

BUILT FOR EXCELLENCE

...a modern, technology-enhanced ENVIRONMENT

USI is a vibrant campus with modern facilities and an exciting pace of growth. Since the first campus building (Wright Administration Building) opened in 1969, the face of the campus has continued to change, providing the most up-to-date facilities for academics, housing, and student life. Facility development at USI keeps students and faculty equipped with the resources they need, including the best in advanced teaching and learning technology for classrooms and laboratories.

Computer Services

Computer labs are located throughout campus and in the housing areas. Wireless service is available in all main buildings and the surrounding courtyards.

All residence life areas are equipped with network jacks for Internet access. Wireless network also is available throughout the housing areas.

Eagle Access Card

Students use the Eagle Access Card as an identification card and as an all-in-one card for student services such as library privileges, meal plans, vending and copy machines, and access to the Recreation and Fitness Center.

MyUSI

MyUSI is a portal to Web services. Students check e-mail, register online, view their grades, and access other services through this secure Web site.

ADMINISTRATION

Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002. He moved into the position after spending seven years as the assistant director of Athletics. He is USI's second director of Athletics.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and host of the 2004 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, no one did it better in the GLVC than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his tenure at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotion activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have two sons, Nathan and Garland, and a daughter, Mary Claire.

ABOUT USI

men's basketball

Location

Founded in 1965, the University of Southern Indiana is located in Evansville, the state's third-largest city. From its picturesque site on the Ohio River, Evansville is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan areas of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

Academic Life

The University enrolls 10,025 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. Ten graduate degree programs also are available.

Campus Life

Beyond the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Science and Education Center

Recreation and Fitness Center

Residence Life

USI offers two kinds of housing. One is the conventional apartment and the other is suite-style housing in a residence hall. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor recreational areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven overwhelmingly popular with students. A meal plan is available in the University Center. More than 3,000 students live on campus.

Financial Assistance

USI is an affordable higher-education institution and some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial aid. Many others qualify for need-based financial aid packages, including grants, loans, and jobs.

ABOUT EVANSVILLE

EVANSVILLE, Indiana

...A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. Roberts Stadium and the Victory Theatre attract students to concerts by entertainers like Nelly, Aerosmith, Kenny Chesney, Kid Rock, and Josh Groban. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a wonderful view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville's coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and places to eat are plentiful on both sides of the Lloyd Expressway. The Eastland Mall area on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI's suburban location in the rolling hills of western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.

Built for Excellence

The University of Southern Indiana men's basketball team starts the year with many goals, but the first is to continue to build upon its tradition of excellence.

USI has been the definition of the word consistent in the building of its legacy the last 14 years. The Screaming Eagles have posted 14 straight 20-win seasons, won 25 or more games 11 times since 1992-93, won at least 27 games three straight years, appeared in the NCAA Division II Tournament 13 of the last 14 years, and advanced to the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship game nine times since 1994. The Eagles won the NCAA Division II National Championship in 1995 and reached the championship game in 1994 and 2004.

The 2006-07 season will mark USI's sixth season under the direction of Head Coach Rick Herdes. Herdes has won more games in his first five seasons at the helm than any coach in the history of the USI men's basketball program and is the second among active Division II coaches in winning percentage. He also is fourth among active coaches in all three NCAA divisions in winning percentage.

Last year, Herdes' squad was 27-7 overall, won the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic, tied for first in the GLVC West Division with a 14-5 league mark, and appeared in the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional, advancing to the regional finals.

The outlook for the Eagles is bright despite the loss of first team All-American Chris Thompson to graduation. USI returns nine letter winners, including three starters.

Leading the way is senior guard Melvin Hall and senior forward Geoff Van Winkle, who combined for 150 of USI's 233 three-point field goals last season. Hall, who set the USI single-season record with 82 long-range bombs in his first season, is the Eagles' top returning scorer with 13.2 points per game (ppg) and is a preseason honorable mention

All-American by Street & Smith's College Basketball and Division II Bulletin, while Van Winkle, who needs just 22 three-pointers to set the USI career mark, averaged 8.8 ppg in 2005-06.

In addition to Van Winkle in the front-court, USI returns senior forward/center Keith Christmas, senior forward Nick Brooks, senior guard/forward Marty Wise, and sophomore forward Mike Kalicak.

Christmas started 31 of USI's 34 games at center last year and averaged 7.4 ppg and was second on the team with 5.6 rebounds per game (rpg). Brooks tied Christmas in the scoring column with 7.4 ppg, while Wise followed Christmas with 5.5 rpg.

Wise also averaged 6.8 ppg and was second with 3.3 assists per game (apg).

USI also has additional depth with the return of freshman forward George Cunningham from injury. Cunningham averaged 2.5 ppg and 1.3 rpg in four games last season before suffering a season-ending knee injury.

Sophomore guard Alex Gravelle comes back for 2006-07 to join Hall in the back-court. Gravelle saw action in 20 games off the bench as a freshman, averaging 1.6 ppg

Returning after redshirt seasons are freshmen guards Brent Owen and Drew Glover.

In the Rankings

USI, which is ranked in the top 10 of at least two preseason publications heading into the 2006-07 season, has been ranked NUMBER ONE in the nation at least once in eight of the last 12 seasons.

2006-07 OUTLOOK

Seniors Melvin Hall (left), Geoff Van Winkle (middle), and Marty Wise (right) are expected to make major contributions in 2006-07. Hall is a preseason All-American after setting a school record for three-pointers in a single season, while Van Winkle needs just 22 three-pointers to become USI's all-time leader. Wise averaged 6.8 points, 5.5 rebounds, and 3.3 assists per game in 2005-06 and gives the Screaming Eagles flexibility in both the backcourt and frontcourt.

The Eagles add six new players to the roster for 2006-07, a quartet of backcourt players and a pair of frontcourt players.

A pair of transfers—junior Kenny Page, an honorable mention NJCAA All-American from Kankakee Community College, and junior Kenny Love, a Division I transfer from the University of Oregon—will lead the way at the guard position. Page averaged 12.8 ppg and 5.2 apg last season and helped KCC to a 46-19 record over the last two seasons.

Love played in 20 games for Oregon in 2004-05, averaging 1.1 ppg and dishing out 14 assists. He played for Casper College (Casper, Wyoming) prior to transferring to Oregon, averaging 14 points, four rebounds, and three assists as a freshman.

Also joining the backcourt are junior Saul Woods and freshman Chris Smoot. Woods is a transfer from Illinois Central College, while Smoot makes his collegiate debut after playing for Hargrave Military Academy last year.

A combination of youth and experience best describe the two new players in the frontcourt.

Senior forward/center Rashard Sullivan, a transfer from the University of Arkansas, will be a graduate student at USI this year.

Sullivan played 84 games during three seasons for the Razorbacks, averaging 2.0 ppg and 3.1 rpg.

Indiana All-Star forward/center Brandon Hopf begins his collegiate career with the Eagles this fall. Hopf, who led Forest Park High School to two straight Indiana Class 2A State Championships, was a second team All-State and Southwest Indiana the Player of the Year after averaging 16.9 ppg and 7.9 rpg as a senior.

A title defense is the first order of business when USI tips off the 2006-07 campaign. The Eagles will be making a second straight appearance in the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic November 10-12 and are trying to become the first team to win back-to-back championships.

Pairings for the Tip-Off Classic were pre-announced this year with USI scheduled to play North Georgia College and State University, Pace University, and the University of Alaska-Fairbanks in the three-day tournament.

The Eagles open the 2006-07 home campaign by hosting regional rival Wayne State University on November 15. The Eagles and Warriors match-up for a second time December 20 when they play in the GLIAC/GLVC Challenge at Wayne State. USI also plays Ferris State University December 21 in the challenge.

Along with Wayne State and Ferris State on the non-conference schedule, USI hosts Tiffin University, Judson College, and the University of Illinois-Springfield in November; and Glenville State College and Harris-Stowe State University in December.

USI opens the 2006-07 GLVC schedule at home December 2 when the Panthers of Kentucky Wesleyan College make their first visit to the Physical Activities Center since January of 2005.

The Eagles' conference schedule also includes home-and-home series against Elite Eight participant Southern Illinois University Edwardsville as well as NCAA Division II Tournament teams Drury University and Quincy University. USI plays defending GLVC champion Saint Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Indiana, in December.

Northern Kentucky University also will appear at the PAC for the first time since the 2004-05 season on January 20.

USI Head Coach Rick Herdes

Rick Herdes (Noble, Illinois) has USI basketball fans looking forward to each March. Herdes has steered the Screaming Eagles to four straight NCAA Division II Tournament appearances and a 129-34 (.791) overall record during his five years.

Herdes also ranks second among active NCAA Division II head coaches in winning percentage as well as fourth among active coaches from all three divisions.

The 2005-06 version of Herdes' Screaming Eagles was 27-7 overall, tied for first in the GLVC West Division, won the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic, and advanced to the NCAA Division II Great Lakes Region Championship for the third time in four seasons. He also directed the team to its 14th straight 20-win season and the fourth straight 25-win season.

The 27 wins in 2005-06 has USI ranked seventh among NCAA Division I, II, and III men's basketball programs with 25.7 victories per season since 1992-93.

In 2004-05, Herdes' Eagles won the program's first-ever GLVC Tournament championship and the ninth conference regular-season championship. USI's 17-game winning streak was the longest in the history of the program, while the 18-2 league record tied for first all-time in the history of the program and third all-time in the GLVC for victories in a year.

During 2003-04, Herdes directed the Screaming Eagles back to Division II's center stage as the NCAA II Elite Eight finalists and the Great Lakes Regional Champions. He was named the Division II Bulletin Coach of the Month for December when he led the Screaming Eagles to an 11-0 record last year and to the program's seventh NUMBER ONE ranking in 10 seasons. Herdes' Eagles also finished the season one win short of the school record with a 28-7 overall mark.

In his second season at the helm of the men's basketball program, Herdes took the Screaming Eagles back to the big dance and to within three-point range of the NCAA Division II Elite Eight.

Herdes directed the Eagles to a 25-7 overall record, a 16-4 mark in the GLVC, and the Great Lakes Regional finals after defeating No. 1-ranked Michigan Tech University in the semi-finals. The squad, which also boasted an honorable mention All-American, two All-Region performers, and three All-GLVC players, advanced in the Sweet 16 of the national tournament for the seventh time in nine seasons.

In his first season at the helm, Herdes had a record-tying year. The Eagles posted a 22-8 overall record, tying the USI record for wins by a first-year coach. He also led the Eagles to a fourth-place finish in the Great Lakes Valley Conference with a 14-6 mark, advancing to the semifinals of the league's post-season tournament.

COACHING STAFF

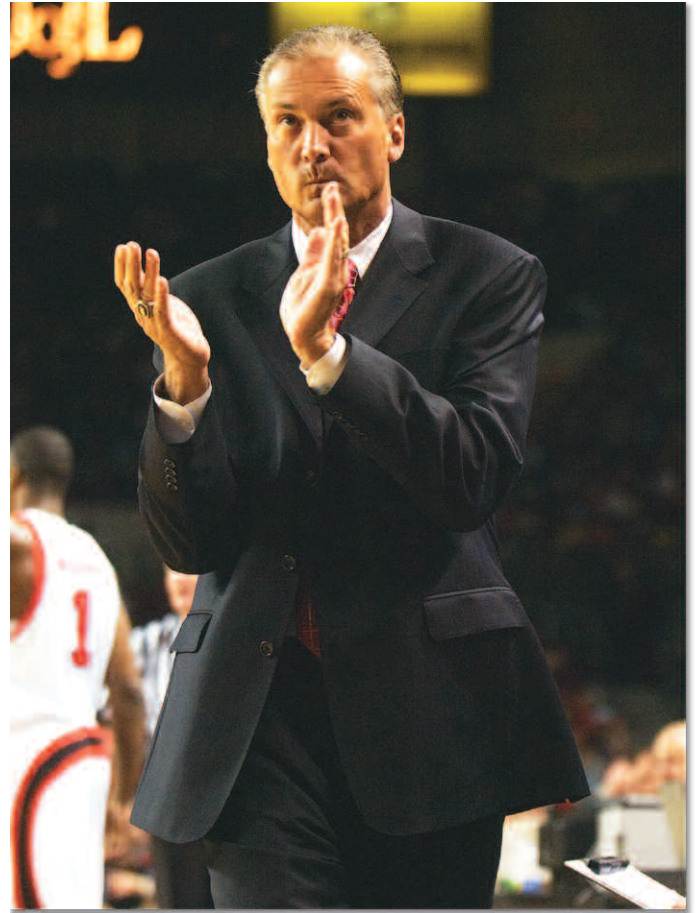

Herdes had been with USI for nine seasons as an associate head coach and assistant coach before being tapped for the top position in 2001. He is widely known as one of the best recruiters and top coaches in Division II basketball. The Eagles' successes since Herdes' arrival reflect his abilities.

In his nine seasons as an assistant at USI, Herdes helped direct the Eagles to a 231-46 overall record (.833), the 1995 NCAA II National Championship, the 1994 NCAA II National Championship game, three Great Lakes Valley Conference Championships, nine consecutive NCAA II Tournament appearances, and nine straight 20-win seasons. USI has averaged over 25 victories a season since 1993-94.

USI's point man on the recruiting trail, Herdes brought in nearly all of the key players who contributed to USI becoming a national power in Division II. Some of those key recruits were two-time NABC/NCAA Division II Player of the Year Stan Gouard, All-American and GLVC Player of the Year Chad Gilbert, Division II Bulletin All-American Jeremy Pearson, and 2001 first team All-American Derrick Lyons.

Herdes came to USI from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where he was an assistant from 1986 to 1992. While at SIUE, Herdes helped Head Coach Larry Graham lead the Cougars to a 127-56 (.694) record and three NCAA tournament appearances. He was responsible for coordinating recruiting and was the academic advisor to the basketball team and director of summer camps and fundraising events.

In 20 collegiate basketball seasons, the programs Herdes has been involved with have a .782 winning percentage (487-136).

In 1991 and 1992 at SIUE, he was the head coach for the Illinois Prairie State Games, Southern Open Men's Division. His 1992 team received the silver medal.

Prior to working at SIUE, Herdes was an assistant basketball coach and physical education instructor at Lawrenceville (Illinois) High School, where he worked for former Indiana University assistant coach Ron Felling. LHS was the Illinois Class A State Champion in 1982 and 1983 and had a 68-game winning streak. Herdes was inducted into the Illinois High School Athletic Association Hall of Fame in 1998.

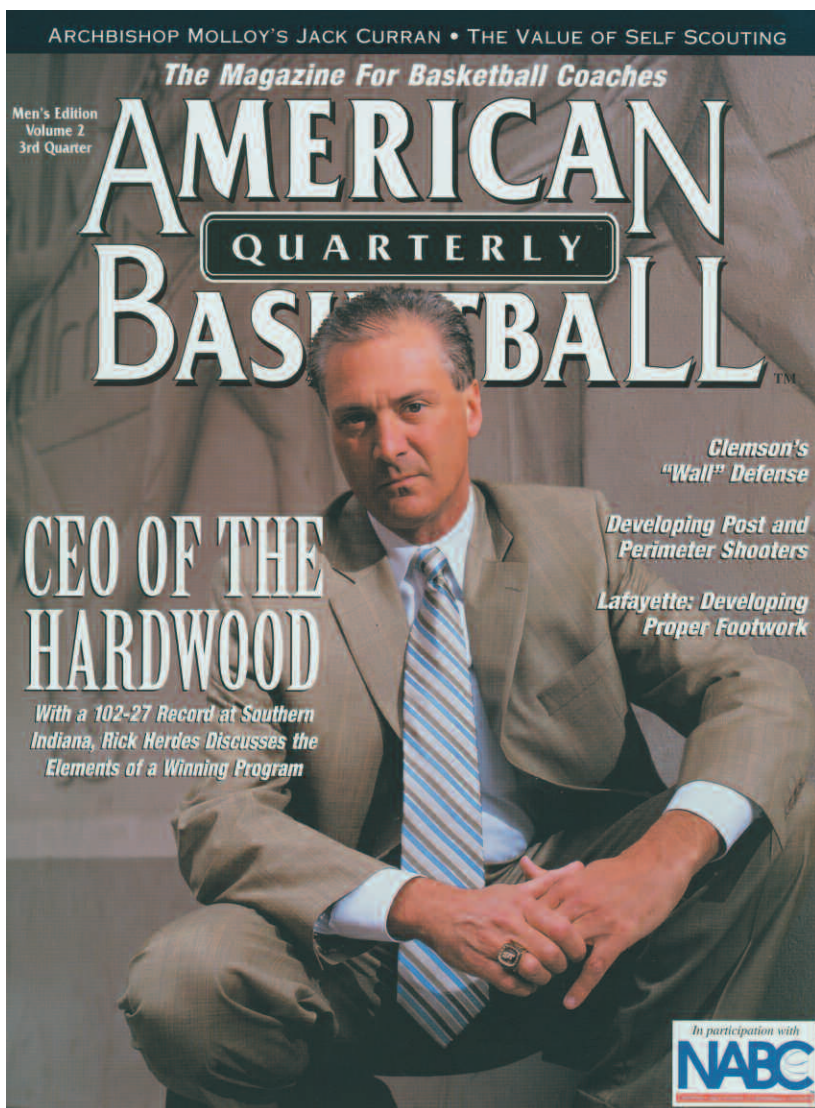

Herdes graduated from Graceland College in 1980 with a bachelor's degree in education. As a player, he led Lincoln Trail College to a ninth-place finish in the national tournament and helped lead Graceland to its first-ever appearance in the NAIA Tournament.

Herdes and his wife Sarah reside in Evansville with his daughter Taylor (13) and son Connor (10).

During Rick Herdes' 14-year association with USI, the Screaming Eagles have had 17 players enter the pro ranks.

In the Spotlight

The University of Southern Indiana men's basketball team is consistently in the Evansville media spotlight. With Head Coach Rick Herdes at the helm, the Screaming Eagles also have been getting recognition on the national level.

Herdes was recently featured in American Basketball Quarterly.

He was named the national coach of the month by the Division II Bulletin in December 2003 after leading the Eagles to an 11-0 start and the program's seventh NUMBER ONE ranking in 10 years.

On the local level, Herdes and the Eagles are covered by three television stations as well as multiple radio stations, including two that broadcast USI games over the airwaves and on the Internet. The Eagles, who are covered by numerous newspapers, also have their home games carried on the local cable system.

In 2006-07, the Eagles will have all 15 home games broadcast on television. Coach Herdes also has a local radio show as well as a weekly television show.

Eagles on Air

In addition to USI basketball games being broadcast live by WYFX FM 106.7 and WSWI AM 820, Head Coach Rick Herdes also has a television show and a radio show.

- Rick Herdes on Basketball is broadcast live every Monday night during the season from Turoni's on Main Street and can be heard on WYFX FM 106.7.
- The Rick Herdes Show is a weekly television show that recaps USI basketball and gives fans an inside look into the USI men's basketball program. The show can be seen every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. on Insight Cable Channel 437 and Sigecom Cable Channel 111.

Note: All USI home games will be televised in 2006-07. The games will be broadcast on tape delay on Insight Cable Channel 437 and Sigecom Cable Channel 111 following the conclusion of each game.

Head Coach Rick Herdes, the Division II Bulletin Coach of the Month for December 2003, has been a part of 487 victories during his collegiate coaching career.

Herdes has had a hand in over half of the USI men's basketball program's 679 victories. He has helped the Eagles to 360 victories in 14 seasons with the USI men's basketball program.

In 2003-04, Herdes led the Screaming Eagles back to the NCAA II National Championship game for the first time in 10 years. He led the Eagles to their first-ever GLVC Tournament title in 2004-05 after winning the GLVC regular-season title with a conference mark of 18-2.

He has led the Eagles to three NCAA II Regional Championship games and four straight NCAA II Tournament appearances. He has averaged more than 25 wins per year in his first five seasons at the helm of the USI men's basketball program.

USI Assistant Coach Marc Hostetter

Marc Hostetter '98 returns for his sixth season as an assistant coach to Head Coach Rick Herdes.

Hostetter's third season was highlighted with USI's return to the NCAA II Elite Eight. The 2003-04 appearance in the championship marked the third time that Hostetter and Herdes have appeared in the title game and Hostetter's first as a coach.

Hostetter rejoined the USI program after spending two seasons as an assistant coach to Mike Leeder at Longwood College in Virginia. Hostetter helped lead the Lancers to a 23-8 overall record, Longwood's first-ever Carolinas-Virginia Athletic Conference championship, and an NCAA Division II Tournament appearance.

"Marc has the complete package, both as a person and a coach," said Coach Herdes. "I recruited Marc to USI, and his knowledge of the system and University as well as the league and Division II basketball is a great asset to our program."

"Marc has prepared himself to be a head coach and a good one," Herdes concluded.

The Lyons, Indiana, native returns to the USI team he helped lead to the 1995 NCAA Division II National Championship and a 105-17 record in his four seasons as a point guard. During Hostetter's four seasons, the Screaming Eagles were ranked number one nationally at some point during the season in three of four seasons.

After his playing days, Hostetter joined the staff of former USI Head Coach Bruce Pearl for two seasons as an assistant coach. During his two seasons on the bench, USI finished as the GLVC Tournament runners-up twice, while making a pair of NCAA II Tournament Sweet 16 appearances.

A 1998 USI graduate, Hostetter and his wife, the former Nikki Jordan '98, have a son, Leo (3).

Aaron Brothers Graduate Assistant Coach

Aaron Brothers is in his third year as a graduate assistant coach for the USI basketball program.

Brothers, who is working on a Master of Business Administration degree, comes to USI from Indiana Wesleyan University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and was a member of the men's basketball program. He completed his collegiate career as IWU's third all-time leading scorer.

Prior to attending IWU, Brothers was a two-sport letter winner at Memorial High School in Evansville.

Brent Hancock Student Assistant Coach

Brent Hancock is in his third season as a student strength and conditioning coach for the USI basketball program.

Hancock, an exercise science major, came to USI from North White High School in Monon, Indiana, lettering in basketball, football, and golf. He was an All-White County defensive back during his three years on the football team and an All-Conference performer on the golf team at NWHS.

COACHING STAFF

USI Assistant Coach Robert Ward

Robert Ward (Murray, Kentucky) begins his third season as an assistant coach to Head Coach Rick Herdes.

Ward came to USI after five years in the high school ranks at Hamilton Ross High School in Hamilton, Ohio, and Bourbon County High School in Paris, Kentucky. He was the Region 10 "Coach of the Year" in 2000-01 at Bourbon County and led the Colonels to a 25-7 record and a top-10 ranking in 2001-02.

During a coaching career that spans four decades, Ward has been an NCAA Division I assistant coach at Murray State University (1976-78), Pan American University (1982-84), Arkansas State University (1984-87), and the University of Tennessee-Martin (1991-99). He also was an assistant coach under GLVC legend Joe Reibel at Bellarmine University when the Knights earned a share of the conference title and appeared in the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament.

"Bobby is a tireless worker with a wealth of basketball knowledge," Herdes said. "He is a great recruiter who has nationwide contacts at the junior college and high school levels."

Prior to his tenure at Bellarmine, Ward was the head coach at Southeast Community College (1980-82) and Union University (1987-89).

Ward graduated from Murray State with a bachelor's degree in physical education and health education and a master's degree in education. He has a daughter, Clare, and a son, Samuel.

Jay McCulloh
Student Assistant Coach

Jay McCulloh enters his first season as a student assistant coach for the USI men's basketball program after playing his senior season under Head Coach Rick Herdes in 2005-06.

McCulloh, a business management major, played in 13 games during his senior season. He transferred to USI prior to the 2005-06 season from Oakland City University.

Prior to attending OCU, McCulloh attended Lansing Community College where he averaged 2.8 points and 1.5 rebounds as a freshman as well as 1.4 points and 1.3 rebounds as a sophomore.

USI and the University of Evansville played each other for the first time on November 6, 2004. The two teams played the exhibition in front of a sellout crowd of 12,441 fans at Roberts Stadium. The new rivalry resumes November 4, 2006, when the two teams meet again in an exhibition contest.

Roberts Stadium has been the site of the last eight GLVC Tournaments and the Screaming Eagles have appeared in the title game four times during that span, winning in 2005. The 1999-2000 title game was played in front of 9,402 fans, while the 2000-01 game was played in front of a crowd of 9,627 fans.

2005-06 HIGHLIGHTS

men's basketball

Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic Champions

The Screaming Eagles became the first-ever team to win the prestigious Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic for a second time with their title in last season's tournament. USI also won the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic in 1997 and finished third in 2001.

ELITE FOUNDATION

Soaring through years of success

1995 NCAA II National Champions

During the last 27 years, the University of Southern Indiana men's basketball program has become a force in the Great Lakes Valley Conference, the Great Lakes Region, and at the national level.

Since the beginning of the GLVC in 1979, the Screaming Eagles have become one of the premier teams in the league, winning nine regular-season titles in the GLVC. USI's teams also have featured three GLVC Coaches of the Year and five conference Players of the Year.

2004 NCAA II National Finalist

Starting with the 1992-93 USI team, the Eagles have made their mark on the Great Lakes Region and the NCAA Division II. USI has won 20 or more games 15 times in the last 17 years, including the last 14 seasons, and averaged more than 25 victories a year since 1993-94.

The Eagles stepped into the national spotlight in 1993-94 when they made their first trip to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight and the NCAA Division II Championship game.

1994 NCAA II National Finalist

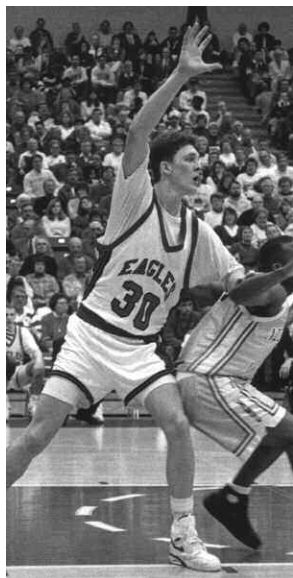

The loss in the 1994 championship game propelled USI back into the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1995, and on to its first-ever national championship.

USI has been ranked number one nationally at one point during the season in eight of the last 12 years and has been to the NCAA Division II Sweet 16 nine times in the last 12 years.

ABOUT THE PAC

men's basketball

Physical Activities Center

The newly renovated Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 27 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the setting for many games of regional and national interest during the past 12 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI men's basketball team has a 342-57 home record since 1980, a .857 winning percentage.

In 2006-07, the PAC will feature three new wood courts, including a new center court design that incorporates USI's athletic logo. The renovation also features a new scoreboard, new portable goals, and new seating. Among the changes to the seating are padded chairback seats and back-supported bleacher seats.
