PUMPKIN CARVE-IN PARING SUCCESS. Last Saturday, a balmy autumn day, was the date of the first Great Pumpkin Carve-In, sponsored by the ISUE Art Club. Two tons of pumpkins were in temporary residence at the corners of 4th and Main Streets and were carved by local officials and personalities. Notables who had knife in hand and pumpkin to the elbow included: Minas Christian, Wynnle Sleziak, Harry Thompson, Vince Saele, Nona Miller, Vance Thomas, John Ziccardi, Glenn Ives, Peggy Jack, Bish Thompson, Wayne Boultinghouse, and Peggy Mitchell.

Police Chief David Jackson delivered his carved pumpkin at high noon in an E.P.D. squad car with the siren blaring. His pumpkin joined those of Mayor Lloyd, Marcia Yockey, Phil Hayes, Roger Zion, David Rice, and Ralph Turpin. Raffle tickets were easily sold on the array of distinctive creative pumpkins carved by the dignitaries. Art students and faculty members, Jack Cascione and Ramona Hinton, sold many personally carved pumpkins, generating several hundred dollars for the art scholarships and equipment fund.
