

ROBERT W. SWAN ELECTED
USI ALUMNI PRESIDENT

For Immediate Release
July 28, 1988

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Sherrianne Standley, University Relations
(812) 464-1902

Robert W. Swan of Evansville, a 1972 graduate of the University of Southern Indiana, has been elected 1988-89 president of the USI Alumni Association. He is a certified public accountant and administrative partner with Kemper CPA Group in Evansville.

Swan succeeds Tina M. Kern of Evansville-class of '86, associate new business director at Keller-Crescent Co., Evansville. Other new officers are John L. Schutz of New Harmony, Indiana-class of '82, a stockbroker with Hilliard Lyons, Evansville, president-elect; Ronda L. Hall of Henderson, Kentucky-class of '83, youth liaison coordinator with the Evansville-Vanderburgh School Corporation, secretary; and David T. Raibley of Mount Vernon, Indiana-class of '73, executive vice president of Posey County National Bank, treasurer.

Other Alumni Council members for 1988-89 are David Bunner, class of '72-attorney; Dave Buttrum, '74-vice president, Swanson-Nunn Electric Company; Mary Jo Dentino, '80-Ivy Tech Southwest business faculty; Michael Doris, '83-senior vice president/trust officer, Citizens National Bank; Ann Fluty, '80-CPA, Harding Shymanski & Company; Kenneth Graves, '71-vice president, Crescent Plastics; Roger Griffin, '72-senior sales engineer, Hilti Fastening Systems; Kimberly Jo Hinton, '79-Earle C. Clements Jobs Corps instructor/counselor; Gayle Hodges, '83-staff cost accountant, Bristol-Myers USPNG; Mark Holder, '81-senior sales representative, Smith Kline & French Laboratories; Barbara Martin, '87-assistant program coordinator, Hillcrest-Washington Youth Home; Chris Melton, '72-vice president, National City Bank Commercial Loan Department; Mark Neidig, '76-vice president/manager of retail credit, Old National Bank; Nelda Searcy, '86-media director, Koleszar-Woodruff Advertising; Dr. Randall Stoltz, '80-family practice physician; and Roselle Weinzapfel, '81-CPA, Umbach & Vowells CPAs. Holder lives in Newburgh, Indiana; Searcy and Weinzapfel are Mount Vernon residents; the others live in Evansville.

Carole Rust of Mount Vernon-class of '77, is ex officio member by virtue of being the alumni member on the USI Board of Trustees; she has accepted a new position as director of development and community relations at the Evansville Day School.

- 30 -

University of Southern Indiana
8600 University Boulevard • Evansville, Indiana 47712