Eagle Athletics

Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002, after seven years as the assistant director of Athletics.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and host of the 2004 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, no one did it better in the GLVC than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his appointment at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotional activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have four sons, Nathan, Garland, Ty, and Owen, and daughter, Mary Claire.

...a modern, technology-enhanced ENVIRONMENT

USI is a vibrant campus with modern facilities and an exciting pace of growth. The face of the campus has continued to change with an entrance roundabout, an addition to the Recreation, Fitness, and Wellness Center opening this year, and a Business and Engineering Center to open next fall. The University Center renovation will open in the spring of 2011. USI provides the most up-to-date facilities for academics, housing, and student life.

Computer Services

Computer labs are located throughout campus and in the housing areas. Wireless service is available in all main buildings and the surrounding courtyards.

All residence life areas are equipped with network jacks for Internet access. Wireless network also is available throughout the housing areas.

Eagle Access Card

Students use the Eagle Access Card as an identification card and as an all-in-one card for student services such as library privileges, meal plans, vending and copy machines, and access to the Recreation, Fitness, and Wellness Center.

MyUSI

MyUSI is a portal to web services. Students check e-mail, register online, view their grades, and access other services through this secure web site.

USI at a GLANCE

- A comprehensive, four-year public university in Evansville, Indiana, founded in 1965 and established as a separate university in 1985
- 10,126 students from 91 Indiana counties, 40 states, and 50 nations (2008-09)
- Student/faculty ratio of 18:1
- 1,400-acre suburban campus with 12 modern academic buildings
- Apartments and suite-style residence halls for approximately 2,700 students
- Six academic units: Business, Education and Human Services, Liberal Arts, Nursing and Health Professions, Science and Engineering, and University Division

Location

The University of Southern Indiana was founded in Evansville in 1965. USI is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan centers of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

The Campus

The Health Professions Center, Science Center, Wright Administration Building, the Education Center, and the Orr Center are located on the north side of campus. Rice Library, the University Center, the Liberal Arts Center, the Technology Center, and the Business and Engineering Center, now under construction, form the quadrangle in the center of campus. The Physical Activities Center and the Recreation and Fitness Center, which is undergoing a substantial addition, are located east of University Boulevard, a major thoroughfare through campus. Apartment buildings and residence halls are home to 2,700 students who live on campus.

Academic Life

The University enrolls 10,126 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. An ever-increasing number of post-graduate programs also are available to students who wish to continue their education. Opportunities are available for service learning, study abroad, and internships.

Campus Life

Outside the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Residence Life

Students living on campus have their choice of two types of housing. Students can live in standard apartments or in suite-style housing in residence halls which have amenities such as Internet connections, wireless Internet, and cable television. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor and indoor recreation areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven to be overwhelmingly popular to students. Meal plans also are available at the University Center, which is located in the center of campus.

Financial Assistance

USI provides families with an affordable way to higher education. While some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial assistance, others qualify for need-based financial packages, including grants, loans, and on-campus jobs.

EVANSVILLE, Indiana

...A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. Roberts Stadium and the Victory Theatre attract students to concerts by entertainers like Nelly, Aerosmith, Kenny Chesney, Kid Rock, and Josh Groban. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a wonderful view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville's coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and restaurants are plentiful on both sides of the Lloyd Expressway. The Eastland Mall area on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI's suburban location in the rolling hills of western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.

• ABOUT the PAC •

Physical Activities Center

The newly renovated Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 28 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the setting for many games of regional and national interest during the past 17 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI volleyball team has a 70-21 home record since 2000, a .769 winning percentage.

In 2006-07, the PAC underwent renovations that included three new wood courts and a new center-court design that incorporated USI's athletic logo. The renovation also featured a new scoreboard and video board, new portable goals, and new seating. Among the changes to the seating were padded chairback seats and back-supported bleacher seats.

• EAGLES in the COMMUNITY •

University of Southern Indiana's Department of Athletics is in the national spotlight for its athletic accomplishments in the NCAA Division II and in the Evansville-area spotlight as partners in the community.

USI student athletes are among the many volunteers contributing to the success of the Komen Race for the Cure, while the coaching staff is present to help staff the telephones for the MDA Telethon.

The volleyball team also conducts numerous camps and clinics throughout the year and participates in several volunteer reading programs throughout the school year.

In addition to the national charities, the Department of Athletics sponsors Eagle Math, a nationally recognized program to encourage young students to improve their math skills. The program is designed around the Eagle Math booklets printed in the first quarter, second quarter, third quarter, and fourth quarter sequence to carry out the sports theme.

As student athletes practice to get better, math students are encouraged to practice math to excel in the classroom.

• ABOUT the GREAT LAKES VALLEY CONFERENCE •

The 15-member Great Lakes Valley Conference has made its name throughout the last 31 years as a power in NCAA Division II basketball. In the last few years, however, the GLVC has seen success in many sports, and the league can now claim itself as one of the nation's top in all NCAA Division II athletics.

The formation of the GLVC can be traced as far back as 1972 when the athletic directors of three member schools - Kentucky Wesleyan, Bellarmine and Indiana State University at Evansville (now the University of Southern Indiana) - began preliminary discussions about forming a basketball conference. Four years later, the University of Indianapolis and Saint Joseph's College expressed interest. On July 7, 1978, those schools - along with Ashland University - united to become the GLVC.

In 2009, Maryville University and the University of Illinois at Springfield became the newest members of the league. The schools are two of 13 institutions that have joined the league since its formation. Those members include: Lewis University (1980), Indiana-Purdue at Fort Wayne (1984), Northern Kentucky University (1985), Kentucky State University (1989), Quincy University (1994), Southern Illinois University Edwardsville (1994), University of Wisconsin-Parkside (1994), University of Missouri-St. Louis (1995), Drury (2005), Missouri S&T (2005), Rockhurst (2005), Illinois-Springfield (2009) and Maryville (2009). Ashland and Kentucky State left the conference after the 1994 season, IPFW left the league following the 2000-01 academic year and SIU Edwardsville exited the league following the 2007-08 academic year.

The conference headquarters are located in downtown Indianapolis, one of the many Midwest major media markets in which the league maintains a presence. The GLVC has schools in Milwaukee/Northern Illinois (UW-Parkside), Chicago (Lewis), Indianapolis (Indianapolis), Cincinnati (Northern Kentucky), Louisville (Bellarmine), Evansville (Southern Indiana), Springfield, Mo. (Drury), Owensboro (Kentucky Wesleyan), Kansas City (Rockhurst) and St. Louis (Maryville, UM-St. Louis).

The conference sponsors 17 championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, indoor and outdoor track and field, and tennis for men and basketball, cross country, softball, soccer, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, golf, and volleyball for women.

GLVC institutions have won 11 national championships in basketball. Kentucky Wesleyan leads all Division II institutions with eight men's basketball titles, while Southern Indiana won the men's crown in 1995. Northern Kentucky's women won the school's first-ever basketball national championship in 2000 and followed with a national title in 2008. In addition, SIU Edwardsville became the first GLVC school to win a national championship in softball in 2007.

In 2001, the league announced the creation of the GLVC Hall of Fame, with the first class being inducted in 2002. The GLVC annually presents the Richard F. Scharf Paragon Award to the top male and female student-athlete in the league, and the Bertram Award to a distinguished alum who both succeeded while a GLVC student-athlete and excelled in accomplishments after graduation.

The GLVC strives to adhere to the NCAA Division II Strategic Platform and has introduced several initiatives in recent years including the GLVC Sportsmanship Award which acknowledges the institution that exemplifies sportsmanship in the view of its peers.

The league continually maintains an effort to combine academic and athletic excellence and the hard work put forth by the student-athletes has been evident on the playing fields and in the classrooms.

Eagles look to take next step

The University of Southern Indiana volleyball team enters the 2009 season looking to build on where they left off during the 2008 campaign.

USI, which was 18-15 overall and 9-8 in the GLVC last season, returned to the GLVC Tournament championship match a year ago, the first time since 2004 and the sixth time since 2000 a year ago.

After starting out the 2008 conference season with a 2-6 record, the Screaming Eagles rebounded to win seven of their final nine GLVC matches. They continued that success as they went on to upend nationally-ranked Northern Kentucky in the opening round of the GLVC Tournament before ousting GLVC West Division champion Missouri-St. Louis in the semifinals.

Fifth-year Head Coach Leah Mercer has plenty of reason to believe USI's late-season success will roll into 2009 as she returns five starters and her libero from last season's squad.

In 2009, Mercer will look to a strong senior class that includes five players. Setter Melanie Pund has been USI's most versatile player during the last two years and looks to continue her success as the Eagles' leader on the court as she enters her second full season as USI's starting setter.

Pund, who recorded 1,117 assists in 2008, can look to fellow classmates Courtney Bealor, Jaclyn Johnson, and Kathi Hindman on the outside. Bealor averaged 2.75 kills and 2.58 digs per set in 2008. She had 18 kills, a .429 attacking percentage, and 11 digs in the Eagles' victory over Missouri-St. Louis in the GLVC Tournament.

Johnson played a bigger role for the Eagles in 2008 as she played in all 33 matches, making five starts, during her junior year. She played a major factor for the Eagles at the Missouri-St. Louis Invitational early in the season as she averaged 3.42 kills and 2.75 digs per set to lead USI to a 2-1 mark.

Hindman averaged 1.74 kills and 0.48 blocks per game in her first full season as USI's right side hitter. She recorded at least 10 kills in six matches, including a season-best 14 at DePauw.

Senior middle blocker Ashley Henricks rounds out USI's senior class after solidifying her standing as one of the GLVC's top blockers in 2008. Henricks was fifth in the GLVC with 0.99 blocks per set and was third in the conference with 1.18 blocks per frame in GLVC-only matches. She had at least five blocks in eight matches a year ago, including a season-high 10 blocks at Drury.

Outside hitter Brittani Oliver and libero Janae Curnutt lead USI's junior class. Oliver, a third-team All-GLVC selection in 2008, was arguably USI's most explosive offensive threat last year as she averaged a team-high 2.83 kills per set. Oliver's biggest improvement from her freshman year to her sophomore year, however, was her defensive presence as she was second on the team with 2.87 digs per frame.

Curnutt established herself as one of the top liberos in the GLVC last season when she led the Eagles with 3.92 digs per set, good enough for seventh in the conference. Curnutt's 0.33 service aces per game against conference opposition ranked ninth in the GLVC.

Included in USI's junior class is middle blocker Katie Knott and right side hitter/setter Kristi DeWulf. Knott transferred to USI after two seasons at Parkland College (Champaign, Illinois) where she helped lead the Cobras to the semifinals of the NJCAA II Tournament.

• 2009 VOLLEYBALL OUTLOOK •

Senior setter Melanie Pund (middle) can count on the outside hitter duo of senior Courtney Bealor (left) and junior Brittani Oliver (right) to provide plenty of offense in 2009. Bealor averaged 2.75 kills per set in 2008, while Oliver earned third-team All-GLVC honors after leading the Eagles with 2.83 kills per frame. Pund reached the 1,000-assist plateau during her first full season as USI's starting setter.

DeWulf also spent two seasons in the junior college ranks as she helped John A. Logan College to a 38-10 record in 2008.

Mercer will look to another transfer, sophomore middle blocker Danielle LaGrange, to help fill the void left by the graduation of All-GLVC middle blocker Margaret Buschman. LaGrange spent her first season of collegiate volleyball at Indiana University where she played in 11 matches. She was a three-time All-State and All-Conference performer at Heritage Hills High School (Ferdinand, Indiana) and played alongside Pund for two seasons.

USI's back row also is bolstered by the return of sophomore defensive specialists Stephanie Berg and Krista Coccaro. Both Berg and Coccaro saw valuable playing time in their first season with the Eagles. Berg averaged 1.44 digs per set in 15 matches, while Coccaro played in 24 matches, recording 0.53 digs per game.

Three players will make their collegiate debuts in 2009 with the Eagles after stellar prep careers. Freshman setter Ashley King, freshman right side hitter Emily Meyer, and freshman outside hitter Abbi Williams round out Mercer's list of newcomers.

King was 11th in the IHSAA with 9.49 assists per game as a senior at Columbus North High School (Columbus, Indiana). She earned All-Conference honors and was named to the Indiana South All-Star team after helping CNHS to a 25-9 record and the 2008 Conference Indiana title.

Meyer comes to USI from Mercy Academy (Louisville) where she was a member of the Kentucky High School State Championship team in 2008. Meyer helped Mercy Academy to a 40-1 mark and a national ranking of third in the ESPN RISE Fab 50 poll.

Williams graduated from nationally ranked Sacred Heart Academy (Louisville) where she was a member of the KHSSA runner-up squad. Williams, who recorded 264 kills and 217 digs in 2008, was named to the KHSAA State All-Tournament team and was a second-team All-State honoree. She also helped her squad to a 29-10 record and a national ranking of 18th.

In 2009, the Eagles will find out what life is like on the road as they start the season with three classic-style tournaments. USI begins the season August 28-29 at the Ferris State Bulldog Classic in Big Rapids, Michigan, before traveling to Findlay, Ohio, September 4-5 for The TownePlace Suites Classic.

Prior to opening up their GLVC schedule at Bellarmine September 18, the Eagles will travel to Omaha, Nebraska, to take part in the Nebraska-Omaha Volleyball Classic.

The Eagles open their six-match home schedule September 25 against Drury. USI also hosts Rockhurst (September 26), Indianapolis (October 9), and Saint Joseph's (October 10) before closing out its home schedule with Missouri-St. Louis (October 30) and Missouri S&T (October 31).

In addition to their 14-match GLVC schedule, the Eagles will take part in the GLIAC/GLVC Crossover October 16-17 in Lansing, Michigan, before visiting Oakland City October 20.

The GLVC Tournament is slated for November 13-15, while the NCAA II Midwest Region Tournament is November 19-22 and the NCAA II Elite Eight is December 3-5.

Head Coach Leah Mercer

Head Coach Leah Mercer '02 enters her fifth season at the helm of the USI volleyball program after leading the Screaming Eagles to their first GLVC Tournament Championship match since 2004 and their sixth in the last nine years.

Mercer, who currently ranks second all-time with 69 career victories at the helm of the USI volleyball program, directed her squad to an 18-15 overall mark, 9-8 in the GLVC, and a third-place finish in the GLVC West Division.

In the last two years, Mercer's Eagles have been among the nation's best at the net. Her squad led the GLVC and was eighth in the nation with 2.43 blocks per set in 2008.

The Eagles' 454 block assists in 2008 eclipsed the program's all-time record, which was set the previous year when USI amassed 450 block assists.

In 2007, Mercer's squad finished 15-14 overall and was fourth in the GLVC West Division with a 9-10 conference mark. Under Mercer's direction, the 2007 Eagles set season records for digs (2,147) and block assists.

Mercer led the Eagles to a sixth-place finish in the GLVC regular-season standings with a 17-11 overall mark, 9-7 GLVC, in 2006. In the Great Lakes Region, the Eagles knocked off eventual region champion Ashland early in the season.

In 2005, Mercer led her squad to a 19-13 overall record and an 11-5 mark in the GLVC. Her squad also posted wins over fifth-ranked North Alabama and 11th-ranked Northern Michigan.

A native of Evansville and a 2002 graduate of USI, Mercer served Loyola University (Chicago) as the top assistant coach in 2004. She helped guide the Ramblers to a 22-9 overall record and a 10-4 mark in the Horizon League. Loyola won the Horizon League Tournament championship and qualified for the NCAA Division I Tournament before falling to the University of Wisconsin in the first round.

Prior to her one-year stint at Loyola, Mercer spent a year as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. She helped lead the Bobcats to a 28-5 overall record, the Mid-American Conference regular-season and tournament titles, and the program's first-ever berth in the NCAA I Tournament.

Mercer, who started her coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Purdue University in 2002, was a two-time All-GLVC performer and helped lead the Eagles to a three-year record of 61-27, including a 49-14 mark as a junior and senior. She averaged 3.1 kills per game during her three seasons of collegiate volleyball. Mercer also averaged 5.9 points and 3.6 rebounds in two seasons with USI's women's basketball program.

Mercer Quickbits

- two-time All-GLVC performer
- has been a part of 190 victories, as a player and a coach, at the collegiate level

Mercer, who has a bachelor's degree in physical education (teaching K-12) and a master's degree in recreation and sports science (coaching education), is the Screaming Eagles' 11th head coach in the history of the program.

Leah Mercer '02 led the Screaming Eagles to the GLVC Tournament championship match for the first time since 2004 and the sixth time since 2000 a year ago. She has led USI to a 69-53 overall record, 38-30 in the GLVC, during her first three seasons at the helm of the USI volleyball program.

Assistant Coach Rashinda Reed

Assistant Coach Rashinda Reed enters her first season with the University of Southern Indiana volleyball program. Reed will assist Head Coach Leah Mercer in all aspects of the USI volleyball program.

A native of Fairbanks, Alaska, Reed played collegiately at the University of Georgia (Athens, Georgia) from 2002 to 2003 after beginning her collegiate career at Southwestern Oregon Community College (Coos Bay, Oregon).

Following her collegiate career, Reed went on to play professionally in Europe. She began her professional career in 2005 with the VC Tirol Volleyball Club in Innsbruck, Austria. Reed also played for the El Algar Volleyball Club in Cartagene, Spain, as well as the Plantina Longa Volleyball Club in Lichtenvoorde, Netherlands.

Most recently, Reed spent a season with the Pislaploki Volleyball Club in Pihtipudas, Finland.

In addition to her playing career, Reed is the co-owner and operator of Elite Sports Network youth athletic camps. She has more than eight years of coaching experience with clubs, high schools, satellite camps, and international teams.

“I am excited to have someone of Rashinda’s caliber joining my staff,” Mercer said. “I am looking forward to what she will do on and off the court for USI volleyball.”

Reed graduated from Georgia in 2005 with a degree in psychology.
