Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002, after seven years as the assistant director.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and host of the 2004 and 2009 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, Hall was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his appointment at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotional activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have five sons, Nathan, Garland, Ty, Owen, and Calvin, and daughter Mary Claire.

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. The Ford Center, a 10,000-seat downtown arena, opened in the fall of 2011. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. # University of Southern Indiana Screaming Eagles ABOUT THE PHYSICAL ACTIVITIES CENTER

Physical Activities Center

The Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 31 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

Games of regional and national interest have been played on the center court of the PAC during the past 18 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 2009 men's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI women's basketball team has a 207-72 home record since 1993-94, a .742 winning percentage.

With padded chairback seats, back-supported bleacher seats, and a top-of-the line scoreboard and video board, the Physical Activities Center is one of the top Division II athletic venues in the region.

Eagles looking to be last team standing

The University of Southern Indiana men's basketball team has one goal in 2011-12 and that is to be the last team standing at the end of the season.

To reach this goal, third-year USI Head Coach Rodney Watson has to mesh four returning players and 10 newcomers this fall. The 2011-12 Screaming Eagles need to replace nine players and 76 percent of the last season's offense and 65 percent of last year's rebounding.

The Eagles have been flying high the last two seasons, winning 48 of their 57 games (an .842 winning percentage). Two wins in the first four games of this season will tie them with the Bruce Pearl era as the fastest teams to 50 victories under a new coaching staff.

A key to the Eagles success in 2011-12 will be the foundation of the four returning players. Senior guard Brandon Hogg, who had a breakout season a year ago, is USI's top returning scorer with a career-high 11.1 points per contest and is the Eagles' top returning three-point shooter.

Hogg scored a career-high 25 points in USI's GLVC Tournament semifinal game against Drury.

USI also brings back senior forward Isaac McClure. McClure was USI's top player off the bench last season, averaging 9.7 points per appearance and was second on the squad with 5.9 rebounds per game.

Rounding out the returning players is sophomore guard Lawrence Thomas and sophomore forward Taylor Wischmeier. USI hopes Thomas, who missed last season with a knee injury, can return to the promising form he showed as a freshman in 2009-10.

Wischmeier appeared in all 30 games as a freshman in 2010-11, posting 2.9 points and 1.8 rebounds per game.

The composition of the 10 newcomers is heavy on guards with seven new backcourt players.

Freshman guard/forward Austin Davis is ready for his first court time with the Eagles after redshirting last season. Davis averaged 16.0 points, 10.1 rebounds, and 2.5 blocked shots per game as a senior at Freeport High School in 2009-10.

Six new faces join Davis in the backcourt to help replace the production lost from the departure of last year's senior class.

Guard Kenyon Smith comes to USI after one season at Illinois State where he scored 10 points, dished 10 assists, and grabbed 16 rebounds in 13 games for the Redbirds. The Chicago native also averaged 7.7 minutes per contest.

Prior to his season at Illinois State, Smith played for Lincoln Community College in 2009-10 and helped lead the Lynx to the NJCAA Division II National Championship. He earned All-Conference and All-Region honors after averaging 12.6 points, 6.3 rebounds, and 3.4 assists to begin his collegiate career.

Junior guard Melvyn Little signed with USI after two seasons at Cincinnati State Technical and Community College. He was named first-team All-Ohio Community Athletic Conference and All-NJCAA Region XII after averaging 14.8 points per game in 2010-11. Little also averaged 2.8 steals and 3.5 rebounds per contest for the Surge, who finished 21-10 last season.

During his first season at Cincinnati State Tech, Little averaged 9.7 points, 1.6 rebounds, and 2.6 steals per contest.

Sophomore guard Ben Jones averaged 5.4 points and 2.0 rebounds per game in his only season at Lincoln Land Community College. Jones shot 52 percent (49-95) from the field as a freshman.

Junior guard Travis Jones transferred to USI from Missouri Southern State where he played two seasons with the Lions. He appeared in 16 games as a freshman, dropping in a season-high 11 points against the Nebraska-Omaha. Jones also saw action in 16 contests as a sophomore, posting a career-high 15 points against Missouri S&T.

Senior guard Brandon Hogg averaged a career-high 11.1 points per contest in 2010-11, including a career-best 25 points in USI's GLVC Tournament win over Drury.

Senior forward Isaac McClure was USI's top player off the bench in 2010-11 after averaging 9.7 points and 5.9 rebounds per appearance as a junior.

Watson and the Eagles also added extra depth at the guard position with a pair of freshmen in Evan Brinkmeyer and Kurtis Anthony.

Brinkmeyer committed to USI after accepting a Presidential Scholarship, a full four-year scholarship available to qualified Indiana valedictorians and salutatorians. He was one of four 4.0 students on a Reitz High School team that went 14-9 last year.

The first-team Evansville Courier & Press All-Metro performer averaged 21.8 points per contest as a senior. Brinkmeyer scored 501 points last season, good enough for second in the Panther record book behind former RHS and USI standout Cris Brunson. He also finished fifth on the RHS all-time scoring list with 1,099 points.

Anthony was the point guard for Washington High School, helping the Hatchets to a pair of Indiana Class 3A state championships.

The Eagles round out the newcomers in the frontcourt with the addition of senior center Antwand Roshell, senior forward/center Romarc Lasme, and freshman forward Zach Watson.

Roshell came to USI after one season at Louisiana Tech where he played in 29 games in 2010-11, posting 2.3 points and 2.6 rebounds per appearance. He started his collegiate career at John A. Logan, averaging 4.3 points, 5.7 rebounds, and 1.8 blocks per game as a sophomore.

Lasme transferred to USI after spending 2010-11 at Morehead State. He saw action in 13 games, scoring five points and grabbing 16 rebounds.

Prior to his season at MSU, Lasme played for Laramie County Community College (Cheyenne, Wyoming), where he averaged 13.9 points and 7.3 rebounds per game in 2009.

Zach Watson joins his father at USI after lettering in three sports (basketball, cross country, and track) at Carterville High School in Illinois.

The Eagles tip-off the 2011-12 campaign with an exhibition game at the Big 10 Conference's Purdue before opening a regular season calendar that includes 15 home games at the Physical Activities Center.

The schedule also includes a home-and-home series with NCAA Division II national champion and GLVC rival Bellarmine, along with the home-and-home series with the rest of the GLVC East Division—Kentucky Wesleyan, Indianapolis, Northern Kentucky, Saint Joseph's, Lewis, and Wisconsin-Parkside.

USI's home schedule also includes home dates with Drury and Missouri University S&T from the GLVC West Division. The Eagles are on the road against the West's William Jewell and Rockhurst in 2011-12.

USI, Bellarmine, Drury, KWC, UIndy, and NKU were NCAA Division II Tournament teams a year ago.

Sophomore forward Taylor Wischmeier is one of three letterwinners returning from last season's squad. Wischmeier averaged 2.9 points and 1.8 rebounds per game during his first season of collegiate basketball.

Rodney Watson, Head Coach

Rodney Watson, the ninth head coach in the history of the USI men's basketball team, has had the Screaming Eagles soaring during his two seasons. Watson is 48-9 (.842) overall during his two years, including a 29-7 GLVC record .

The 2010-11 season saw Watson lead the Eagles to a 24-6 overall mark and a second-place finish in the GLVC East Division with a 14-4 performance. USI also placed second in the GLVC Tournament and returned to the NCAA Division II Tournament under Watson's guidance in 2010-11.

The 2010 GLVC Coach of the Year led USI to a 24-3 overall mark and ninth-place finish in the national poll during his first season. The Eagles set a school-record with 23-straight wins and were ranked as high as second in the nation.

The 24 wins were the most by a first-year USI head coach. The 2009-10 squad also featured Basketball Times Division II Player of the Year and All-American Jamar Smith.

Watson took the helm of the Eagles after 21 seasons at Southern Illinois University. He was the associate head coach during his last two seasons after spending 19 seasons as an assistant coach under head coaches Rich Herrin, Bruce Weber, Matt Painter, and Chris Lowery.

During Watson's tenure at SIU, the Salukis won 11 Missouri Valley Conference championships and qualified for nine NCAA Tournaments and six NITs. SIU also compiled a 430-237 record, a .645 winnings percentage, and was ranked in the top 15 nationally in scoring defense four times in the last five seasons.

Watson helped direct five Salukis to MVC Player of the Year honors; four to Newcomer of the Year awards; five to Freshman of the Year accolades; and nine to Defensive Player of the Year honors. The Salukis had 30 players earn All-MVC honors (18 first team and 12 second) during Watson's 21 seasons.

Soaring through years of success

During the last 31 years, the University of Southern Indiana men's basketball program has become a force in the Great Lakes Valley Conference, the Great Lakes Region, and at the national level.

Since the beginning of the GLVC in 1978, the Screaming Eagles have become one of the premier teams in the league, winning 12 regular-season titles in the GLVC. USI's teams also have featured four GLVC Coaches of the Year and six conference Players of the Year.

Starting with the 1992-93 team, the Eagles have made their mark on the Great Lakes Region and the NCAA Division II. USI has won 20 or more games 16 times in the last 18 years.

The Eagles stepped into the national spotlight in 1993-94 when they made their first trip to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight and the NCAA Division II Championship game.

The loss in the 1994 championship game propelled USI back into the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1995, and on to its first-ever national championship.

USI has been ranked number one nationally at one point during the season in eight of the last 16 years. In 10 of the last 18 years, USI has advanced to the NCAA Division II Sweet 16.

The University of Southern Indiana men's basketball tradition got its start in 1965 when the school, then known as Indiana State University-Evansville, sponsored basketball as a club sport. USI's first official year as a varsity men's basketball team would come five years later when it changed its nickname from the Spartans to the Screaming Eagles. Pictured above is USI's 1970-71 team, the first varsity athletic team in school history.
