ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT SPONSORING SUMMER CAMPS.
The ISUE Athletic Department is sponsoring basketball (men and women), volleyball and cheerleading camps this summer, in addition to an 8-game summer basketball league for grade school boys. All camps will take place at ISUE Arena.

ISUE Basketball Coach, WAYNE BOULTINGHOUSE, and Assistant Coach, DON RAMSDEN, will conduct the three-week basketball camp for boys, scheduled to begin on June 13. The camp will run Monday through Thursday from 8:15 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. All participants in the camp should be 9 years of age or older. Any dependents of the ISUE administration, faculty or staff can attend the three-week camp for the reduced rate of $15.00. The cost to the general public is $40.00.

ISUE Women's Coach, RUTH SCHWENK, and COACH BOULTINGHOUSE will conduct a one week basketball camp for girls scheduled to begin Monday, June 20 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Cost of the week's camp is $20.00.

A one week cheerleading camp will be administered by ISUE Cheerleading sponsor, RUTH SCHWENK. The cheerleading camp will start Monday, June 13 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. through Friday, June 17. The fee is $15.00.

The three week volleyball camp will begin on Monday, June 13 from 10:15 a.m. to noon. The camp will run Monday through Thursday and will be conducted by Ginger Lutterman, volleyball coach at Castle High School. The fee is $30.00.

COACH BOULTINGHOUSE will also supervise an 8-game summer basketball league for grade school boys. The schedule will be announced once all the team rosters are completed. The league will run for four weeks and all the games played during the morning hours. League will commence the week of July 11. The fee for each player is $15.00.

STAFF MEMBERS ATTEND SEMINAR. Five ISUE staff members, JUDY BECK, MARGARET JONES, JOANI JOST, DONNA LAYMON, and MARY LUE RUSSLER, attended a business seminar entitled, "Professionalism" sponsored by the Evansville Chapter of The National Secretaries Association International April 30 at the Ramada Inn.

Mr. John M. Grogen, President of Marketing Systems for Today Corporation, was the seminar speaker. Mr. Grogen, who has trained thousands of salesmen and managers throughout the United States and Canada, discussed "The Power Laws of Success Living." He gave tips on formulating goals and how to reach them, effective negotiating, communicating meaningfully, and controlling mood cycles.

The one-day educational event, which included a luncheon and style show, was also attended by students KATHY SIMPSON and NANCY KUYKENDALL representing ISUE's Chapter of National Collegiate Association for Secretaries.

NEW FACES. A new secretary, COURTNEY SUE GROSSMAN, has been hired for Safety and Security. COURTNEY graduated from Reith High School and attended ISUE. She and her husband William are the parents of two children, Donna, 10; and Stephanie, 5.

She lists bowling and sewing as her interests.

SPORTS. The ISUE Screaming Eagles split a double-header with Bellarmine Sunday afternoon in their final game of the season. The score in the first game was ISUE 5, Bellarmine 4; in the nightcap Bellarmine came out ahead with a score of 6 to 3. The Eagles closed their first winning season with a record of 21 wins, 20 losses and one tie.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS. BARBARA MARTING, Associate Professor of Business, will lead the International Women's Year regional meeting in Evansville on May 21.

The IWY meetings will be held nationwide on that date and ten other Indiana cities will participate.

The administration building on the ISUE Campus will house the session from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. The sessions will examine the involvement of women socially, economically, culturally, and politically. Also DR. MARTING will be speaking to the American Society of Women Accountants on Saturday, May 14 at the Imperial Room of the Jackson House. Her topic at this annual meeting is "Woman's Mythical Motivational Patterns and Problems."

MARCIA TURNER, Assistant Professor of Social Science, has been appointed to serve as a board member for Planned Parenthood. She also serves on the Education Committee of the Mental Health Association and is on the Steering Committee for Handicapped Students and a board member of the Volunteer Action Center.

GEORGE ABSHIER, Professor of Business, has been elected as a Director of the Vanderburgh County Extension Board.

DONALD PITZER, Professor of History, will be giving the third lecture in the Indiana Historical Societies 1976-77 Lecture Series at the 27th Spring History Workshop to be held May 20 in New Harmony. The workshop is sponsored by the Indiana Historical Society, the Indiana Historical Bureau and the Indiana State Library. DR. PITZER'S topic will be "Education in Utopia: The New Harmony Experience."

LIBRARY HOURS. The library will observe the following schedule during intersession, May 9 through June 11: Library and Learning Resource Center, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Saturday and Sunday closed.
