

For immediate release
February 19, 2001

Photo/Video opportunity
USI to hold 10th annual Internship/Co-op Fair February 21

The University of Southern Indiana Career Services and Placement Office will hold the 10th Annual Internship/Co-op Fair from 10:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, February 21, in Carter Hall on campus. The fair provides an opportunity for employers to meet potential interns and serves as a learning tool for USI students to become better acquainted with area businesses.

Seventy-three employers will participate in the fair including American General, Berry Plastics, Deaconess Hospital, ESPN II, and Operation City Beautiful.

Students in attendance will represent a variety of disciplines including accounting, business administration, engineering technology, foreign language, health services, and journalism.

The fair is free of charge. For more information contact Pam Doerter, coordinator of Internship and Cooperative Education, USI Career Services and Placement, at 812/464-1865.

Sent to photo desk at Courier & Press and The Shield; assignment editors at local television stations