Bosse senior to be awarded scholarship

The University of Southern Indiana Society for Arts and Humanities has selected Melissa Miller as the recipient of the 1999 Robert W. Carithers Scholarship for Arts and Humanities. The scholarship will be presented by members of the scholarship committee on Tuesday, May 25, at Benjamin Bosse High School's Honor's Day ceremony. Miller is the fifth student to be awarded the $1,500 scholarship. She is a senior at Bosse High School and plans to attend USI this fall as an English major.

The Robert W. Carithers Scholarship for Arts and Humanities is awarded to a high school senior who has applied to and been accepted by USI to a major in one of the areas of discipline within the School of Liberal Arts. The student must have a 3.0 grade point average from high school and must submit a portfolio of work for consideration.

The scholarship was established in 1997 in honor of the first chair of the Society. The USI Society for Arts and Humanities was formed in 1986 to enrich the lives of students and to provide ways of communication and support between the community and the University's various arts and humanities activities
