USI schedule

November 1-15, 1994

Tuesday, November 1

Historic New Harmony - A groundbreaking ceremony will be held at 9 a.m., signaling the start of a $150,000 construction project to develop New Harmony Church Park which will cover more than half of the block bounded by Church, West, Tavern, and Main streets in downtown New Harmony. The ceremony will be held at the corner of Church and Main. Refreshments will be available at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art, courtesy of the Red Geranium. A special guest will be Judy O'Bannon, wife of the Indiana lieutenant governor and a member of the board Indiana Main Street Program. The groundbreaking will initiate the first phase of park development - the installation of a regulation basketball court at the corner of West and Tavern to replace an old facility and to spruce up an area that is a popular gathering place.

(For information, call Historic New Harmony, 812/682-4488.)

Tuesday, November 1

Two morning sessions -- 9:05 and 10:35 a.m. -- and a noon luncheon will be the public meetings during the day's events. Imbler will discuss "Berry Plastics: Its Strategy and 1994 Public Financing" during the morning meetings and also will speak at the luncheon. The program will be held in the University Conference Center. Luncheon reservations are $10 and should be made by Monday, October 31, by calling 812/464-1962.

USI Theatre

presents Shakespeare

The Tempest

A band of shipwrecked noblemen and servants find themselves on a secluded, seemingly uninhabited island. Mysterious events both enchant and frighten the unwilling visitors, unaware that Prospero, their banished Duke, inhabits the uncharted isle and has used his magical powers to arrange this encounter.

Performances will be at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, November 10-19, and 2 p.m. Sundays, November 13 and 20, at the USI Theatre, 3001 Igleheart Avenue. Tickets are $5 for the University community and senior citizens (60 and up), $7 for general admission. The box office will open at 6 p.m. performance days or call 812/465-1668 for information, reservations.
