

For immediate release
August 31, 2001

University of Southern Indiana September events

Monday, September 3

- Labor Day - University closed.

Thursday, September 6

- Board of Trustees Meeting – 1:30 p.m., Governors Hall Multi-Purpose Room, USI campus. Open to the public.

- Ceremonial groundbreaking for the $23.1 million Science Education Center – 3:30 p.m., on the building site behind the existing Science Center on the USI campus. Follow the signs. Reception to follow. Open to the public.

Monday, September 12

- Open auditions for Oedipus the King – a production of USI Theatre, 6 to 9 p.m., Helen Mallette Studio Theatre, USI campus. Under the direction of Elliot Wasserman, associate professor of theatre, the show will be performed in October at the USI Theatre, 3001 Igleheart Ave.

Tuesday, September 13

- Open auditions for Oedipus the King – a production of USI Theatre, 6 to 9 p.m., Helen Mallette Studio Theatre, USI campus. Under the direction of Elliot Wasserman, associate professor of theatre, the show will be performed in October at the USI Theatre, 3001 Igleheart Ave.

Friday, September 14

■ "Tipping the Scales to Non-Mammalian Models of Hypertension: A Fish Story" - seminar in the Indiana University School of Medicine Evansville Research Series, 3 p.m., Room 3010, Health Professions Center, USI campus. Speaker: Dr. Kenneth Olson, IU School of Medicine, South Bend Center. Open to the public.

Monday, September 17

■ Founders Day – recognizing employees with 25 years of service, 3 p.m., Carter Hall, University Center, USI campus. Ronald Harvey, senior maintenance mechanic in the Physical Plant; Donna Laymon, senior administrative assistant in the Physical Plant; Sherrienne Standley, vice president for Advancement; Ruth Waller, director of Intramural and Recreational Sports; and Michael Whipple, assistant treasurer and director of the Business Office, will be honored. A reception will follow. Open to the public.

Friday, September 21

■ "Rescue Excavations at the Bone Bank Archeological Site, Posey County" – an illustrated talk by Indiana University Archeologist Cheryl Ann Munson, 7 p.m., Forum II, USI campus. Presented in conjunction with Indiana Archeology Week. Open to the public.

Saturday, September 22

■ Southern Hospitality Day – prospective students visit the USI campus, 8 a.m. To register, call 812/464-1765 or 800/467-1965.

Monday, September 24

■ Brown Bag Seminar, Management Skills Series - noon to 12:45 p.m., Room 206, University Center, USI campus: "Managing Life," presented by Sandra Lawrence, director of Student Wellness. Bring a lunch. Open to the public.

Tuesday, September 25

■ Brown Bag Seminar, Management Skills Series - noon to 12:45 p.m., Room 206, University Center, USI campus: "Managing Time," presented by Dr. Michael Slavkin, assistant professor of education. Bring a lunch. Open to the public.

■ "Encountering Nature" lecture – featuring Tim Cahill, travel writer and editor-at-large of Outdoor magazine, 7:30 p.m., Mitchell Auditorium, USI campus. Sponsor: University Core Curriculum Council. Open to the public.

Wednesday, September 26

■ Brown Bag Seminar, Management Skills Series - noon to 12:45 p.m., Room 206, University Center, USI campus: "Managing College Studies," presented by Lori Suter, developmental educator in Academic Skills. Bring a lunch. Open to the public.

Thursday, September 27

■ Brown Bag Seminar, Management Skills Series - noon to 12:45 p.m., Room 214, University Center, USI campus: "Managing Test Stress," presented by Nancy Myers, math specialist in Academic Skills. Bring a lunch. Open to the public.

Friday, September 28

■ Liberal Arts Colloquium: "The Subversion of Militarist Discourse in the Prose Writings of Gabriela Mistral" - 3:30 to 4:30 p.m., Carter Hall D, University Center, USI campus: Program exploring the views of Chilean Nobel Prize-winning poet Gabriela Mistral (1889-1957), presented by Dr. Teresa Huerta, assistant professor of Spanish. Open to the public.