University Notes is a weekly publication distributed every Friday. Copy is needed by noon on Friday to run in the next week's Notes. Send copy by e-mail, campus mail, or telephone to Jane Below at 464-1999.

Campaign USI a success

Campaign USI celebrated the achievements of its volunteers on Saturday, May 30, announcing that to date, more than $13.5 million has been raised, surpassing the initial goal of $10.5 million. Although USI staff will continue to call on donors, volunteer solicitations for the campaign are complete. Gifts will be accepted through December 1998.

USI President H. Ray Hoops congratulated the 300 volunteers who assisted with solicitations in the Friends Division and the Alumni Division. He commented that, to date, nearly 1,500 donors made gifts to the campaign.

Mr. Jim Giancola, chair of Campaign USI, reporting on the success of the campaign said, "Campaign USI has been about elevating this University to a new level of service. The gifts which have come in will have a dramatic impact on the University, its students, and its faculty. He outlined some of the developments to expect as a result of the campaign:

Ten new Presidential Scholarships have been endowed, bringing the USI Foundation to a point where half of its Presidential Scholarships are endowed.

Faculty in every academic school will have funding available to keep their knowledge current, meaning that USI students have the best instruction possible from a faculty dedicated to superior teaching and learning.

The University's first endowed chair will make it possible to begin researching and teaching at a level not possible before, attracting to USI one of the country's best scholars in the emerging field of marketing sciences.

Jim Giancola

The new Liberal Arts Center will have state-of-the-art instructional technology, opening exciting ways for students to learn and professors to teach.

Outmoded chemistry labs will be replaced with new facilities and equipment, enabling USI students to learn research concepts which will allow them to compete with graduates of the nation's finest universities.

The intercollegiate athletic program will grow and expand as new opportunities are afforded by the renovation of the Physical Activities Center, including the new Varsity Club Room.

Giancola announced that $13,375,011 had been raised in Campaign USI with an additional $6,083,225 in future endowments.

The New Harmony Theatre

The New Harmony Theatre joins with the USI Art Department and the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art to begin a new tradition at Murphy Auditorium during The New Harmony Theatre summer season. Murphy Auditorium will serve as an art gallery for USI art students whose work was selected from the art on display during the USI Student Art Show held in the spring.

Four artists presented their portfolios to Mr. Scott LaFeber, artistic director of The New Harmony Theatre. Pieces were chosen based upon their artistic value and theatrical merit. The pieces will be hung in Murphy Auditorium by employees of New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art.

Ms. Jennifer Stuart, coordinator of public relations/marketing, theatre management, said, "this will provide USI art students an opportunity to display their best work in a public place while adding interest to Murphy Auditorium lobby."

Artists whose work will be displayed are Ms. Erin Evans, Mr. Chris Herndon, Ms. Joy Kizlin, and Ms. Tonya Royster (her "Dance Studio" painting also appears on the cover of The New Harmony Theatre playbill). The selected art work will be recognized opening night of New Harmony Theatre's first play of the season, Dames at Sea, 8 p.m. Friday, June 12.

Dames at Sea, a spoof of 1930s musicals, continues through June 28.

Names in the news

Moving:

The News and Information Services staff and the Printing Services staff will soon share a facility, the Publishing Services Center, in newly renovated space which formerly housed the IU School of Medicine. It is located west of the Physical Plant on Clarke Lane. Telephone numbers and e-mail addresses will remain the same. Printing Services already has moved to the new location; News and Information Services is scheduled to move on or around June 15.

The Printing Services staff who have moved are Ms. Kristi Kempf, director of Printing Services; Ms. Judy Fleck, production coordinator; Mr. William Forston, press operator; Ms. Mabel Hawkins, copy center operator; and Mr. George Masterson, lead offset press operator.

The News and Information Services staff who will soon be moving are Ms. Kathy Funke, director of News and Information Services; Ms. Karen Altstadt, administrative secretary; Ms. Jane Morrow Below, writer; Mr. Christopher Norrick, graphic artist; Ms. Elizabeth Courtney Randolph, photojournalist, and Ms. Jennifer Schmitz, art director.

Christopher Norrick

Welcome:

Mr. Christopher Norrick recently joined the News and Information Services staff as a graphic designer. Norrick graduated from USI with a B.S. in biology. He resides in Oakland City.

Volunteer service hours due:

Reporting monthly volunteer hours is very important in recognizing the service of USI volunteers. A volunteer is anyone who provides a service to USI without financial reimbursement. This includes board and committee members, speakers, tutors, office assistants, and special event and program assistants.

So that each volunteer can be recognized at the annual volunteer dinner on July 23, please obtain a time sheet from Ms. Trisha Kennedy, coordinator of volunteer services, Wright Administration Building, Rm. 104, or call 464-1215. Complete and return time sheets to the Office of Alumni and Volunteer Services by June 10. Applicable volunteer hours for this year: July 1, 1997 - June 30, 1998.

Volunteer of the Year nominations:

The Volunteer USI Advisory Board seeks recommendations of volunteers to be considered for the USI Volunteer of the Year award. Faculty, staff, and volunteers may submit nominations until June 25.

The Volunteer Recognition Committee will select the award recipient from the following criteria: amount of volunteer service hours from July 1, 1997 through June 30, 1998; and exceptional dedication, leadership, or performance of an extraordinary service. The recipient of the award will be announced during the Volunteer USI Recognition Dinner on July 23. Nomination forms are available in the Office of Alumni and Volunteer Services, Wright Administration Building, Rm. 104 or call 812/465-1215.

Report gifts-in-kind:

Gifts-in-kind (gifts other than cash) to the University are important and should be recorded with the USI Foundation for tax purposes and for future recognition of these generous donors in the Honor Roll of Donors.

June 30 is the end of fiscal year 1998. If your school/department has received any gifts-in-kind during fiscal year 1998, please notify the USI Foundation office. Call Ms. Ginny Bryant, administrative assistant, Development, at 465-1658 to obtain revised forms and instructions for reporting these gifts.

Accounts payable deadline:

Accounts Payable reminds everyone to send receiving reports and blue purchase-order releases for the 1997-98 fiscal year to its office in OC 27 no later than 4:30 p.m. Friday, June 19. Check vouchers for current-year purchases should be submitted at the same time. Departments may submit documents earlier, but little time exists for exceptions after that date. Anyone with special circumstances should call Ms. Melody Headley, accounts clerk, at extension 1885 immediately to discuss alternate arrangements.

Car wash:

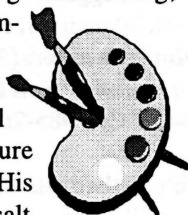

The USI cheer team will sponsor a car wash at two locations on Saturday, June 13: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. at Schnucks West, 400 W. Lloyd Expressway; and noon - 5 p.m. Saturday, June 13 at National City Bank, Eastland, 500 N. Green River Road. Donations will be accepted. Proceeds will offset the cost of a Universal Cheerleading Association camp at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville in early August.

PAC hours:

Physical Activity Center hours are Monday - Friday, 7 a.m. - 9 p.m. Closed Saturday and Sunday.

Art exhibition:

The New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art, 506 Main St., New Harmony, will present an exhibition by Mr. Brad Schwieger from June 14 through July 22. Schwieger extends the art of traditional pottery by altering wheel-thrown clay vessels. Through a process including stretching, cutting, and reassembling, he creates ceramic objects that work as functional containers and pure sculptural forms. His works are either salt, soda, or wood fired.

Schwieger, associate professor of art at Ohio University, received a Master of Fine Arts degree from Utah State University. He is the recipient of a 1996 Ohio Arts Council Individual Artists Fellowship.

USI Alumni Association picnic:

USI Alumni Association will hold the annual alumni picnic 5:30 -7:30 Friday, June 19, at the University Center Mall. Admission is $4 per person, children under age 12 are free. If you are an alumnus and did not receive an invitation, call Melissa Burch, administrative secretary, USI Alumni and Volunteer Services, at 464-1924. Reservations deadline is June 15.

Donation needed:

Small window air-conditioner to cool press box. Call Mr. Michael Goedde, varsity baseball coach, at 464-1943.

Library Archives receives grant:

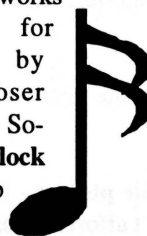

The David L. Rice Library Archives received a second $2,500 grant from the Indiana Humanities Council's Indiana Heritage Research Grant project. This grant will be used as the first one was, to make more accessible a photography collection donated by Mr. Thomas O. Mueller, former photographer for The Evansville Courier. The collection consists of 3,196 photographic negatives taken in the tri-state from 1920-60. The library is having 10 of these photographs (11" x 14") framed for a traveling exhibit. For more information about the collection, see the library's webpage at www.usi.edu/lib/lib.htm.

USI Employee Picnic:

Volunteers are still needed for various tasks. Call Ms. Carey Franks, administrative secretary, Business Affairs, at 464-1774 for volunteer details.

"Beyond the Sphere":

"An Evening of Music with Gertrude Rapp" is the third program in the Historic New Harmony series "Beyond the Sphere", a recognition and celebration of New Harmony's early female leaders. Music archivist from Old Economy Village Ms. Ruth Hahn will play piano works written especially for Gertrude Rapp by Harmonist composer Christoph Mueller. Soprano Ms. Laura Blaylock will portray Ms. Rapp and perform the original works. Ms. Blaylock performs with the Evansville Philharmonic Chorus and the Evansville First Presbyterian Choir. The program begins at 7 p.m. Friday, June 5 in Thrall's Opera House and costs $3 per person; free to members of Historic New Harmony.

ALOHA!

USI Employee Picnic

The USI Employee picnic will be held 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesday, June 10, on the UC mall. Dress in Hawaiian clothing and bring your tickets to enjoy lunch with campus faculty and staff.

Lincoln Amphitheatre gets update
"America's most beautiful outdoor stage" just got better. New computerized lighting and sound systems have been installed in this state-of-the-art facility.

Lincoln Amphitheatre, the only completely covered amphitheatre this side of the Mississippi, is nestled in beautiful Lincoln State Park.

Tickets are now on sale for Lincoln Amphitheatre's two summer performances:

Oklahoma!
and
Young Abe Lincoln

Adult tickets are $12, ages 60 and over are $10, and children under age 13 are $7. Sunday is family night and everyone's ticket is $7.

Call 800/264-4223 for a schedule and reservations.

The New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art invites you to take advantage of your University family discount.

As faculty or staff of USI, you receive a 10% discount on all purchases from the gallery including jewelry, pottery, framing, and all other artwork.

A great source for unique gifts.
