

USI SCHEDULE

ADD - WEEK OF MARCH 10

Friday, March 15

Classical Heritage Day: Some 200 Latin and literature honors students from Boonville, Evansville Memorial, Henderson, and Mount Vernon high schools are expected to attend the 14th annual Classical Heritage Day, to be held at 8 a.m. in Forum I. The program, with a theme of Greek tragedy, was coordinated with USI Theatre's recent production of Antigone.

(For information, contact Dr. Daniel C. Scavone, professor of history, 812/464-1725 or 1961.)

ADD - WEEK OF MARCH 17

Tuesday, March 19

Liberal Arts Forum: Dr. Peter Schlobinski, professor of linguistics at the University of Osnabruck in Germany, will be featured in a Liberal Arts Forum at 7:30 p.m. in UC352. His topic will be "Berlin Dialect: Unified City - Unified Language?" The public is invited. Dr. Schlobinski is a Berlin native whose professional interests and numerous publications in linguistics have focused on the dialects of Berlin and urban dialects in general.

(For information, contact Dr. Thomas M. Rivers, professor of English, 812/464-1753.)

Friday, March 22

Brown Bag Seminar: Dr. Erik Sowa, a physicist in the Chemistry and Materials Science Department at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory, will speak at 11:30 a.m. in UC350, in a Brown Bag Seminar sponsored by the School of Science and Engineering Technology. He will present a technical discussion of Lawrence

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

Livermore's efforts to improve adhesives and the functions of U.S. National Laboratories. The public is invited.

(For information, contact Paul E. Bennett, associate professor of electrical engineering technology, 812/464-1881.)

Saturday, March 23

International Students Dinner: The International Students Club hopes to establish a traditional ISC dinner at USI, with the first to be held at 6 p.m. in the UC Dining Room. The meal will include the students' favorite dishes from their homelands -- Africa, Bangladesh, Germany, India, Israel, Japan, Poland, and other Mid-East areas -- and a fashion show in which students will model their native attire. Tickets are $8 and are available at the UC Information Desk or by calling 812/464-1861.

(For information, contact the Student Life Office, 812/464-1862.)

WEEK OF MARCH 24

Monday, March 25

Southern Hospitality Day: The first of two spring Southern Hospitality Days to allow Tri-State high school students and their families to become acquainted with USI will begin at 9 a.m. in the University Center. The day's activities will include tours of the campus and adjacent student housing, meetings with the academic deans, and information sessions on extra-curricular opportunities. No reservations are required.

(more)

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Organization

8600 University Boulevard • Evansville, Indiana 47712

(For information call the USI Admissions Office, 812/464-1765 or 800/444-1965.)

Monday-Thursday, March 25-28

Visiting Artist: Tom Hilty, a Gary, Indiana, native who is director of the School of Art at Bowling Green State University in Ohio, will present workshops at 8:30 a.m. Monday and 1 p.m. Tuesday in the Art Annex; 10 a.m. Wednesday in the Wood Shop; and 9:30 a.m. Thursday in the Art Annex. He also will present a slide lecture at 7 p.m. Tuesday at The Atheneum in New Harmony. Hilty's fragmented realist drawings have been shown throughout the U.S. and are found in many collections, including IBM Corporation, Sears Roebuck, and the Lilly Endowment. J. Rosenthal Fine Arts Ltd. in Chicago has shown his work since 1983. He has been a visiting artist/lecturer in schools across the U.S. and in Europe.

(For information, contact Kathryn M. Waters, chair of the Art and Music Department, 812/464-1933.)

Tuesday, March 26

Spring Film Series: Time Stands Still (1982, Hungarian) Director: Peter Gothar. During the Hungarian revolution of 1956, a rebel flees to America, leaving his wife and kids behind. In Budapest, his family grows up copying the American styles and songs to rebel against their every day existence.

(The movies are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, assistant dean of the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1747 or

Wednesday, March 27

Roat Book Signing: A book-signing reception will be held at 3 p.m. in Forum II for Ronald C. Roat, assistant professor of journalism whose first novel, Close Softly the Doors, was released February 18 by Story Line Press of Brownsville, Oregon. Roat will read from the book; copies will be available for purchase and he will sign them. The USI Bookstore will provide refreshments.

(For information, contact Roat, 812/465-1608, or Annie Krug, coordinator of Special Events, 465-1654.

Friday, March 29 - Good Friday, University closed.

USI SCHEDULE

WEEK OF MARCH 31

Monday, April 1

Guest Lecturer: Luis de la Cruz, pharmaceutical products manager for Bristol-Myers Squibb, will speak on "Languages and International Marketing" at 2 p.m. in UC350-351. The public is invited. A native of Puerto Rico, de la Cruz is one of his company's top sales representatives and has traveled extensively in Europe and Latin America.

(For information, contact Dr. Oscar Ozete, chair of the Foreign Language Department, 812/464-1742.)

Monday-Saturday, April 1-6

Greek Week: Campus fraternities and sororities will celebrate Greek Week, beginning with a Greek awards ceremony and speaker at 7 p.m. Monday in the UC Dining Room. There also will be a Greek Dance at 9 p.m. Friday in the Conference Center and the Greek Olympics, starting at 12 noon Saturday on the UC lawn.

(For information, contact the Student Life Office, 812/464-1863.)

Tuesday, April 2

Spring Film Series: No film scheduled.

Thursday, April 4

Enlow Distinguished Scholar: Dale Van Atta, who shares a byline with Jack Anderson in a nationally syndicated column that reaches 50 million people daily, will speak on "A Typical Week in the Life of an Investigative Columnist" at 2 p.m. in Forum III and

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

"Showdown in the Desert" at 7:30 p.m. in Forum I. The evening program will deal with his experiences in the Mideast during the recent war. Van Atta is appearing as the School of Liberal Arts 1991 Enlow Distinguished Scholar. He is a graduate of Brigham Young University and worked at the Salt Lake City Deseret News before joining the staff of the "Washington Merry-Go-Round" column which appears in The Evansville Courier. Van Atta uncovered the Iran-Contra arms for hostages deal in the late 1980s. His work over the years has been nominated for seven Pulitzer Prizes.

(For information, contact Ronald C. Roat, assistant professor of journalism, 812/465-1608.)

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Organization

8600 University Boulevard · Evansville, Indiana 47712