

ISUE UNIVERSITY NOTES

October 5, 1970

Notes for faculty and staff will be distributed on Monday of each week, if news items are available. Please give notices which should appear in a particular issue of UNIVERSITY NOTES to Mrs. Duffie Barton prior to 4:00 p. m. on Friday.

1. Indiana State University's Homecoming Game

At 2:00 p. m., ISU meets Ball State University in the rivalry for the coveted Victory Bell, Saturday, October 10, 1970. Evansville students who wish to attend this game take their I.D. cards and go to the Southwest side window marked "Will Call" and they will be able to get tickets to the game for $1.00 instead of the regular price of $4.00.

2. Humanities Division Colloquium

On Monday, October 5, the Humanities division will host a panel discussion on "professional ethics." Five panel members will discuss various questions related to the need for and content of a code of professional ethics, e.g., Is there a special need today for a statement of professional ethics for university faculties? What historical factors underlie and have shaped contemporary concern about "conduct" on the campus? If a statement of professional ethics is needed, who and by what procedure should it be formulated? If a statement of professional ethics is needed, what should its content be? The panel discussion will also include a review of the work to date for the ad hoc committee currently working on a policy statement concerning the conduct of faculty in relation to campus dissent. The panel members for this session are: Dean Rice, Dr. Fairless, Dr. Mussard, Dr. Bigham, and Col. Wardner. There will be discussion and questions from the floor.

All faculty and staff members are invited and urged to attend this and subsequent Colloquia. PLACE: Room 256, TIME: 4:00-5:30 p. m.

3. Long Distance Telephone Calls

For all long distance phone calls placed in Indiana, please check for SUVON connection before making such calls. Many Indiana cities can be reached through the Suvon System without charge.

Because there has been much difficulty in identifying who makes various telephone calls, please be sure to fill out a long distance call slip for each long distance call placed and forward it to the campus switchboard operator.

4. Student I.D. Cards

Please announce to your classes that all students who have not picked up their I.D. Cards to please pick them up at the Registrar's Office as soon as possible, and avoid a penalty.

5. Typing at Home

Mrs. Robert Schuttler, 867-2167, is interested in obtaining typing in her home. She will write dissertations or any copying needed.

7. Housing

Please announce to students needing housing to please contact Mrs. Barton in Room 111. She has a listing of apartments, rooms, and houses available.

8. Continuing the Lunch Question at ISUE

There have been several new suggestions regarding a place to eat lunch for ISUE personnel. On September 21 a list was included in University Notes. However, this week during the Westside Nut Festival, Franklin Street is alive with delicious food, with sidewalk stands and tables. A fun place to eat and meet your friends. If you have never attended one of these festivals you will not want to miss this one.

9. Faculty Council Meeting

The Faculty Council will meet Monday, October 12, 1970, in Room 100, at 8:00 A. M.
