The spring Southern Hospitality Days to allow Tri-State high school students and their families to become acquainted with the University of Southern Indiana will be held Friday, March 3, and Friday, April 7, sponsored by the USI Office of Admissions.

The programs begin at 9 a.m. in the University Center, where Dr. Donald Bennett, vice president for Student Affairs, will welcome students and their families. The day's activities will include tours of the campus and adjacent student housing, meetings with the new academic deans, informative sessions on extra-curricular opportunities, and a complimentary lunch in USI's dining centers.

During the afternoon, students will have an opportunity to attend a college class, while families participate in a new program, "For Parents Only." This question-answer period, led by James Browning, director of Counseling Services, will address specific concerns of parents whose children are about to "leave the nest" for the first time.

No reservations are required. For information, call the Admissions Office, (812) 464-1765 or toll-free, 1-800-444-1965.
