

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

21 USI students named to '95 Who's Who

For immediate release
January 11, 1995

The University of Southern Indiana has had 21 students selected as national outstanding leaders who will be listed in the 1995 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

The students' selection is based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success. They will be among leaders from more than 1,800 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations who are listed in the next Who's Who. USI students include:

Anthony J. Bacon, son of Larry and Mary Jo Bacon, 10500 Weinzapfel Road, Mt. Vernon, Indiana -- a junior mathematics major, he is a 1991 graduate of Mater Dei High School, Evansville; he is a Dean's List student and member of Sigma Zeta science and math, Alpha Chi, and Golden Key national honoraries, and the National Dean's List, and president of Mu Gamma Pi math club; his many campus activities include serving on the Presidential Search and Screen Committee in 1993-94; he is a varsity tennis player whose community activities include coaching high school tennis and Little League baseball; he has been a chef since 1991 at DiLeggi's Italian Restaurant, Evansville.

Amanda Barton, 4963 Lakeside Court, Evansville -- a sophomore sociology major, she has been active with the Student Government Association and Activities Programming Board, is president of HOPE (formerly student AIDS Peer Facilitators) and a member of the World AIDS Day Committee, a member of the German Club, and an editor and writer for both The Shield student newspaper and Transitions magazine; she was USI representative to the New Jersey Consortium on Health Education in 1994; and has been active with the diabetes Walktoberfest (1992-94), Sigma Tau Gamma fall festival (1993-94), and 1994 Walksoberfest.

Douglas A. Bennett, son of Michael and Cheryl Bennett, 2007 Washington Drive, Frankfort, Indiana -- a social studies/teaching major, he is a 1985 graduate of Frankfort Senior High School; he is a member of Golden Key and Pinnacle honoraries and is president of the Student Housing Association, immediate past chairman of the Activities Programming Board's Eagle Gran Prix bicycle race, speaker pro tem of the Student Government Association House of Organizations, and was a student representative on search committees seeking a vice president for Student Affairs and a student housing resident life coordinator.

C. Matt Billman, son of Stan and Mary Ann Billman, 723 Mulberry, Mt. Vernon, Indiana -- an art major, he is treasurer of the USI Art Club and participated in the 1992-93-94 USI

Student Art shows and the 1993 USI/University of Evansville (East Side/West Side) exhibition at the Evansville Museum; he has been a cartoonist since 1991 for The Shield student newspaper and since 1992 for Transitions magazine; he is art editor of USI's The Aerie arts journal; his work also appears in The Mt. Vernon Democrat, The Evansville Courier's InSync, The Xavier Newswire (Xavier University), and New Hampshire (University of New Hampshire). He is active with his church and at USI, has been a member of the Student Government Association since 1991, is a resident assistant in student housing, and has been active on campus and in the community as a volleyball player.

Amy S. Campbell, daughter of William D. and Jean A. Campbell, 4322 Norwich Place, Evansville -- a 1991 North High School graduate, she is a senior biology major and Dean's List student who has participated and taught in University research projects and was accepted in Vanderbilt University's 1994 Summer Undergraduate Biomedical Research Program; she is a member of Golden Key and Sigma Zeta honoraries, cal Science Club, and a member of the Activities Programming Board, History Club, various University committees, AMIGOs (Ask Me I Give Orientation), Student Ambassadors, and Order of Omega. He is active with Democrat organizations on campus and in Evansville, having served on various campaign committees and as a delegate to the State Convention; he has been a volunteer with AFL-CIO community programs; he has been an employee of K-Mart and Super K-Mart Center since 1989, and has earned numerous employee awards.

(more)

Sandra Memmer Murphy, 206 N. Eighth, Boonville, Indiana -- a 1970 graduate of Rex Mundi High School, Evansville, she previously was a pre-med major at Indiana University for two years, then left to raise a family; she also attended the University of Evansville a year and has been attending USI part-time the past five years, expecting to receive a B.S. in nursing in May; she is a member of Alpha Chi, Pinnacle, and Sigma Theta Tau honoraries and Mu Alpha Theta math fraternity; a Dean's List student, she is president of the Upper Division Nursing Organization; she is president of Murphy Engineering Co., Boonville and is affiliated with the Evansville Philharmonic Guild, Boonville Odyssey of the Mind board, Evansville Junior League, Warrick Humane Society, USIans, and the Evansville Flute Choir; she has a private pilot's license and has been active in various school/community projects in Boonville.

Penny L. Nunn, daughter of Daymon and Karen Nunn, 3020 Elmwood Drive, Henderson, Kentucky -- a 1991 Henderson County High School graduate, she is a Dean's List student, member of Order of Omega and Golden Key honoraries, and has been active with Alpha Gamma Delta; she is the Panhellenic representative on the Student Government Association and has been SGA speaker pro tem; she also is active with the student Activities Programming Board, Political Science Club, and AMIGOs (Ask Me I Give Orientation), Student Ambassadors, and ELITE, a program to encourage minority and low-income students to go to college.

Jenny L. Schuetter, daughter of Ralph Jr. and Louise Schuetter, 4650 N. Commissioners Drive, Jasper, Indiana -- a 1992 Jasper High School graduate, she is a junior social work major and a Dean's List student, vice president of the Social Work Club, and has chaired many of its committees; she also is a member of the Newman Club and is an alternate for the Student Government Association; she represented USI on the college Street Relief committee, was on USI's Archibald Eagle Food Closet committee, represented the USI social work program at Bosse High School Career Day, and served on the screening committee seeking an expanded USI faculty to accommodate the Master of Social Work program; she has been a volunteer with Family and Children Services, ARK Crisis Nursery, ECHO Clinic, the Crisis Line, Catholic Charities' Christmas Assistance Program, and various walk-athons and food pantries; she has attended numerous professional meetings at local, regional, and national levels.

Bethanne Willcutt, 2313 E. Iowa, Evansville -- a senior political science major, she is active with the Student Government Association and its committees, the Political Science Club, History Club, and Pep Band at USI; in the community, she has been a volunteer with Channel 9 Auction, West Side Improvement Association, and various Democratic political campaigns, an Election Day driver for homebound voters, and a delegate to the Democrat State Convention; she has held internships with the Indiana House of Representatives, former Congressman Frank McCloskey, and the Vanderburgh County Commissioners.

Beth I. Wollenmann, daughter of Martha J. Wollenmann, 6840 W. Old Road 64, Huntingburg, Indiana -- a 1991 graduate of Marion Heights Academy, she is a junior who plans to apply for the occupational therapy program; she is a University Division senator in the Student Government Association, where she has served on many committees, and is a student mentor; she has been a volunteer with Nova Care and the Rehabilitation Center in Evansville, and has worked since 1989 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Huntingburg, since 1992 with Historic Southern Indiana Project based at USI, and since 1994 as a therapist for a child with cerebral palsy.

Dawn K. Wright, daughter of Don and Barbara Wright, 10818 E. Boberg Road, Evansville -- she is a 1991 North Posey High School graduate and USI political science major; she has worked at Card Management Corporation, Evansville, since 1991; she has been an AMIGO (Ask Me I Give Orientation) and active member of Alpha Sigma Alpha, the Panhellenic Council, Student Government Association (associate chief justice), Political Science Club, History Club, Activities Programming Board, and several University committees, and a member of the Order of Omega; she is a member of college and Vanderburgh County Democrats, has been a delegate to the Democrat State Convention and active in several local campaigns, and has done volunteer work with Native American Days, MDA, March of Dimes Walk, EVCPL book sale, DADS for Diabetes, the Labor Day Association Weekend, and various AFL-CIO projects.

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

Henderson student named to '95 *Who's Who

For immediate release
January 11, 1995

The University of Southern Indiana has had 21 students selected as national outstanding leaders who will be listed in the 1995 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, including a Henderson, Kentucky, student.

The students' selection is based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success. They will be among leaders from more than 1,800 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations who are listed in the next Who's Who.

The Henderson student is Penny L. Nunn, daughter of Daymon and Karen Nunn, 3020 Elmwood Drive, Henderson, Kentucky -- a 1991 Henderson County High School graduate, she is a Dean's List student, member of Order of Omega and Golden Key honoraries, and has been active with Alpha Gamma Delta; she is the Panhellenic representative on the Student Government Association and has been SGA speaker pro tem; she also is active with the student Activities Programming Board, Political Science Club, and AMIGOs (Ask Me I Give Orientation), Student Ambassadors, and ELITE, a program to encourage minority and low-income students to go to college.

- 30 -

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

Frankfort student named to '95 *Who's Who

For immediate release
January 11, 1995

The University of Southern Indiana has had 21 students selected as national outstanding leaders who will be listed in the 1995 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, including a Frankfort, Indiana, student..

The students' selection is based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success. They will be among leaders from more than 1,800 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations who are listed in the next Who's Who.

The Frankfort student is Douglas A. Bennett, son of Michael and Cheryl Bennett, 2007 Washington Drive, Frankfort, Indiana -- a social studies/teaching major, he is a 1985 graduate of Frankfort Senior High School; he is a member of Golden Key and Pinnacle national honoraries and is president of the Student Housing Association, immediate past chairman of the Activities Programming Board's Eagle Gran Prix bicycle race, speaker pro tem of the Student Government Association House of Organizations, and was a student representative on search committees seeking a vice president for Student Affairs and a student housing resident life coordinator.

- 30 -

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

Elwood student named to '95 *Who's Who

For immediate release
January 11, 1995

The University of Southern Indiana has had 21 students selected as national outstanding leaders who will be listed in the 1995 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, including an Elwood, Indiana, student.

The students' selection is based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success. They will be among leaders from more than 1,800 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations who are listed in the next Who's Who.

The Elwood student is Kyle D. Heflin, son of Dave and Linda Heflin, 705 Main, Elwood, Indiana -- he is a 1989 graduate of Elwood Community High School and a junior biology/pre-med major; a Dean's List student, he is a student worker in the Biology Department, a resident assistant in Student Housing, previously worked in Elwood companies, and spends his summers as a self-employed landscaper; he is vice president of Sigma Zeta honorary and a member of the American Chemical Society, Biology and Ecology Club, Phi Delta Theta, and Student Government Association, and plays intramural basketball; he does volunteer work at Deaconess Hospital, in various community events, in nursing homes, and as an advisor to new students at USI.

- 30 -

4 Posey students at USI named to '95 Who's Who

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

For immediate release
January 11, 1995

The University of Southern Indiana has had 21 students selected as national outstanding leaders who will be listed in the 1995 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, including four from Posey County.

The students' selection is based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success. They will be among leaders from more than 1,800 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations who are listed in the next Who's Who. The Posey students include:

Anthony J. Bacon, son of Larry and Mary Jo Bacon, 10500 Weinzapfel Road, Mt. Vernon, Indiana -- a junior mathematics major, he is a 1991 graduate of Mater Dei High School, Evansville; he is a Dean's List student and member of Sigma Zeta science and math, Alpha Chi, and Golden Key national honoraries, the National Dean's List, and president of Mu Gamma Pi math club; his many campus activities include serving on the Presidential Search and Screen Committee in 1993-94; he is a varsity tennis player whose community activities include coaching high school tennis and Little League baseball; he has been a chef since 1991 at DiLeggi's Italian Restaurant, Evansville.

C. Matt Billman, son of Stan and Mary Ann Billman, 723 Mulberry, Mt. Vernon, Indiana -- an art major, he is treasurer of the USI Art Club and participated in the 1992-93-94 USI Student Art shows and the 1993 USI/University of Evansville (East Side/West Side) exhibition at the Evansville Museum; he has been a cartoonist since 1991 for The Shield student newspaper and since 1992 for Transitions magazine; he is art editor of USI's The Aerie arts journal; his work also appears in The Mt. Vernon Democrat, The Evansville Courier's InSync, The Xavier Newswire (Xavier University), and New Hampshire (University of New Hampshire). He is active with his church and at USI, has been a member of the Student Government Association since 1991, is a resident assistant in student housing, and has been active on campus and in the community as a volleyball player.

Laura H. Eger, daughter of Bert and Priscilla Eger, 6123 Cheshire Drive, Mt. Vernon, Indiana -- an art education major, she is a 1989 graduate of Mt. Vernon High School, she is an upper division senator with the Student Government Association and is active with Alpha Sigma Alpha, the Art Club, Kappa Kappa Iota Teachers Sorority; she is a cartoonist with the Transitions student magazine and was an exhibitor in the East Side/West Side (USI/UE) exhibition at the Evansville Museum; and she is active with Raintree Girl Scout Council and various community programs assisting mentally disabled adults.

Dawn K. Wright, daughter of Don and Barbara Wright, 10618 E. Boberg Road, Evansville -- she is a 1991 North Posey High School graduate and USI political science major; she has worked at Card Management Corporation, Evansville, since 1991; she has been an AMIGO (Ask Me I Give Orientation) and active member of Alpha Sigma Alpha, the Panhellenic Council, Student Government Association (associate chief justice), Political Science Club, History Club, Activities Programming Board, and several University committees, and a member of the Order of Omega; she is a member of college and Vanderburgh County Democrats, has been a delegate to the Democrat State Convention and active in several local campaigns, and has done volunteer work with Native American Days, MDA, March of Dimes Walk, EVCPL book sale, DADS for Diabetes, the Labor Day Association Weekend, and various AFL-CIO projects.

3 Warrick students at USI named to '95 *Who's Who

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

For immediate release
January 11, 1995

The University of Southern Indiana has had 21 students selected as national outstanding leaders who will be listed in the 1995 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, including three from Warrick County.

The students' selection is based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success. They will be among leaders from more than 1,800 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations who are listed in the next Who's Who. The Warrick students include:

Arlene Moesner Fortune, 1402 McRay, Boonville, Indiana, (daughter of Arthur R. and Ruth A. Moesner of Boonville) -- a 1974 graduate of Boonville High School, she is a senior biology major, speaker of the Student Government Association House of Organizations, and active with the student Activities Programming Board, where she is chair of the Family Day program and has chaired the Homecoming Parade; she is a writer for the student magazine Transitions; is active with numerous campus committees involved with student interests; and is a wife and mother of three who is active with Boonville band and athletics boosters organizations.

Chad J. Hartmann, son of Barbara Hartmann, 1316 Bedford, Evansville -- he is a Boonville High School graduate and a Presidential Scholar and Dean's List mathematics major at USI; he is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, Alpha Chi, and Sigma Zeta honoraries; he is a math tutor, a House member in the Student Government Association, and a member of the Computer Science Club, Student Housing Association, Mu Gamma Pi math club, Student Education Association, and a member and peer minister with the Newman Club; he has worked in the Coat-a-Kid campaign, homeless/Street Relief programs, and the USI Archibald Eagle Food Closet.

Sandra Memmer Murphy, 206 N. Eighth, Boonville, Indiana -- a 1970 graduate of Rex Mundi High School, Evansville, she previously was a pre-med major at Indiana University for two years, then left to raise a family; she also attended the University of Evansville a year and has been attending USI part-time the past five years, expecting to receive a B.S. in nursing in May; she is a member of Alpha Chi, Pinnacle, and Sigma Theta Tau honoraries and Mu Alpha Theta math fraternity; a Dean's List student, she is president of the Upper Division Nursing Organization; she also is president of Murphy Engineering Co., Boonville, and is affiliated with the Evansville Philharmonic Guild, Boonville Odyssey of the Mind board, Evansville Junior League, Warrick Humane Society, USIans, and the Evansville Flute Choir; she has a private pilot's license and has been active in various school/community projects in Boonville.

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

2 Dubois students named to '95 *Who's Who

For immediate release
January 11, 1995

The University of Southern Indiana has had 21 students selected as national outstanding leaders who will be listed in the 1995 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, including two Dubois County students.

The students' selection is based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success. They will be among leaders from more than 1,800 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations who are listed in the next Who's Who. The Dubois students include:

Jenny L. Schuetter, daughter of Ralph Jr. and Louise Schuetter, 4650 N. Commissioners Drive, Jasper, Indiana -- a 1992 Jasper High School graduate, she is a junior social work major and a Dean's List student, vice president of the Social Work Club, and has chaired many of its committees; she also is a member of the Newman Club and is an alternate for the Student Government Association; she represented USI on the college Street Relief committee, was on USI's Archibald Eagle Food Closet committee, represented the USI social work program at Bosse High School Career Day, and served on the screening committee seeking an expanded USI faculty to accommodate the Master of Social Work program; she has been a volunteer with Family and Children Services, ARK Crisis Nursery, ECHO Clinic, the Crisis Line, Catholic Charities' Christmas Assistance Program, various walkathons and food pantries, and coordinated games and activities for psychiatric patients, ARK children, and residents in a nursing facility; she has attended numerous professional meetings at local, regional, and national levels.

Beth I. Wollenmann, daughter of Martha J. Wollenmann, 6840 W. Old Road 64, Huntingburg, Indiana -- a 1991 graduate of Marion Heights Academy, she is a junior who plans to apply for the occupational therapy program; she is a University Division senator in the Student Government Association, where she has served on many committees, and is a student mentor; she has been a volunteer with Nova Care and the Rehabilitation Center, and has worked since 1989 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Huntingburg, since 1992 with Historic Southern Indiana Project, and since 1994 as a therapist for a child with cerebral palsy.