

Vol III

EVANSVILLE CAMPUS NOTES
ISUE

No. 3

September 30, 1968

Notes for faculty and staff will be distributed on Monday of each week, if news items are available. Please give notices which should appear in a particular issue of CAMPUS NOTES to the office of Dean Rice or Mrs. Barton prior to 4:00 p.m. on Thursday.

1. United Fund

Some questions have been raised by faculty and staff about the extent of United Fund giving in the past. United Fund indicates that the range of giving at ISUE last year was from $5.00 to $80.00, with the average being slightly over $25.00.

Return your white pledge card and your pink payroll deduction card, (if you choose this method) and your payment (if you are making payment at this time) in an envelope to Judy Atteberry, Science Department Secretary, by Friday, October 7, 1968.

If you are unable or choose not to make a pledge, please return your white pledge card.

2. Evansville Philharmonic Season

Thanks to the Richard Meier Foundation, the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra are offering student tickets at the price of $3.50. The first concerts are October 13 and 14, starring Phillis Curtain. Season tickets and seats are still available, and the price for adults are from $24.00 to $12.00 for the seven concerts, October through April. For further information call 424-8241.

3. Student Health Service

Mrs. Jo Ann Boullie, R.N. has an office in the basement of the West Building under the Library. She will be available to render those services to students necessary for maintenance of good mental and physical health. Administer First Aid; Counsel students with problems deterrent to good mental health; Keep the official Health Forms required for each student enrolled at the University, and when additional medical care is required she will call the Emergency Squad and send to hospital.

4. Young Democrats Meeting

Please announce to your students that the Young Democrats have invited Judge Kent to speak. He will be in the gymnasium at ISUE, October 2, 1968, at 2:00 p. m. We would like for all students and faculty to attend the meeting if possible. (Signed) Jim Jett, Young Democrats Club.

5. Student Housing

We still have listings for rooms and apartments for students attending ISUE. Please notify any student needing a place to live to please contact Mrs Barton.

6. Faculty Record

Those members of the faculty who have not turned in their Faculty Record Form please do so as soon as possible so it can be forwarded to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

7. Office of Registrar

Last day to drop a class and receive an automatic "N" grade for the course will be October 9.

8. Football Game - ISU vs UE, October 26, (Band Day)

President Rankin has extended an invitation to the faculty and their wives and/or husbands to be his guests at the ISU vs U. of Evansville football game, Saturday, October 26, in Terre Haute, as well as at either a luncheon preceding the game, or a buffet following the game. Please advise Dean or Mrs. Barton which you prefer. Majority rules. We shall provide bus transportation for those attending the game (bus fare free).

Please return note indicating whether you plan to go to the game and if you desire going in the bus or prefer to drive your own car.

9. Student Counsellor

There are still a few faculty members who are not cognizant of the service offered by Mrs. Maxine Nesbitt. Each Thursday she will be in office 25-A to counsel any student you may have in your class who seems to be having difficulty adjusting to college life, or identifying vocational objectives. If the student does not want to see her here she will be available from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p. m. every day in the Indiana Employment Security Office, telephone number 425-4381.

10. Area Heads and Administrative Staff Meeting

There will be a Combined Area Heads and Administrative Staff meeting Wednesday, October 2, at 1:30 p. m. in room 26. Mr. Eric von Fuhrmann will be Chairman this week. Please send items for the agenda to the Chairman prior to the meeting.

11. Faculty Council Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Evansville Faculty Council, Tuesday, October 1, 1968, at 3:30 p. m. in Room 37.

12. STUDENT PARKING

The Police have been notified by residents and business establishments in the area to tow cars away. Please advise your students not to park in business lots nor in the driveways of residents in the neighborhood.