

USI SCHEDULE

OCTOBER 1 - 16

— Friday, October 1 —

Business Education Conference - "Focus '93: Strategies for Effective Teaching" is the theme for the seventh annual USI Business Education Conference to be held at 8:30 a.m. in UC350. It is sponsored by USI and South-Western Publishing Company. Topics to be covered are "Keyboarding Opportunities for Tech Prep" by Al Roan, South-Western product manager, and "Creating an Effective Learning Cycle" by Dan Durbin, Excel, Inc., consultant.

(For information, contact Dr. Larry W. Arp, chairperson, USI Administrative and Decision Sciences and Business Education Department, 812/465-7030.)

— Saturday, October 2 —

AIDS Walkathon - The AIDS Resource Group of Evansville will sponsor a walkathon at USI. Registration is slated at 8 a.m. on the UC Mall. For information, contact April Mitchell, a USI graduate now with Media Mix ad agency, 473-0600, or the AIDS Group, 421-0059.

Super Saturday - The fall Super Saturday for Kids program -- "Land Water, and Sea," exploring the world of physical science -- will begin at 9 a.m. in Forum II. Age-group activities will include hands-on projects such as earthquake detectors, forming crystals, and mock-hovercraft experiments. Classes are available for 4-year-olds through sixth grade; the $30 registration fee includes lunch. For reservations, call Extended Services, 812/464-1989.

(For information, call Ginger Ramsden, coordinator of USI Children's Programs, 812/464-1863.)

Historic New Harmony - A Harmonist bake oven demonstration will be available from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; the fourth annual Ghostwalk storytelling concert will be held

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:

Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/465-1956

at 8 p.m. at the Double Log Cabin. The 90-minute program will feature Jeanetta Traylor of Madisonville, Kentucky, an award-winning storyteller, and Tim Rutherford of New Harmony, folklorist who collects true stories of hauntings and spectral appearances. Tickets will be available at The Atheneum/Visitor Center: $4 for adults, $3 for children age 12 and under. Bring your own lawn chairs or blankets for seating.

(For information, contact Tim Rutherford, The Center for Folklife, 812/682-3730.)

— Tuesday, October 5 —

Fall film series - My Favorite Wife (1940) Director: Garson Kanin; cast: Irene Dunne, Cary Grant, Randolph Scott. A witty comedy about a woman believed to be dead who returns from a deserted island on the day her husband remarries.

(The film will be shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; it is free and open to the public. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

Respiratory Care Week - A special program will be held at 6 p.m. in the UC Dining Room, in the USI observance of Respiratory Care Week. The program is open to anyone interested in respiratory care; refreshments will be served.

(For information, contact Robert W. Hooper, coordinator of the USI Respiratory Therapy Program, 812/464-1751.)

— Thursday, October 7 —

Depression Screening Day - A depression

information and screening program will be held at 9:30 a.m. in the University Conference Center as part of the third annual National Depression Screening Day. The program -- free and open to students, faculty, staff, and the community -- is designed to educate people about depression and to bring those suffering from it into the health-care system. There will be a short lecture, a video, a written self-rating scale, and a brief screening interview with a mental health professional.

(For information, contact the Mental Health Association, 426-2640.)

Media Censorship Panel - The USI Communications Department will sponsor a panel discussion on media censorship at 6 p.m. in Forum I, with the controversial NYPD Blue television series to be the featured topic. Dr. Dal Herring, Communications Department chairperson, said the panel of USI professors will discuss internal censorship by the news media, including action by WTVW-Channel 7 officials regarding the pilot program in the series. Dr. Herring said they have a copy of the pilot, obtained outside the city, and will show excerpts during the program.

(For information, contact Dr. Herring, 812/465-7079.)

Miss Julie opens at USI Theatre
- see separate item

— Saturday, October 9 —

APB Parents Day - The annual Activities Programming Board Parents Day will get under way at 10 a.m. on the UC Mall. The student organization which coordinates special programming for students has plans for a magician, a variety of games, food, and other attractions.

(more)

(For information, contact Michelle Tenbarge, Student Life secretary, 812/465-7037.)

— Sunday, October 10 —

Greater Evansville College Fair - The Greater Evansville College Fair will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Physical Activities Center. Some 90 colleges and universities are expected to have representatives on hand to discuss their institutions with the 3,000 Tri-State high school students expected to attend the 1993 conference.

(For information, contact USI Enrollment Services, 812/464-1765.)

— Tuesday, October 12 —

Fall film series - Henry V (1945) Director: Laurence Olivier; cast: Olivier, Robert Newton, Leslie Banks, Renee Asherson, Esmond Knight, Felix Aylmer, Leo Genn. This is the classic film version of Shakespeare's play, done in rich color and framed by an authentic recreation of a typical performance in London's Globe Theater. Olivier won a special Academy Award in 1946 for his "outstanding achievement."

(This film will be shown at 6 p.m. only in Forum I; it is free and open to public. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

USI THEATRE

Miss Julie

August Strindberg's classic drama
October 7-17 at USI Theatre,
3001 Igleheart Avenue

Curtain time: 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday

2 and 7 p.m. Sundays

Tickets: $7, adults; $5, students and senior citizens (60+)

For tickets and information, call
812/465-1668

— Thursday, October 14 —

Communal Studies Conference opens in New Harmony - see separate item

— Friday, October 15 —

Mid-America Conference for Teachers of Psychology - The tenth annual conference will get under way at 9:30 a.m. in the University Conference Center and close with lunch at 1 p.m. Saturday. Dr. Patricia Keith-Spiegel of Ball State University will give the keynote address, "Ethics in Pale Gray: Unexplored Dimensions of Professor-Student Interactions." Dr. Charles F. Petranek, chair of the USI Sociology Department, will speak at the general session at 8:30 a.m. Saturday on "Encounters at the Beach." A new event is available this year, a pre-conference reception at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Reitz Home in downtown Evansville, allowing delegates "to get to know a little piece of Evansville."

(For information, contact Ms. Vivian Y. Jenkins, USI instructor in psychology and conference coordinator, 812/464-1855.)

Indiana Health Industry Forum - A forum steering committee is holding roundtable meetings at four sites around the state for discussion on what Indiana needs to become a global center for the health industry. The focus will be a public/private initiative to target the health industry for economic development. The southern Indiana session will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. today in Forum I at USI. Other meetings will be in Gary and South Bend on October 21 and Indianapolis on October 29.

(Tricia Mooney of the State Department of Commerce is accepting RSVPs for the roundtable; call 317/233-5391.)

— Saturday, October 16 —

Second M.B.A. Dinner - The second M.B.A. dinner sponsored by the new M.B.A. Association will be held at 6 p.m. in the UC Dining Room. Dennis Ray, operations manager at Alcoa's Warrick Works, will be the featured speaker, discussing the "Effects of Global Competition in the Aluminum Industry."

(For information, contact Dr. Daniel E. Wade, director of the M.B.A. Program, 812/464-1796.)

COMMUNAL STUDIES CONFERENCE

20th annual meeting

Thursday-Sunday, October 14-17
New Harmony, Indiana

"Culture, Thought, and Living in Community"

Sponsored by Communal Studies Association (CSA) and International Communal Studies Association (ICSA)

Deadline for conference reservations
- October 6; individual sessions open, space permitting - varying fees apply

Make dinner reservations,

$15 each, by October 6 with USI Center for Communal Studies (CCS), 812/464-1727; individual session tickets may be picked up in CCS or at conference registration desk

For information, contact:

Dr. Donald E. Pitzer, USI professor of history, CSA and CCS executive director, and conference chairperson, 812/464-1727;

Kathy W. Funke, director, USI New and Information Services, 812/465-7050; or Julie Rutherford, special projects coordinator, Historic New Harmony, 812/682-4488

Special CSA Exhibits/Tour

"Dwellings of the Soul" - October 10-November 10, New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art

"The Indiana Decade, 1814-1824: Industries, Crafts, and Products of the Harmony Society" - October 10 to May 1994, Scholle House

"The Various Aspects of William Macne: the Scientist, the Educator, the Social Reformer, and the Philanthropist" - October 5-30, Workingmen's Institute

The public may join the post-conference tour of Lincoln Boyhood National Memorial and St. Meinrad Archabbey in Spencer County, Indiana, on Monday, October 18; the Pleasant Hill Shaker Village in Kentucky, October 19; and the Padanaram Settlement near Bedford, Indiana, October 20. Call USI Extended Services, extension 1989, for information or reservations.