USI schedule

January 1995

Sunday-Monday, January 1-2 -New Year's holiday/winter recess continues - University closed

Spring semester —
Registration activity begins January 3

The Spring Faculty/Administration Meeting will be held at 9 a.m. Tuesday, January 3, in Mitchell Auditorium in the new Health Professions Center (coffee at 8:30). Dr. Willem J.A. Pet, senior research associate with the Institute for Academic Technology, University of North Carolina, will speak on "The use of interactive media in higher education: Is it worth the bother?"

The dates for pre-registered students to change spring class schedules were altered by a decision to keep the University closed January 2 as the New Year's holiday observance -- pre-registered students now may change class schedules between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, January 3-4, in the Registrar's Office.

Student registration activity for the spring semester begins with two orientation sessions for nontraditional (adult) students, 1 to 3 p.m. or 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday in the University Conference Center.

On Wednesday, January 4, placement testing begins at 8 a.m. in Forum I. New-student orientation will be at 1 p.m. in Forum I. New student registration will be available from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and from 2:30 to 6 p.m. on Thursday, January 5; students are to gather in the Orr Center lobby. Other activities Thursday include placement testing at 8 a.m. in Forum II and an adult-student crash study skills course at 6 p.m. in Forum II.

Open registration will be from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 2:30 to 6 p.m. Friday, January 6; current students should report to the school of their major; new students will go to the Admissions Office.

Spring classes will begin on Monday, January 9.
