

Josephine Elliott

Vol. VII No. 18 May 2, 1973

INDIANA STATE University Notes EVANSVILLE CAMPUS

MINI FLOWER SHOW

The Westwood Garden Club will have a mini flower show on Thursday, May 3, 1973, from 12:00 noon to 3:00 p.m. in the Rare Books Room of the University Library.

IBM CARDS AVAILABLE

IBM card format for Cours Evaluation cards are now available from divisional offices or from Brad Awe.

DENTAL ASSISTANTS GRADUATE

Graduation for the Dental Assisting Class will be held on May 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the Forum, with a reception immediately following. Faculty and staff are invited to attend.

Graduates of the Dental Assisting Class are Janet Brown, Sandra Gibson, Patricia Herrenbruck, Gay Hixon, Kathryn Hunter, Rita Ingram, Sarah Kifer, Pamela Knapp, Janice McDaniel, Mary Morgan, Pamela Richardson, Pamela Schmidt, Kathleen Seib, Lola Stucki, and Sally Ulrich.

Dr. James E. Vaught, Director of Dental Auxiliary Education and Professor of Dental Auxiliary Education at Indiana University School of Dentistry, Indianapolis, Indiana, will give the address during the ceremony.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

DONALD D. BENNETT, Dean of Academic and Student Services, has been elected to the Board of Directors for the Tri-State Area Health Planning Council, Inc. . . . FLORENCE MCCLOSEKY, Supervisor and Instructor in Dental Hygiene, has been elected president, and JEANNE BIPPUS, Instructor in Dental Hygiene, has been elected trustee of the Ohio Valley Dental Hygienists' Association . . . ARTHUR WERNER, Director of the Computer Center, has been elected president of the Greater Evansville Chapter of the Data Processing Management Association for the 1973-1974 year. Mr. Werner presently serves as the chapter secretary . . . DANIEL SCAVONE, Assistant Professor of History, will address the Indiana Classical Conference Meeting at St. Meinrad College on May 5 on "Greek and Roman Remains in Turkey." The I.C.C. is the organization of classicists and ancient historians in Indiana . . . ELISEO DAROSA, Professor of Economics, has been named to the Board of Directors of the Red Cross . . . CLAYTON CRENSHAW, Director of Theatre and Assistant Professor of Speech, was elected third vice-president of the Broadway Theatre League at their annual meeting Wednesday, April 25 . . . RUTHANN P. STURTEVANT, Assistant Professor of Biology, has received a Grant-in-Aid from Graduate Women in Science, Sigma Selta Epsilon, for research . . .

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN DENTAL HYGIENE EDUCATION TO BE OFFERED

Beginning with the fall semester, 1973, Indiana State University Evansville will offer courses toward the degree of Bachelor of Science in Dental Hygiene Education.

UNIVERSITY NOTES

May 2, 1973

Page 2

This program is open to all graduate Dental Hygienists with an Associate in Science Degree. For information contact Dr. Gordon Kelley.

TWELVE FACULTY PROMOTED

Twelve faculty members are being promoted, effective July 1, 1973. The promotions were approved at the April Indiana State University Board of Trustees meeting held in Terre Haute on April 21, 1973.

Promoted to the rank of full Professor are Ted D. DeVries, Lomberto Diaz, Dona F. Frost, Glenn Kinzie, Barbara J. Marting, and Michael Pasko.

Promoted to Associate Professor are Richard Mussard, Victoria Pohl, Helen Sands, and Daniel Scavone.

Promoted to Assistant Professor are Wanda Hibbitts and Mary Schroeder.

GOVERNOR BOWEN IN PRESS CONFERENCE AT ISUE

The Honorable Otis Bowen, Governor of Indiana, will be the featured guest in a first of a series of televised press conferences sponsored by state university campuses and the two-way communications capabilities of the Indiana Higher Education Telecommunication System (IHETS).

ISUE will host, in cooperation with other state universities, the televised press conference in Room 28 on May 3, from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Members of the local media will be on campus for the event. ISUE faculty, administration and staff are also invited to observe the conference. Only members of the media can pose questions.

IHETS gives the local media an opportunity to see, hear and question Governor Bowen located in the television studios of the Indiana University School of Medicine via the facilities of IHETS.

Future conferences will feature leading persons in government, education, and public affairs.

INTERPRETERS NEEDED

Local hospitals have asked for volunteers to act as interpreters in hospital emergencies. Anyone with foreign language facility who could be called in an emergency is urged to list name and telephone number with Mrs. Patterson, Personnel.

HONORS DAY

The 1973 Honors Day Program is scheduled for May 3, 1973 from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in Forum Room. At this time all classes will be dismissed as approved by the Faculty Council. All faculty members and the student body are invited to attend the Honors' Day Program.

Numerous scholarships will be awarded at the program and student achievement award winners will be announced.

John Emhuff, Acting Dean of Students, will preside at the ceremony.

NOTE OF THANKS

A note of thanks from Brad and Bonnie Awe: "Bonnie and I wish to thank all of you for taking time from your busy schedules to share Friday the 13th with us. We are indebted to your concern and assistance and we appreciate knowing that humanity still exists."

NEW FACES

Miss Karen Metz is the new secretary in the Instructional Media Center. Karen, an Evansville native and graduate of Mater Dei High School, graduated from Patricia Stevens Career College in St. Louis, Missouri, a one-year career college. Karen enjoys judo, swimming, sewing and cooking.

FIRST FIELD TRAINING SCHOOL IN ARCHAEOLOGY AT ISUE

Under a grant from the Lilly Endowment, Inc., ISUE will offer its first field training school in archaeology in the 1973 Summer Session. The course will begin June 12 and continue through July 17. The course will carry six credit hours.

The excavating party will be under the direction of John B. Elliott, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Anthropology, and under the supervision of Gilbert C. Apfeldt, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Archaeology.

Interested persons should contact Dr. Walter Hopkins, Chairman of the Sociology Department.

ALUMNI BANQUET

All faculty, administration and staff are invited to the Alumni Banquet to be held on May 5, 1973, at 7:00 p.m. in the Forum. Price is $4.00 per person for the steak dinner and entertainment will be by the Mid-America Singers.

DIRECTORY CHANGES

Esche, Irma L.	delete
Metz, Karen M. Secretary, IMC	add	6100 Plainview Drive Evansville, Indiana

CAMPUS TOURS

The Salem United Church of Christ Women's Guild will tour the campus on Thursday,

May 3, at 2:00 p.m.

The third grade at Mt. Vernon West elementary school will tour the campus on Thursday, May 10, 1973 at 9:00 a.m.

The Upward Bound students from Evansville and Vincennes will tour the campus and the Bent Twig Outdoor Learning Environment on Saturday, May 19, 1973 at 10:00 a.m.

ARBITRATION SEMINAR ON CAMPUS

Indiana University is sponsoring a one-day arbitration seminar for the local labor force on Friday, May 11, 1973 beginning at 8:00 a.m. in the Faculty Reading Room.

IN MEMORIAM

An expression of condolence and a memorial book has been sent to the University Library by the faculty to William Sands in memory of his mother, Mrs. Helene Sands who died April 17 and to Michael Pasko in memory of his mother, Mrs. Tessa Pasko who died April 20. The book contributions were administered through the ISUE Courtesy Fund.

SCOUT-O-RAMA

The 1973 Scout-O-Rama will be held Saturday, May 12, 1973 from 1:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on the ISUE campus, one of four area locations. The event, sponsored by the Boy Scouts of America, will feature displays of information about scouting. Tickets are available from any boy or cub scout.

WESTWOOD GARDEN CLUB WINS STATE AWARD

The Westwood Garden Club has won a state award, the Sears Environmental Improvement Award, for renovation of the log lodge on the east side of the campus. The award carried $300 in prize money and eligibility for national competition.

Chairmen of the project were Mrs. Loren Herrli and Mrs. Virgil Eicker.

The log lodge is available for small group meetings (40 capacity) and can be requisitioned as other space on the campus.