USI WATER SAFETY CLASS

For Immediate Release
October 25, 1991

Openings still are available in a water-safety course offered by the University of Southern Indiana Office of Continuing Education. The 10-session course on Emergency Water Certification (replacing the American Red Cross Junior Lifesaving course) will start Tuesday, November 5. Classes will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays and are open to anyone age 11 or older who is certified at swimmer or advanced swimmer levels. The fee is $45. Call the Office of Continuing Education, 812/464-1863, for information or to register.
