Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002, after seven years as the assistant director.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and host of the 2004 and 2009 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, no one did it better in the GLVC than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his appointment at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotional activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife, Patti, reside in Evansville and have four sons, Nathan, Garland, Ty, and Owen, and daughter, Mary Claire.

...a modern, technology-enhanced environment

USI is a vibrant campus with modern facilities and an exciting pace of growth. The face of the campus has continued to change with an entrance roundabout, an addition to the Recreation, Fitness, and Wellness Center opening this year, and a Business and Engineering Center to open next fall. The University Center renovation will open in the spring of 2011. USI provides the most up-to-date facilities for academics, housing, and student life.

Computer Services

Computer labs are located throughout campus and in the housing areas. Wireless service is available in all main buildings and the surrounding courtyards.

All residence life areas are equipped with network jacks for Internet access. Wireless network also is available throughout the housing areas.

Eagle Access Card

Students use the Eagle Access Card as an identification card and as an all-in-one card for student services such as library privileges, meal plans, vending and copy machines, and access to the Recreation, Fitness, and Wellness Center.

MyUSI

MyUSI is a portal to web services. Students check email, register online, view their grades, and access other services through this secure web site.

USI at a GLANCE

- A comprehensive, four-year public university in Evansville, Indiana, founded in 1965 and established as a separate university in 1985
- 10,516 students from 91 Indiana counties, 41 states, and 63 nations (2009-10)
- Student/faculty ratio of 18:1
- 1,400-acre suburban campus with 12 modern academic buildings
- Apartments and suite-style residence halls for approximately 2,800 students
- Six academic units: Business, Education and Human Services, Liberal Arts, Nursing and Health Professions, Science and Engineering, and University Division

Location

The University of Southern Indiana was founded in Evansville in 1965. USI is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan centers of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

The Campus

Academic Life

The University enrolls 10,516 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. An ever-increasing number of post-graduate programs also are available to students who wish to continue their education, including a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree. Opportunities are available for service learning, study abroad, and internships.

Campus Life

Outside the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Residence Life

Students living on campus have their choice of two types of housing. Students can live in standard apartments or in suite-style housing in residence halls which have amenities such as Internet connections, wireless Internet, and cable television. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor and indoor recreation areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven to be overwhelmingly popular to students. Meal plans also are available at the University Center, which is located in the center of campus.

Financial Assistance

USI provides families with an affordable way to higher education. While some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial assistance, others qualify for need-based financial packages, including grants, loans, and on-campus jobs.

• ABOUT the PAC •

Physical Activities Center

The Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 29 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the setting for many games of regional and national interest during the past 17 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 2009 men's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI women's basketball team has a 184-65 home record since 1993-94, a .739 winning percentage.

In 2006-07, the PAC underwent renovations that included three new wood courts and a new center-court design that incorporated USI's athletic logo. The renovation also featured a new scoreboard and video board, new portable goals, and new seating. Among the changes to the seating were padded chairback seats and back-supported bleacher seats.

EVANSVILLE, Indiana

...A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. Roberts Stadium and the Victory Theatre attract students to concerts by entertainers like Nelly, Aerosmith, Kenny Chesney, Kid Rock, and Josh Groban. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a wonderful view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville's coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and restaurants are plentiful. Eastland Mall on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI's suburban location in the rolling hills of western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.

Eagles ready to contend for GLVC title

The University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team is ready to contend for a GLVC title and a NCAA II Tournament berth in 2009-10, and there is plenty of reason to believe the Screaming Eagles can do both as they return eight players including four starters off a squad that was 14-13 in 2008-09.

Under the direction of 11th-year Head Coach Rick Stein, the program's all-time winningest coach, the Eagles have been one of the most competitive squads in the GLVC and the Midwest Region the last 10 seasons.

This season, Stein has a much more experienced group as his squad features a pair of seniors, six juniors, four sophomores, and three freshmen. He also has the good fortune of returning 73.8 percent of the squad's scoring from last season, the most by a Stein-led team in the previous 10 seasons.

Only three times during that span has Stein returned more than 50 percent of the previous year's scoring, and two of those times the Eagles claimed GLVC Tournament championships.

Arguably the biggest strength for the Eagles this season is at the guard position. Juniors Ellen Young, Amie Newhart, Lauren Meneghetti, and sophomore Rinesha Soaper give the Eagles one of the most formidable backcourts in the region.

Young was an All-GLVC performer a year ago after finishing 12th in the GLVC with a team-best 13.1 points per contest. Young reached double digits in the scoring column 18 times last season, including a season-best 22 points in USI's double-overtime victory over Drury University, a contest that was recognized by the women's Division II Bulletin as the Game of the Month in February.

Newhart continued her strong play at the point guard position in her sophomore campaign. She was 17th in the GLVC and second on the team with 11.8 points per contests. She was ranked in four GLVC statistical categories, including three-point field-goal percentage (.414/9th), free-throw percentage (.789/12th), and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.08/15th).

Meneghetti had somewhat of a breakout year as she averaged 9.1 points, 3.3 rebounds, and 2.6 assists per appearance last season. She began the season with a career-high 26 points against Southeastern Oklahoma State University at the St. Edwards Shootout.

Soaper was one of the top freshmen in the GLVC a year ago as she averaged 9.1 points per game during her first season at USI. Soaper ranked eighth in the GLVC with 1.88 steals per outing and had a season-high 26 points in the Eagles' win over Wayne State University.

Another freshman that made a big impact in the backcourt a year ago was sophomore guard Cootie Leeberg, who gave the team a strong defensive presence with her hustle and intensity.

The addition of 5-10 junior guard Stephanie Gehlhausen, 5-11 freshman guard/forward Chantiera Johnson, and 5-11 freshman guard Ladi Stallard gives the Eagles more size in the backcourt. Gehlhausen transferred to USI after spending three years at the University of Alabama-Huntsville, where she averaged 5.0 points and 4.7 rebounds per game.

Johnson earned All-State honors as a senior after leading Hazelwood High School to a third-place finish in the 2009 MHSAA Class 5 State Tournament, while Stallard averaged 9.0 points and 4.9 rebounds per contest as a senior at Olney East Richland High School (Olney, Illinois).

Stein is counting on his senior class to fill the void of the Eagles' most glaring loss from last season, the production in the paint.

Junior guards Ellen Young (below), Amie Newhart (left), and Lauren Meneghetti (middle) as well as sophomore guard Rinesha Soaper (right) give the Eagles one of the most formidable backcourts in the region. Young earned All-GLVC honors a year ago after averaging 13.1 points per game, while Newhart and Meneghetti averaged 11.8 and 9.1 points per contest, respectively. Soaper also averaged 9.1 points per appearance in her first season with the Eagles.

The graduation of forward/centers Brittany Neuman and Ninette Evans left the Eagles in need of an additional 17.1 points and 13.8 rebounds per game from last year's team.

Senior forward Abby Williams, a NJCAA II All-American, averaged 8.3 points and 6.0 rebounds per game as a junior last season and figures to see her production increase as she enters her second and final year with the Eagles.

Fellow classmate Anaris Sickles, who makes the transition from Division I to Division II, also will help USI's frontcourt after helping the University of Evansville to the Missouri Valley Conference title and a berth in the NCAA I Tournament a year ago.

Junior forward/center Courtney Perry and sophomore forward/center Leigha Thompson should see their playing time increase this season after seeing limited action last year. Perry, who scored a career-high six points against Grace last season, averaged 1.2 rebounds in 23 games as a sophomore.

Stein brought in two junior college transfers and a freshman to strengthen USI's frontcourt. Junior forward/center Stephanie McSparin averaged 7.8 points and 5.1 rebounds as a sophomore at John A. Logan College (Carterville, Illinois) last year, while sophomore forward/center Ashton Mertens averaged 9.6 points and 8.0 rebounds as a freshman at Kankakee Community College before injury cost her the 2008-09 season.

Freshman forward Simone Swary also is expected to contribute to the Eagles' frontcourt. Swary was named to the Indiana Class 4A East All-Star team after leading Northrop High School (Ft. Wayne) to a sectional title last year.

USI wastes little time getting the season started as it begins the campaign October 30-November 1 at the Disney Division II West Coast Tip-off Classic in Anaheim, California. Following the three-game, classic-style tournament, the Eagles visit Indiana State University November 8 for an exhibition game before resuming regular-season play November 15 with a trip to Detroit, Michigan, to take on Midwest Region foe Wayne State.

The Eagles open their 14-game home schedule November 18 when they host Urbana University. USI's home schedule includes its GLVC-opener December 3 against Bellarmine University as well as bouts with defending GLVC Tournament champion Northern Kentucky University (December 5), defending GLVC West Division champion Quincy University (January 16), and NCAA II Midwest Region finalist University of Indianapolis (February 13).

GLVC play will be different than previous seasons as the conference has been divided into three five-team divisions (East, West, North). USI plays home-and-home series with East Division foes Bellarmine, Northern Kentucky, Indianapolis, and Kentucky Wesleyan College; and meet North and West Division foes one time throughout the regular season.

Rick Stein, Head Coach

Rick Stein '92 is the University of Southern Indiana women's basketball program's all-time leader in victories as he enters his 11th season at the helm of the Screaming Eagles.

Stein recorded his historic 160th career win, surpassing former Head Coach Chancellor Dugan, when his squad defeated Wayne State University, 80-75, December 29, 2008. He enters 2009-10 with a 167-122 overall record.

In 18 seasons as an assistant coach and head coach for USI women's basketball, he has had a hand in 326 of the program's 474 victories.

The 2001 GLVC Coach of the Year has been a major factor in four conference championships, three GLVC Tournament titles, all seven of USI's NCAA II Tournament appearances, and two NCAA II Elite Eight appearances.

In 2009-10, Stein will have an experienced group of returning players as well as another strong recruiting class to blend together as he looks to get the Eagles back to the top of one of the toughest conferences in Division II.

Last year, his squad finished 14-13 (6-11 GLVC) and was just one win shy of qualifying for the league's post-season tournament, despite having just three upperclassmen on the roster.

The 2007-08 Eagles were one of the most competitive groups in the GLVC despite their 10-17 overall mark and 5-14 record in league play. His team held second-half leads in nearly every contest in a league that featured six NCAA II Tournament teams and the 2008 national champions.

In 2006-07, Stein guided the Eagles to a 16-12 overall record, 10-9 in the GLVC, and back to the GLVC Tournament. His squad also earned a victory over eventual NCAA II Great Lakes Region champion Drury University.

The 2005-06 season saw Stein lead the Eagles to a 15-15 overall record, 7-12 in the GLVC, despite losing nearly 70 percent of his team's offensive output and nearly 80 percent of his squad's rebounding output from the previous season.

His squad battled through multiple injuries to post a 14-14 overall record, 7-13 in the GLVC, and qualify for the GLVC Tournament in 2004-05.

In 2003-04, Stein led the Eagles to the program's seventh 20-win season, posting a 20-10 mark and a 12-8 record in the GLVC. His Eagles returned to the NCAA II Tournament for the seventh time in the program's history, the third-most of any women's program in GLVC history.

Rick and his wife, Kari, are pictured below with their children, Mallorie and Alex, as well as their dog, Macy.

Despite a rough 2002-03 campaign, Stein and his coaching staff brought in a strong recruiting class that set the stage for a return to national competitiveness. In 2003-04, USI had the sixth-best turnaround in Division II, with USI improving by 12 wins from the previous year.

In 2002-03, Stein and the Eagles were forced into a rebuilding year after losing five seniors and more than 60 points and 25 rebounds per game from the 2001-02 squad. With only one returning starter, Stein and his staff had a young team competing for a spot in the GLVC Tournament late in the season and finished the year with an 8-19 overall record.

The 2001-02 season saw Stein's Eagles post a 27-6 overall record, 16-4 GLVC, win a second straight GLVC Championship, and appear in the NCAA II Great Lakes Region Tournament for the second straight season. Stein also led the Eagles into the national spotlight with his squad being ranked nationally for 37 consecutive weeks between December 2000 and December 2002.

In just his second season at the helm, Stein led USI to a 28-4 record and the biggest season-to-season turnaround in school history (+13 wins). Stein, who earned GLVC Coach of the Year honors, directed the Eagles to the GLVC Championship, GLVC Tournament Championship, an NCAA II Tournament appearance, and an appearance in the NCAA II Elite Eight for the second time in the program's history.

Stein went 15-12 overall in 1999-00, tying the record for most victories for a rookie head coach and setting the record for best winning percentage for a rookie coach (.556).

A member of the WBCA, Stein is a 1992 USI graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration. He joined the Eagles' program in 1991-92 as a student assistant under former Head Coach Chancellor Dugan. He was promoted to head assistant coach in 1994 and promptly helped Dugan and the Eagles to their best season as a varsity sport at USI.

In his eight seasons as an assistant, Stein helped Dugan amass a 159-73 record with four straight NCAA II Tournament appearances (1994-95 to 1997-98) and three GLVC titles. The Eagles were the NCAA II Tournament finalist and produced the first perfect season in GLVC history (20-0) in 1997.

A native of Crete, Illinois, Stein was a two-year starter on USI's men's basketball team from 1989-91. During his tenure as a player, Stein helped USI to an appearance in the NCAA II South Central Region Tournament in 1989-90 and a win over Division I University of Wisconsin in 1990-91. Before joining USI's team, he played basketball at Parkland College in Champaign, Illinois, and earned an associate degree. Parkland finished as the NJCAA Division II runner-up in 1988 and fourth nationally in 1989.

Stein and his wife Kari have a son, Alex, and a daughter, Mallorie.

In 2001-02, Head Coach Rick Stein led the Screaming Eagles to their second straight Great Lakes Valley Conference Tournament title.

In 18 seasons with the USI women's basketball team, eight as an assistant and 10 as head coach, Stein has been a part of 326 Eagle victories, seven NCAA II Tournament appearances, four regular-season GLVC titles, and a record three GLVC Tournament championships.

Stein has participated in 68.8 percent of USI's all-time victories.

In his second season, Stein was voted the GLVC Coach of the Year after leading USI to a 28-4 record and both the GLVC regular-season and tournament championships.

Stein, who led USI to its second NCAA II Elite Eight appearance in 2000-01, is USI's all-time winningest coach with 167 victories. He also is the third coach in the program's history to eclipse the 100-win plateau.

Randa Dallas, Assistant Coach

Assistant Coach Randa Dallas '99 returns for her 11th season with the Screaming Eagles. Dallas assists in all aspects of the USI women's basketball program. In particular, she works closely with game scouts, recruiting, player assessments, and on-the-court skill work with the guards.

Dallas has been a major part of USI's success throughout the years, both as a player and as a coach. She has been a part of 267 victories, 167 as a coach and 100 as a player. In addition,

Dallas has been a part of seven NCAA II Tournament teams, two NCAA II Elite Eight squads, and five GLVC championship teams.

In addition to her coaching duties, Dallas is USI's senior woman administrator and an instructor in physical education. She also is the coordinator for USI's Eagle Math program.

A native of Evansville, Indiana, Dallas started her career at Evansville Central High School. She served as the head coach for the first-ever Central girl's freshman basketball team and was instrumental in its creation.

Dallas graduated from USI in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in social work.

During her playing days at USI, Dallas was a member of the 1997 NCAA Division II national finalist team. Her play helped the Eagles to NCAA II Tournament appearances in 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998, as well as GLVC championships in 1995, 1997, and 1998. She was the team captain in 1997-98.

The Eagles were a dominating 100-16 (.862), including an amazing 67-9 (.881) in the GLVC, during Dallas's four years in an Eagle uniform.

Randa and her husband, Chad, are pictured with his children, Logan and Kylee, and their dog, Samantha. They reside in Evansville.

Michelle Irwin-Wagner, Assistant Coach _____

Michelle Irwin-Wagner enters her fourth season with the USI women's basketball team. She assists in all aspects of the USI women's basketball program. In particular, she works closely with game scouts, recruiting, player assessments, and on-the-court skill work with the post players.

Irwin-Wagner came to USI from Ashland University, where she was a graduate assistant from 2004-06. She helped the Ashland Eagles to an NCAA II Tournament appearance, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference South Division titles, and two 20-win seasons.

Prior to Ashland, Irwin-Wagner got her coaching start at St. Catharine College during the 2003-04 season. She helped in recruiting, player development, and scouting reports while at SCC.

Irwin played for USI Head Coach Rick Stein from 1999-02 and was part of the Screaming Eagles' back-to-back GLVC Tournament championship teams. USI amassed a 70-22 mark, 43-17 in the GLVC, during Irwin-Wagner's three seasons in a USI uniform. The Eagles also appeared in the NCAA II Tournament twice.

The Louisville, Kentucky, native averaged 5.9 points and 4.6 rebounds per game for the Eagles, including a career-best 7.9 points and 5.5 rebounds during USI's NCAA II Elite Eight run in 2000-01.

Irwin-Wagner, who also teaches in the Physical Education Department at USI, earned a bachelor's degree in marketing with a minor in international business from the University of Louisville in 2004. She graduated with a master's degree in sports sciences from Ashland in December of 2005.

Michelle, her husband, Eric, and dog, Layla, reside in Evansville.

(Above) The 2008-09 women's basketball team held a celebrity server fundraiser at the Westside Golden Corral last spring to benefit local families affected by breast cancer.

University of Southern Indiana's Department of Athletics is in the national spotlight for its athletic accomplishments in the NCAA Division II, and in the Evansville-area spotlight as partners in the community.

USI student athletes are among the many volunteers contributing to the success of the Komen Race for the Cure, while the coaching staff is present to help staff the telephones for the MDA Telethon.

In addition to conducting free clinics at the local YMCA and volunteering as tutors at local elementary schools, the women's basketball team also participates in the WBCA's Pink Zone initiative, sponsoring fundraisers to benefit local families affected by breast cancer.

In addition to the national charities, the Department of Athletics sponsors Eagle Math, a nationally recognized program to encourage young students to improve their math skills. The program is designed around the Eagle Math booklets printed in first quarter, second quarter, third quarter, and fourth quarter sequence to carry out the sports theme.

As student athletes practice to get better, math students are encouraged to practice math to excel in the classroom.

Screaming Eagles fly around the USA and beyond

The University of Southern Indiana women's basketball teams have traveled the continental United States and beyond over the last 16 years. USI has played in regular-season tournaments in Alaska, California, Florida, Missouri, Mexico (Cancun), and the Bahamas; and in NCAA Division II Tournaments in Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, and Texas.

In October 2009, the Screaming Eagles will travel to Anaheim, California, for the Disney Division II West Coast Tip-Off Classic. The trip marks the second time that the Eagles will compete in California.

Soaring through the years of success

The University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team enters the 2009-10 campaign seeking its eighth NCAA Division II Tournament appearance in 16 seasons. The last 15 seasons have not only produced seven NCAA II Tournament appearances, but have seen the Screaming Eagles make it to the NCAA II Sweet Sixteen three times and to the Elite Eight twice. USI finished as the runner-up in 1997.

In addition to its NCAA II Tournament success, USI also has been one of the top programs in the Great Lakes Valley Conference. The Eagles have won four GLVC regular-season titles since 1995 and have won the GLVC Tournament a record-tying three times. In eight trips to the GLVC Tournament, the Eagles are 10-5.

Note: Since 1994, the Eagles have had five players earn All-America honors.

After beginning the 1996-97 season with a 1-1 record, the Eagles won 29 straight games as well as the GLVC and NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship. USI went on to win its first two games in the NCAA II Elite Eight before falling in the national championship game to North Dakota. USI also became the first and only team in GLVC history to go 20-0 in conference play. USI finished the season with a school-record 30-2 mark and finished second in the national rankings.

After missing out on the NCAA II Tournament in 1999 and 2000, the Eagles exploded back on to the national stage in 2001. The Eagles finished the 2000-01 season with a 28-4 mark and won a share of the GLVC regular-season title. The Eagles went on to win the GLVC Tournament championship as well as the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship for the second time in school history.

Quick fact: The Eagles have hosted the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament twice. However, the two times the Eagles have gone to the Elite Eight, they have won the regional tournament in the state of Michigan.

All-American Impact

Kathy Lauck was the first of five USI players to earn All-America honors since 1994. Lauck averaged 20.1 points and 9.2 rebounds per game as a senior and led the Screaming Eagles to their first winning season in eight years. USI finished the season with a 17-10 mark and a 12-6 record in the GLVC. Lauck, who is third all-time at USI in career scoring with 1,573 points, earned GLVC Player of the Year honors in 1994 and was a two-time All-GLVC selection. She was recognized by three publications for All-America honors.

In 1995, LeAnn Freeland became the second player in school history to earn All-America honors. Freeland, USI's all-time leading scorer with 2,269 points, finished her career at USI as a three-time All-American. However, her sophomore campaign in 1994-95 stood out as she became the first player in school history to earn National Player of the Year honors. During the 1994-95 season, Freeland averaged 24.4 points and 9.2 points per game. She finished her career as USI's all-time leader in six statistical categories, including rebounds (961). The two-time GLVC Player of the Year holds 16 school records and was a three-time Academic All-American.

Eileen Weber was recognized by two organizations for All-America honors in 1996-97. She also earned All-America honors for her efforts during the 1997-98 season. In 1996-97, Weber helped lead the Screaming Eagles to a 30-2 record and the NCAA II National Championship game. She started her career at USI by earning GLVC Newcomer of the Year honors and ended it by earning GLVC Player of the Year honors. Weber is second all-time at USI in career points (1,847) and career rebounds (842). She averaged 17.8 points and 8.0 rebounds per game as a senior in 1997-98 and 15.4 points and 6.4 rebounds as a junior in 1996-97.

After a quiet first three seasons, Elizabeth Prewett broke out as a senior during the 2000-01 season. She averaged 15.0 points and 9.2 rebounds per game to lead USI to a 28-4 record and its second trip to the NCAA II Elite Eight. Her efforts landed her first-team All-GLVC and All-Region honors. She also was selected GLVC All-Tournament Team and was named the MVP of the 2001 NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament. Prewett is ranked 14th all-time at USI in career scoring (837) and eighth all-time at USI in career rebounds (589). In 2000, she helped the USI volleyball team to a share of the GLVC regular-season title.

The University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team was 22-5 overall, 14-4 GLVC, as it captured its first GLVC title and made its first-ever trip to the NCAA II Tournament in 1994-95. Two players on the 1994-95 squad—LeAnn Freeland and Eileen Weber—went on to earn All-America and GLVC Player of the Year honors during their careers. Freeland was the College Sports National Player of the Year in 1995.

Jasmine Moore, a two-time All-GLVC performer, helped lead USI to consecutive GLVC Tournament titles. Moore racked up 751 points and 293 assists in just two seasons in a USI uniform.
