USI CROSS COUNTRY TEAM READY TO RUN

The 1988 cross country season at the University of Southern Indiana begins Saturday, September 3, with the annual USI Classic. The men's 8K run begins at 9 a.m. and the women's 5K at 9:45 a.m.

Dr. William Stegemoller, USI's head coach, said he is looking for leadership from senior Mike Orban and juniors Dennis Griffen and Troy Ward. "These guys, along with sophomores Brad Nolan and Rob Kirby, will be our nucleus," Stegemoller said.

Stegemoller's squad is ranked second in the Great Lakes Region going into Saturday's meet. The 1987 team finished 11th in the nation and Stegemoller is looking for good results again this year.

Scheduled to participate in the run are defending champion Western Kentucky, University of Louisville, University of Evansville, Kentucky State, Vincennes University, and St. Meinrad College.
