The Student Housing Association at the University of Southern Indiana is hosting the annual Midnight Breakfast beginning at 11 p.m. on Thursday, December 5 in McDonald West Recreation Room. In years past this breakfast has attracted more than 250 students from housing; it is held the week before finals to help students relieve stress that may be building with final examinations approaching. Final exam week begins Monday, December 9. The fall semester ends Saturday, December 14.

To get to the McDonald West Recreation Room, turn north at the three way stop on Clarke Lane and follow the road to a one-story building in which the recreation room is located. (It is the only one-story building in the complex.)
