Three alumni will be featured as Alumni-in-Residence

The University of Southern Indiana Bower-Suhrheinrich School of Education and Human Services will feature Glenna Bower, a lecturer in physical education at USI and Student Fitness Center coordinator, Scott Ferguson, a physical education teacher, cross country coach and wrestling assistant coach at Reitz High School, and Michelle Fitzgerald, a physical education teacher and softball coach at Lawrence North, Indianapolis, at 3 p.m., Wednesday, February 28, in the Health Professions Center, room 1008, for the spring alumni-in-residence panel discussion.

The three will share their experiences in education and provide insights for the transition from college to the workplace. Their discussion topic is the evolution of the profession.

The lecture is free and open to the public. Bower, a 1995 graduate, Ferguson, a 1995 graduate, and Fitzgerald, a 1997 graduate, will meet with education students and faculty throughout the day.
