups. It may be reserved for seminar classes and other University needs on either a term or individual session basis. In addition to a conference table with seating for eight, there are six side chairs in the room. A portable floor-model lectern is available for use. Call extension 1824 to make reservations.

HUMAN RELATIONS INSTITUTE. The Human Relations Institute of ISUE sponsored the first Gary symposium on "Community Involvement" Saturday, April 1, 1978. Co-sponsored by the Indiana Department of Public Instruction and Equal Educational Opportunity Offices, the symposium was attended by 250 civic leaders from the Gary area.

SECRETARIES OF ISUE. "The Art of Flower Arranging" will be the topic for the Secretaries of ISUE meeting Thursday, April 20. A representative from Droste's Daffodil House will be the guest speaker for the luncheon held in the University Center Bridge from 11:45 a.m.-1:15 p.m. All clerical and clerical/support staff are welcome to attend.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROBLEMS AND SOLUTIONS CLASS. Robert Parsons from Alcoa Corporation and Jay Picking from Arkla Corporation will be guest speakers at the Environmental Problems and Solutions class Thursday, April 20. Parsons will discuss "Industrial Participation in Environmental Solutions" and Picking will present "The Potential of Solar Energy." The session begins at 7:00 p.m. in A34, and the public is welcome to attend.

HUMANITIES FORUM. DR. JAMES BLEVINS, Division of Humanities, will speak on "Film and the Traditional Arts," at the Humanities Forum Wednesday, April 19. The forum will be held at 11:00 a.m. in the University Center Bridge. The public is invited to attend.

MANAGEMENT CLUB AUCTION. The Management Club will hold an auction of professors' treasured items from 12:00 noon-2:00 p.m. April 26 on the north side lawn of the University Center. A partial listing of items to be auctioned are:
